COURSE DESCRIPTION

The U.S.-China relationship has become one of the most important bilateral relations in the world. Its evolution and management will have a decisive impact on international peace and security in the twenty-first century. China's ascendance in world affairs is also one of the most significant and challenging foreign policy issues facing the United States today. This course aims to introduce students to the history of evolution of the bilateral relations, the dynamics of interactions and policy-making on both sides, and to discuss a number of key issues in the relationship.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Attendance and Participation: (20%)

Regular attendance (10% of the final grade) and active participation in the class (10% of the final grade)

Attendance is extremely important because the course will be interactive in nature. Participation in the class discussions is critical to student learning and to exhibit that the required material is being read. Students should read and reflect on the readings ahead of time in order for class sessions to have the most value. Students participate by asking questions, giving comments, circulating emails, exchanging writing or introducing new ideas and resources. Excessive absences may result in a failing grade.

Critical Reading Assignment (15%)

While all students will be expected to complete the reading assignments prior to each class, you will also be provided an opportunity to lead a class discussion on a weekly reading assignment. You will sign up for a particular week/topic. It is expected that you come prepared to deliver a brief presentation on ONE of the readings for that class period and to lead a discussion on the key topics and concepts for the week.

Guidelines for the Critical Reading Assignment:

- Present Key Concepts
- How does the content expand your view of cross culture negotiation?
- What, if any, follow-on questions does the reading raise for you?
- Submit a 3-page outline.

Mid-term Exam: (25%)

The mid-term exam will be a take home exam. There will be no tricks in this exam. If students come to class and do the required reading, they will do well on this exam. March 22

Final Paper: (40%) Details will be discussed further in class. Final paper due May 8.

For all written assignments it is expected that you will cite your class texts, supplemental readings, and other sources. Papers should be double-spaced, spell-checked, and legible. It should be in 12 point characters in the 'Times' font. Please choose Chicago, MLA or APA citation styles. They should be your own work and must not be copied or otherwise plagiarized from another source whether it be an internet site or another student. In the case of plagiarism students will receive 0% for the whole research work component of the grade. They may also, depending on the severity of the case and its legal implications, be referred to the university administration.

PLAGIARISM

Plagiarism is the unauthorized and/or unacknowledged use of another person's intellectual efforts and creations howsoever recorded, including whether formally published or in manuscript or in typescript or other printed or electronically presented form.
