

Introduction

In this issue of Prolegomena we publish a selection of papers presented at the conference “Filozofija – Jam Session” held at the University of Rijeka (14 and 15 February, 2013) on the occasion of Boran Berčić’s Filozofija (2 vols., Zagreb: Ibis grafika, 2012). The publication of this book was a good opportunity for philosophers from Croatia, Slovenia and Serbia to discuss some of the central topics in contemporary philosophy and to address critically Berčić’s views. We hope that the papers appearing here, together with Berčić’s comments, give a good idea not only of the importance and value of the book but also of the variety, vitality and quality of the contemporary philosophy in Croatia and neighbouring countries.
