Dr. Charles Stedman MacFarland Preaches Baccalaureate Sermon

Former Secretary of Federal Council of Churches Gives Inspiring Message to Graduating Class

"THE UPWARD LOOK AND THE DOWNWARD REACH" IS THEME

The sixtieth baccalaureate service at Ursinus was held Sunday morning, June 8, in Bomberger Memorial Hall, with the Reverend Charles Stedman MacFarland, of New York, as speaker.

The service opened with the professional hymn "God of Our Fathers." The procession was led by the College Choir followed by the speaker of the morning and the Senior class.

The response "Beautiful Saviour" by Christiansen was sung by the choir. President Omwake offered the invocation and the choir sang Rachmaninoff's "Creation Hymn."

The scripture was read by the Rev. John Lentz who also offered prayer. The offering preceded another beautiful anthem, "All Men Praise God," by Mendelssohn.

President Omwake, with a few remarks pertaining to Dr. MacFarland's past work, introduced him as the speaker of the morning. Dr. MacFarland announced that the topic of his sermon was "Culture and Service" and took for his text the first verse of the fifteenth chapter of James.

Dr. MacFarland used as a point of departure and basis for his discussion an application drawn from his impressions of Hoffman's famous picture of Christ and the sinful woman. He said two things impressed him in his study of it. One was the countenance.

ALUMNI ATHLETIC CLUB

The Alumni Athletic Club held their annual luncheon-meeting, Saturday noon, June 7. Over sixty members were present and much business pertaining both to present and future conditions was discussed. The meeting opened with nomination and election of officers for the coming year. The results were: Eugene Michael '24, of Philadelphia, President; John Markley '24, Schwenksville, Vice-President, and Harry Mathieu '11, Trappe, Treasurer.

One of the proposals decided upon was a new method of ticket sales for the coming year. The alumni are to have a reserved section in the grandstand for all games. In addition to this, there will be an attempted large sale of season tickets which will provide admission to all home games of all the sports.

At a meeting of the Executive Council of the Alumni Athletic Club, a proposal was considered to purchase the plot of ground next to the present football field for a baseball field and practice football field. This proposal will be acted upon later.

"STABAT MATER" ANNUAL

ORATORIO PRESENTATION

An unusually large audience enjoyed the annual Ursinus College Chorus oratorio presentation under Miss Hartenstein's direction, Sunday, June 8, in Bomberger Hall. "Stabat Mater" by Rossini was given this year, and in addition to the excellent choral work displayed, the soloists, both guest and student, were well applauded. The instrumental accompaniment on the piano and organ was played throughout the concert by Misses Margaret A. Yost '24 and Esther H. McClure '33. The soloists and the program follow:

Muriel Wayman '30—Soprano
Nevin R. Detwiler, '32—Tenor.
Alton M. Peterman—Bass-Baritone
(Guest Soloist)
Geraldine Ohl '30—Second Soprano
Margaret A. Yost '24—Organ
Esther H. McClure '33—Piano.

HOLDS JUNE MEETING

Committees to Complete Funds For Woman's Dormitory and Science Building Constituted

$310,000 GIVEN LAST YEAR

Gifts of the past year totaling more than $300,000 were reported by the Treasurer, Edward S. Fretz, at the annual meeting of the Board of Directors on Saturday. Among these was one of $5,000 from the Ursinus Woman's Club—a donation toward the proposed new Woman's Building. Another of more than $4,000 was from the Directors themselves, a contribution toward the cost of the new refrigerator room and gas ranges in the college kitchen. The largest gift of the year was that received at Christmas from Cyrus H. K. Curtis, LL. D., amounting to $240,000 toward the erection of the Science Building. It was voted that the bequest of $50,000 from the late Henry M. Housekeeper be placed in the endowment to be known as the Housekeeper Fund.

Committees were constituted to carry to completion the funds started in the interest of the new buildings. That in charge of the Science Building consists of Dr. James M. Anders, Dr. George E. Pfahler, Dr. Ralph H. Spangler, H. E. Paisley, M. R. Longstreth, E. S. Fretz and George L. Omwake. Mr. Paisley is chairman and Mr. Longstreth, secretary. The committee on behalf of the Woman's Building consists of Dr. T. A. Alspach, chairman, Mrs. Rhea Duryea Johnson, Mrs. Mabel Hobson Fretz, Dr. Maurice Samson, Dr. Arthur C. Thompson, Dr. W. Sherman Kerschner and the Rev. David Lockart.

The officers of the College were authorized to dispose of the dairy herd provided a satisfactory price can be gotten for the same. The erection of a modern sewage disposal plant was

Coble Collects Five Safeties as Bears Score 10-2 Victory Over Scarlet

FINAL GAME OF SEASON

Before the largest crowd of the season, Ursinus walloped Haverford, 10-2, Saturday at '22 Field, Haverford. The Bears hit Supplee hard and often, garnering twenty safe bingles for a total of ten runs and twenty-four bases.

Ursinus got to work early, pounding out a four-run lead in the third by gathering five successive singles. In the sixth, seventh and eighth innings the Bears kept increasing their lead two at a time until they rolled up a ten-run total.

Haverford was able to score only in two frames, the fourth and seventh. The Scarlet and Black bunched their hits in each of those innings to produce a counter.

Rube Place hurled a wonderful game, allowing only two runs and seven hits in his eight innings. Bob Strine relieved him in the ninth and was nicked for one hit, a double by Simons. The latter, incidentally, was the star of the Little Quaker team at bat, collecting three of the Scarlet and Black hits in four trips to the plate, driving in both runs.

Coble was by far the king of swat for the Bears, socking the apple for five safe blows, including a triple, in his six appearances at the plate. In addition, he drove in four runs and lugged two across the rubber himself.

This game was the final one for Captain Young, Francis, Place, and Strine.

GIRLS' TENNIS NOTES

The semi-finals of the Women's Tennis Team were played off last week between Rhea Wheatly '33 and "Billy" Strickler '32; Anne Connor '31 and "Evie" Lake '30. "Billy" Strickler won 6-1, 6-4, as did "Evie" Lake 6-2, 4-6, 6-1. Due to the lack of time, the finals will not be played off until next fall. It has been planned that on the Saturday morning of the first football game, the finals will be played off.

AT ANNUAL CLASS DAY

Gay Graduates Participate in Last Round of Fun Before They Become Alumni

PRESENTATIONS ARE CLEVER

Before a large crowd of friends and relatives, the Seniors formally inaugurated commencement week activities on Friday afternoon with Class Day exercises. The exercises took place in Bomberger hall, which was gaily decorated with festoons of daisies.

After an organ prelude by Raye Ashe, Charles D. Mattern, president of the class, gave an address of welcome in which he explained that the program would contain both "sense and nonsense." Katherine Tower read a brief history of the class, pointing out the many and varied accomplishments of the members during their four years at Ursinus.

An important part of the exercises consisted of the Class Will by Gladys Barnes and the Class Prophecy by Clara Riley. The generosity of the Seniors was exemplified in the way in which they so kindly donated many

The Sixtieth Annual Commencement exercises of the College were held in Bomberger Memorial Hall on Monday, June 9, at 11.00 a. m. One hundred and seven persons were graduated in course, and five men received honorary degrees from the institution. The Salutatory and Valedictory Oration were delivered by Charles D. Mattern and Dorothy S. Beck respectively. Dean Charles Maxwell McConn delivered the address of the day.

The exercises were preceded by a recital on the Clark Memorial Organ by Minnie Just Keller, Reading, Pa. According to tradition the members of the Board of Directors, the Faculty, and the recipients of degrees entered the chapel in academic procession. The exercises were opened with a prayer by the Reverend Edwin J. Heath, President of Moravian College for Women.

The Salutatory Oration, delivered by Charles David Mattern, dealt with the subject of "Public Idols." Mr. Mattern dealt with the increasing tendency on the part of present-day people to gather in crowds and seek amusement. We crowd the pavements to cheer another transatlantic flier, channel swimmer, or boxing champion. We must have heroes to worship, regardless of who the hero is or what particular kind of heroism is supposedly displayed. From this two conclusions are drawn. It takes a record-breaker to attract a crowd; and it matters little if at all what that record may be. If the hero worship becomes competitive, we do not know what will happen. Keys to cities are already tame. Confetti cannot last forever. After the demonstration accorded Lindbergh, who after all merely flew the Atlantic, what reception will we give to the first man to make a round trip to the moon? There are two outstanding reasons for this tendency. First, we have too much leisure and too little knowledge of how to utilize it. Second, our adoration of trivial winners is due to a lack of values. Our values are being levelled. Not only all men, but all things are considered equal. We must have discrimination and a scale of extending values. Then we will no longer capitalize heroes, but give true worth its due recognition.

The Valedictory Oration, delivered by Dorothy Sarah Beck, stressed "The Need of Culture in an Age of Materialism."

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the Alumni Association was held in Bomberger Hall, June 7 at 7.30 p. m. Reports of officers and committees constituted the principal business of the day. Of greatest interest was the report of the special committee appointed to investigate the matter of an alumni secretary and publication. The chairman, P. A. Mertz '10, gave a very full report on the way this work is carried on in 100 colleges and universities. After a thorough discussion, the committee was continued and directed to report their findings to the Board of Directors, and, in conjunction with the College authorities, given power to put into effect such conclusions at which it, with the Board, might arrive.

The results of the balloting for officers were announced as follows: President, R. L. Johnson '97; Vice-president, Helen M. Ferree '14; Secretary-Treasurer, C. D. Yost '91; Historian (reelected for a 5-year term), C. G. Petri '00.

Following the meeting the annual Alumni Banquet was held in the upstairs dining room. Reunions were held by the classes of 1880, 1885, 1890, 1895, 1900, 1905, 1910, 1915, 1920, and 1925. Rev. John Lentz '02, retiring president of the Alumni Association, was toastmaster. Brief speeches were made by Rev. Dr. E. S. Bromer '90, Bertha Shippe Miller '05, and Rev. C. F. Deininger '15.

Editorial Comment

TO OUR READERS

We are going to take this opportunity to unburden ourselves upon a subject which has been lying heavily upon our mind for some time. We refer to the financial condition of this paper. One may wonder at first just why this should bother the Editor-in-Chief, but there are good reasons for such perturbation. In the first place, no one likes to be connected with anything that is not a going concern financially. Secondly there is the humiliation one feels in going to newspaper conventions and hearing how other college papers turn in profits, or at least break even. Finally, lack of cash does hamper the editorial board seriously in its attempts to improve the paper. First-class goods doesn't come at bargain counter prices.

There are several reasons for this depressed condition. One is the matter of rates. The subscription and advertising rates are among the lowest of the papers comprising the Intercollegiate Newspaper Association. At the present rate, believe it or not, readers and advertisers are getting perilously close to something for nothing. We shall not discuss the good and bad points of past business managers, although their lack (or overabundance) of energy has not always helped. In this respect the chief failings seem to have been that the advertising columns were not full enough, and too many subscriptions went unpaid. In these two failings lies the crux of the matter and the heart of this editorial.

In an attempt to better the situation, the Board of Control has wisely decided to divide the labor of the old office of Business Manager and created two new positions, those of Advertising Manager and Circulation Manager. The duties are exactly what the titles imply. To fill the posts the Board has elected two men who everyone agreed were well fitted for their posts. Their duties begin with this issue and we know that they will do their level best.

Their best however, is not enough without some cooperation. The Circulation Manager cannot, for all practical purposes, collect subscriptions unless you decide to pay up. Legal action, in our case, would be most unpleasant. The Advertising Manager has a somewhat different problem. He has a certain amount of space to fill or he and the paper are out of luck. Now there are readers of this paper who are, if they were only willing, in a position to throw advertising in his way. Such advertising is not charity or money thrown away. It is purchase of space in a paper of 1500 circulation, and world-wide distribution, and a sound investment in advertising space.

We appeal, then, to all who may read this editorial to pay their Weekly subscriptions promptly, cheerfully, and 100%. We appeal to all who are in a position to advertise in this paper to do so, or at least to give the advertising manager a lead or two to possible sales of space. The future progress of this paper is in the hands of its readers. If you will just pay up, rest assured that we will put up.

* * * * *

We wish to thank at this time all of the Alumni who have so kindly cooperated in filling our Alumni Column. We wish to make a full column of Alumni notes a regular feature, but to do so, we must continue to have your help. Never hesitate to send any news about yourself or some other alumnus to Miss Mildred Hahn, the Alumni Editor, who will be more than glad to receive it.

To those of our number who are leaving our body for good we extend our best wishes for a successful future. To those who will return next year, we wish the most pleasant and profitable of vacations.

ANNE CONNOR AWARDED

BLAZER AT A. A. MEETING

A meeting of the Girls' Athletic Association was held Tuesday afternoon, June 3, 1930, in Bomberger Hall, for the purpose of awarding the various letters earned by the girls during the past year. Miss Errett with a very appropriate speech presented gold basket-balls to Geraldine Ohl '30, captain, and Evelyn Lake '30, side-center of the basketball team.

The Honor Blazer awarded to the Junior girl representing the best that college life stands for—athletically, socially and scholastically—was presented to Anne Connor '31. Miss Errett then presented the Honor Award, establishing a new precedent, to Harriette Drysdale '31 who deserves no little credit for the place she has made for herself in the different phases of college life. Evelyn Lake '30, president of the organization, presented a gift to Miss Errett in appreciation of all that she has done for the institution during her years here.

Sportsmanship letters were awarded to the following: Mary Rothenberger '33, Marion Smith '30, Ruth White '33, Audrey Unruh '33, Rhona Lawrence '32, and Kathryn Inman '32, for the interest shown by them in all athletic activities. Those receiving tennis letters were: Anne Connor '31, Emily Roth '31, Lois Strickler '32, Rhea Wheatley '33, Evelyn Lake '30, captain of the team and Harriette Drysdale '31, manager. The girls earning hiking letters were: 300 miles, Elizabeth Yeates '30 and Anne Connor '31; 200 miles, Helen Green '31, Zelia Propes '32, and Katharine Inman '32; 100 miles, Margaret Deger '33, Mary Brendle '33, Grace Justice '33, Tamar Guilfert '33, Elma Bolles '33, Elizabeth Harvey '33, Margaret Fiamingo '33, Virginia Miller '33, Audrey Unruh '33, Ruth White '33, Mary Roorbach '30, Rhona Lawrence '32, Jane Crispin '32, Katharine Hand '32, Hilda Stanley '32, Louella Mullin '33, Helene Gohs '33, Emily Underdown '33, Betty Yahraes '30, Lois Quinn '31, Eva Seiple '32, Ruth La Wall '31, Beatrice Bunn '32, Carol Lipman '32, Wilhelmina White '33, Hulda Myers '33, Anna Conner '33, Margaret Moxey '33, and Muriel Ingram '33. A new hiking award will be made in the future to those having hiked 400 miles. The retiring president made a short farewell speech and the new president, Harriette Drysdale '31, closed the meeting.

President George L. Omwake has been appointed a member of the Committee of Fifteen authorized by the Liberal Arts College Movement of America at its recent conference in Chicago. This Committee is to complete the organization of the Movement and to lay the plans for a nation-wide appeal for adequate financial support of the liberal arts colleges. The initial meeting of the Committee will be held at Montreat, N. C., July 5-7. Two hundred and seventy six colleges are enrolled in the Movement.

HELEN DETWILER GIVES

PIANO AND ORGAN RECITAL

On Tuesday evening, June 3, a piano and organ recital was given in Bomberger Hall by Miss Helen Z. Detwiler of the present graduating class. Miss Detwiler has studied piano under Jacques F. Stock this past year and organ under Miss Catherine Morgan, of Norristown. Previous to this year, she also studied piano with Miss Morgan.

Miss Detwiler was assisted at her recital by Mr. Harold Weand, tenor, of Norristown. Mr. Chester Norton, also of Norristown, was accompanist for Mr. Weand.

OLD-TIMERS DEFEAT

VARSITY FLINGERS 5-2

The combined hurling and hitting of Moxie Derk, hurling ace of the Grizzly nines of three or four years back, enabled the Alumni to upset the dope and take one away from the Varsity in the annual clash played on Patterson Field Saturday morning. The score of the five-inning contest was 5-2.

Derk kept the three hits he yielded well, scattered and in the second frame hit a homer with one on to give the grads the lead. Joel Francis Alumni center-fielder, connected with a triple.

The batteries were: Alumni—Derk and Haupt; Varsity—Karpinen and Meckley.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

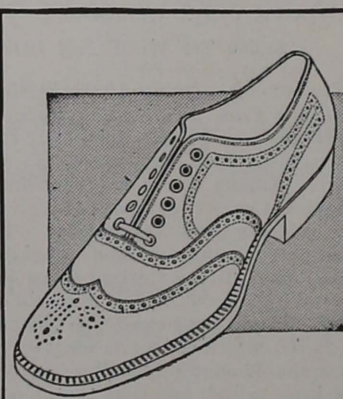

DEPARTMENT ENLARGED

The department of physical education, health and training is being fully organized and manned for the coming year. For some time Ursinus has had an efficient health department with a college physician, resident nurse, a dispensary and infirmaries for men and women students. The College has also had a coaching department. Our athletics have not been wholly satisfactory, however, because of the policy of having the same individual to coach all major sports. Coaches should have faculty standing, but this can be had without all-year-round service. Accordingly Ursinus will employ seasonal coaches who shall be specialists in the particular sports to which they will be assigned.

With a fully manned health department on the one hand and an efficient coaching system on the other, there remains a field between hitherto unfilled, which is now to be provided for by adding to the staff professionally trained instructors in physical education and training for both men and women students.

The Tower Window

THE year just brought to a close has been full of satisfactions. We can truly say that it was the best ever for Ursinus. As we now look forward to the year to come, we can feel that we have placed our feet on higher ground and, as an institution of learning, are prepared to move onward and upward from a new foot hold securely gained. Both materially and educationally, Ursinus is measurably stronger than a year ago.

The weight and active effort of added numbers gives increased momentum to our alumni. The alumni body has received the largest increment this year in all its history—a class of 107. The push of this class will undoubtedly be noticeable from the very beginning, for its members are loyal and willing sons and daughters of Ursinus.

Off campus also the College has gained strength. Her circle of truly interested friends has been enlarged. The achievements of members of the Faculty and alumni have given Ursinus increased prestige. Among the colleges of the country she has been placed in new positions of honor and distinction.

Let us now face the new year with heads up and eyes front. We must be on the lookout for opportunities and quick to take them. There are many open doors to larger achievement and extended influence which it is our duty to enter. Let no Ursinus man sleep at his post. If we shall be informed and active to the last man, no one can prophesy what the next year may mean in the way of ground gained and honors won for "the good old U."

Why not get a running start by doing a lot of good work during the summer months. How about the boys and girls who are graduating from high school? Line them up for Ursinus. The large graduating class has left us more room than usual.

ALUMNI NOTES

Gustavus E. Oswald, '00, supervising principal of the Catasauqua schools, died at the Hoff hospital, Northampton, Pa., on June 5. Mr. Oswald had been injured in an automobile accident on Memorial day. His injuries were not considered serious and his death came as a surprise and a shock to his community where he was held in high esteem as a schoolman and citizen. He was well and favorably known in social, civic and fraternal organizations in the Lehigh valley, being connected with the Catasauqua Chamber of Commerce, a member of the Board of Trustees of the Public Library, the first president of the Catasauqua Rotary Club, a member of the Masonic fraternity and of the Odd Fellows. He belonged to the Presbyterian Church. Besides his degree from Ursinus he held a Master's degree from Lehigh University. Mr. Oswald is survived by a wife and eight children.

Rev. Elwood W. Middleton, S. T. '94, died in Dayton, Ohio, on May 22, aged 63 years. Mr. Middleton was a student in the College, and without finishing his course entered the School of Theology where he pursued the full course graduating in 1894. He served various pastorates in the Reformed and Presbyterian Churches. His last parish being St. John's Church of Germantown, Ohio. In 1929 he resigned on account of failing health. He removed to Dayton, Ohio, where his death took place. He is survived by his widow and four children.

Matilda Maurer Parker '19, of Pottsville, is recovering from a severe illness.

Esther Shirey '21, will spend the summer traveling in Europe. For the past few years she has been teaching in Reading High School and intends to continue her teaching there upon her return.

The engagement of Ruth Snyder '21 to Llewelyn Holden of Buffalo, N. Y., has been announced. Mr. Holden is art supervisor in the high school at Woodbridge, N. J. No date has been set for the wedding.

Pauline Deibert '24 recently accepted a position for next year at Summit, N. J., where she will teach French and Latin.

Rev. Edward Rutledge Cook '25, was granted the degree of S. T. M. by the Mount Airy Lutheran Theological Seminary, Thursday, May 22, after having completed the post-graduate course in Theology at that institution.

Elizabeth Mitman ex-'26, is librarian in the New York City Library, located at 42nd Street and 5th Ave.

One of the weddings which will be of interest to Alumni is that of Lois E. Nickel '28 to George Moyer, a graduate of Lehigh University. The wedding will take place this June.

Ursinus welcomed some of its former students who did not complete their studies here—Edith Reiber, ex-'31, Dorothy Klingaman, ex-'31, Athena Johnson ex-'31, Elmer Haupt, ex-'29.

Joseph Pedrick will continue his theological preparation at Drew Seminary, Madison, N. J.

Sherwood Peters has accepted a position with the Bell Telephone Company.

E. Raymond Place expects to enter either Jefferson or Pennsylvania to study medicine.

1930 VARSITY BASEBALL SEASON REVIEWED

The 1930 Baseball team finished the season with a total of 7 wins to 9 losses. Although displaying a rather erratic brand of ball at times, the Grizzlies showed that when they did feel like it, they could play an unbeatable game. The total number of runs scored in the course of the season stands 102 to 100 in favor of the Bears.

Official batting averages cannot be given due to the loss of the official score-book. An unofficial check of the figures at hand, however, appears to give Don Sterner, star second-sacker, an average somewhere above the .500 mark. Whatever his average really was, it was sufficient to put him among the ranks of the Ursinus Immortals. Captain Young, who is slated to join the New York Yankees after Commencement, slammed the pill sufficiently to secure a probable .400 or better average. Dennis, Meckley, Coble and Bateman were also among the harder hitters. Eighteen doubles were pounded out, Sterner and Young being responsible for 6 each, Meckley for 3 and Karppinen, Hunter and Coble for one apiece. Francis and Sterner each hit two triples, while Bateman, Miller, Super, Young and Coble each collected one. Young and Sterner tied for home run honors at 3 up. Dil Dennis clouted two, and Hunter and Meckley each one.

Big Bob Strine was the most consistent winner among the hurlers. Bob turned in a total of 4 victories to one defeat. Place was next with three and two, while Karppinen won one and lost five. Karp, however, had some rather tough assignments and an off year. Hunter pitched part of one game, but long enough to get credited with the loss.

The season opened with a close contest at Lehigh, which the latter won 8-7. The batteries were: Ursinus—Karpinnen and Meckley; Lehigh—Strauss, Ayers, Zalsora and Halstead. The Bears came back and walloped Lafayette 12-0, Karp pitching A-1 ball. Batteries: Karppinen and Meckley; Wiley, Carney, Murberg and Reaser. The southern invasion followed, in which the games with Wake Forest and Duke were washed out, while Davidson took over the travel-worn Bears 14-4. Batteries: Hunter, Strine, Coates, Place and Meckley; McInnis and Gladstone. Rutgers likewise scored a win, 7-3, the batteries being: Place and Meckley; Janin and Newson. Following this the Bears shut out St. Joseph's 6-0 (Batteries: Place and Meckley; Hickey and Doherty) and took over F. & M. 7-5 (Batteries: Strine and Meckley; Johnson and Webber). A good lead was shot to let Drexel win 12-8. Batteries: Karppinen, Place, Strine and Meckley; Tyska and Kean. The up-state tour was next. Lebanon Valley was knocked off 10-4 (Batteries: Strine and Francis; Bovino and Murphy, Heller), but the next three were lost to Penn State 20-7 (Batteries: Karppinen, Place and Meckley; Debonis and Salzman), Susquehanna, 3-5 (Batteries: Karppinen and Meckley; Danks and Shaeffer), and Juniata, 2-5 (Strine and Meckley; Blough and Petty). Swarthmore was defeated to end a seven-game winning streak to the tune of 7-1 (Place and Meckley; Burton and Redman) but the next was lost to Seton Hall, 5-10 (Karppinen, Place and Meckley; Crown and Majiski). Lebanon Valley was once more knocked off, 9-3 (Strine and Meckley; Patrizio and Heller). The Alumni won the annual civil war 5-2 (Karppinen and Meckley; Derk and Haupt), but the season was closed with a win over Haverford, 10-2 (Place, Strine and Meckley; Scirica; Supplee and Simons).

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

left to the Executive Committee. These measures were taken in anticipation of improvements on the rear grounds.

A fee of $25 will be charged hereafter to students engaging in practice teaching, and an additional instructor will be added in the department of education and to serve as supervisor of practice teaching. This arrangement is designed to improve both the training and the teaching of practice teachers. It is expected to expand the department of education further to include instruction in the special field of physical education.

The Board accepted with regret resignations from Assistant Professor Veatch who has accepted a call to his Alma Mater, the University of Tulsa, from Instructors Tedrow, Nevin and Stock who desire to pursue further study, and from Miss Helen G. Errett who has accepted a position in her Alma Mater, the Pennsylvania College for Women at Pittsburgh. Dr. William W. Jordan for the past nine years professor of the English Bible, having reached the retirement age, was made professor emeritus. The positions made vacant are being filled by the Committee on Instruction.

The president of the Board was authorized to appoint a special committee to study the field and bring in a report with reference to a successor to the late Doctor Isenberg, Vice President. The Committee on Theological Seminary was directed to have a conference with representatives of Central Theological Seminary with reference to the best ways in which the Ursinus interests vested in that institution can be served.

The Board adopted a resolution tendering congratulations to the Franklin Institute on its enlarged program and commending to all alumni and friends of Ursinus the cause of the Benjamin Franklin Memorial for which a large fund is being raised by popular subscription. The members of the Board agreed to make up a fund to be presented to the Benjamin Franklin Memorial as a donation from the College.

The following Directors were re-elected for terms of five years: Rev. T. A. Alspach, D. D., Hon. A. R. Brodbeck, LL. D., Edward S. Fretz, Dr. Elwood S. Snyder, and Rev. Calvin D. Yost, D. D. The officers of the Board were re-elected for the coming year.

The following directors attended the meeting: Rev. T. A. Alspach, D. D., Charles C. Burdan, A. D. Fetterolf, Rev. I. C. Fisher, D. D., Edward S. Fretz, Francis J. Gildner Esq., Donald L. Helffrich, Esq., A. H. Hendricks, Esq., Edwin M. Hershey, Esq., Mrs. Rhea Duryea Johnson, W. A. Kline, Litt. D., Mayne R. Longstreth, Esq., George L. Omwake, LL. D., Harry E. Paisley, Henry T. Spangler, LL. D., and Calvin D. Yost, D. D. Letters of regret and requests for leave of absence were received from all who were not present.

of their most infamous possessions and characteristics to various members of the student body. The prophecy predicted humorous futures for many of the Seniors.

Featuring the exercises were the presentations of gifts to the members of the Class. Frank J. Rohrbaugh was chairman of the presentation committee which, in addition to himself, consisted of Catharine Witman, Gladys M. Barnes, Florence O. Benjamin, Beatrice M. Klein, Evelyn V. Lake, Austin Gavin, Jr., Russell Kellow, Henry Pyle, James Donaldson, and Theron Calkin.

The class oration was delivered by Philip Willauer who stressed the importance of loyalty to Ursinus after as well as before graduation. Nelson Bortz presented the mantle to Albert S. Thompson who received it in behalf of the Junior class. In presenting the mantle, Bortz stressed the necessity for co-operation between the students and the faculty.

After the first part of the program in Bomberger Hall, the exercises were concluded in front of the library with the presentation of a tree to the College by the Senior Class. Horace Werner delivered the Tree Oration and J. Parker Massey, president of the Sophomore Class, gave the response.

The ushers for the occasion were girls of the Sophomore class; Beatrice Trattner, Lois Strickler, Lenore Weglage, Catharine Inman, and Carol Everingham. This same committee was responsible for the beautiful manner in which the chapel was decorated.

Paul A. Mattis was chairman of the general committee in charge.

JUNIOR ORATORICAL CONTEST

HELD ON FRIDAY EVENING

lations with Pres. Roosevelt.

Kenneth Neal Alexander, of Chester, Pa., chose as his subject "The American College." He spoke of Huxley's idea of education and the generalization of education as expressed by Cardinal Newman.

"We Live, But How?" was the subject of Blair Walter Egge, of Frackville, Pa. "How dull would life be without business-like actions? It takes strength of character to live a practical life on par with your ideals." He mentioned three prime functions of a college course, the opening of the mind, the heart, and the will.

"The Trend Toward World Peace" was discussed by John Andrew Kaufroth, of Brandywine Manor, Pa. He said that nations have an exaggerated sense of national honor and mentioned as remedies to world peace, education and economic interdependence.

John Bethke Lentz, of Collegeville Pa., in his oration, "The History of Liberty" traced the development of democratic movements from the Magna Carta down to the Mayflower Compact and the nineteenth amendment to the Constitution. "The Constitution has taken a middle course between too much and too little government, and this is America's contribution to the liberty of posterity."

The judges of the contest were: Judge J. Burnett Holland, Norristown, Pa.; The Rev. John Baer Stoudt, D. D., Allentown, Pa.; Superintendent F. Herman Fritz, Pottstown, Pa.

DEAN MCCONN DELIVERS ADDRESS AT COMMENCEMENT

ialism." We are in such an age, but that does not mean that we should adopt a materialistic philosophy. We are the best educated and least cultured people in the world. Mass production has been applied to education, with the ultimate purpose of increasing earning power. We do not, however, know what to do with our education and our increased earnings. Education cannot be devoted wholly to the intellectual side of the mind. The emotional part must also be cultivated. An appreciation of art, literature, music, and the classics is needed to sweeten life. This study of the humanities is urged because it cultivates the deeper feelings. Getting and spending are not the ends of life but the means. Man must develop emotionally as well as intellectually, and this can be accomplished only through a realization of the culture that is our heritage. We must learn to distinguish true goodness from mediocrity. A materialistic age can be an age of culture.

Dean McConn chose as his theme "Liberty and Freedom." He showed how two inventions, the electric light and central heat, had affected our present day social system. In the old days, the family gathered of necessity in a circle around the oil lamp and the kitchen stove. The rest of the house, the world outside, was dark and cold. The family circle was the result of necessity. There was no incentive to find a substitute. Heat and light as we have them today, however, have changed all that. They have enabled members of families to seek other places than the home. Electric light has freed us from the limits of time, giving us time for leisure that we must find ways to fill. As we have been freed from the limitations of time, so increased transportation facilities have freed us from space, and the development of printing has given us unusual freedom of thought. The result is a great change in our social customs, making problems and difficulties which must be faced. The question is how? The present orgy of law-making is a temporary and incomplete attempt at a solution. Rather, a long, patient development of new codes, adapted to changing conditions, by social groups must come about. A code is a rule of conduct self-enacted and self-enforced by groups or individuals. Codes are higher than laws. A code is never willingly violated. Consequently, they alone can solve the problem. These much-needed new codes are being developed, and by the much criticized younger generation. College men and women, in particular, are now developing these new codes, or at least giving new weight, emphasis, and application to particular items of the old. As a result, in them, we have a new virtue—Veracity; courage in facing facts and problems of life in an effort to get at the truth, and greater cleanness in mind and body than ever before. In conclusion Dean McConn said, "This developing of new codes by young people is a difficult job, but the greatest. I'm sure they're going to do it."

Sixty-four students received the Bachelor of Arts degree and forty-three that of Bachelor of Science, making 107 in all, the largest class ever graduated from Ursinus. Of these seven were graduated Magna Cum Laude and four Cum Laude. Honors in Special Departments were awarded to the following: Chemistry Evelyn Matthews Cook, Ira Transue Fritz; Greek—Calvin Daniel Yost, Jr., Elam Gerhart Wiest; Latin—Dorothy Sarah Beck; Physics—Robert Luther Boyer.

Five honorary degrees were conferred. Charles Maxwell McConn, Dean of Lehigh University, received the degree of Doctor of Letters. The degree of Doctor of Divinity was awarded to Rev. George William Welsh '93, pastor, Mt. Zion Reformed Church, Spring Grove, Pa., Rev. John Scott Tomlinson '00, pastor, East Falls Methodist Episcopal Church, Philadelphia, Rev. John Lentz '02, pastor, Trinity Reformed church, Collegeville, Pa., and Rev. Edwin Joseph Heath, president, Moravian College for Women, Bethlehem.

President Omwake spoke a few brief words of farewell to the graduates, after which the prizes were awarded. The benediction was pronounced by Rev. I. C. Fisher, D. D., '89, Lebanon, Pa., a member of the Board of Directors.

DR. MACFARLAND PREACHES

BACCALAUREATE SERMON

nance of Jesus which while it looked with severity mingled with patience upon the accusing Scribes and Pharisees, still at the same time seemed to look upward. The other was the attitude of Jesus' hand which was stretched down toward the woman on her knees. "The upward look and the downward reach."

When however, we pass out from the social order of God into the realm of human associations we find this law perverted and repressed. Man's disposition is to bring together similarities. Thus it has been the tendency of humans to unite the like and to separate the unlike. We have largely ordered the world not in complimentary groups but by cold analysis into classes, so that man instead of living in the world lives in his own little class. We have these classes everywhere, in the population of a city, in commercial life, in professions and even in the ministry and church.

This principle, said Dr. MacFarland, is not altogether bad but it has been carried too far. We like to speak to those who think as we do, read books that meet our tastes, we go to hear preachers that echo our notions, whose words confirm us in our self-satisfaction. We fall into a dwarfing egoism.

The one serene force that opposes all this and makes for the new order is the faith of Jesus in the words of one of His apostles: "we then that are strong must bear the infirmities of the weak and not to please ourselves." The church has failed to do this, it has been too much a survival of the fittest. Christ opens two worlds before us, one above, one below, a higher existence to attain a lower to assist; as in Hoffman's picture the upward look the downward reach. We should have both.

It is too bad to have culture without service and just as bad to see service without culture. Today there are too many men in social movements without the upward look.

Christ himself had both, one moment we find him in the garden of Gethsemane, the next with Judas; now on the Mount of Transfiguration and then on the plain, healing a lunatic.

Dr. MacFarland closed by appealing directly to the Senior class for service, saying "The true fulfillment of culture is humble human service. Of you to whom much is given, God requires much."

The baccalaureate hymn, "Guide Me Oh Thou Great Jehovah," the recessional and the benediction completed the service.
