ANNUAL ATHLETIC BAZAAR
AN ENJOYABLE EVENT

Entertainment Varies From Dancing to Cake Sales and Popular Fiction; William Benner '29 is Chairman
MUSIC BY "BLUE AND GOLD"

On Saturday evening, April 13, the curtain, whose unrolling had been prevented by the now famous quarantine, finally parted on a scene of gay festivity in the Thompson-Gay Gymnasium, marking the celebration of none other than the annual Athletic Association Bazaar. The main purpose of the Bazaar, besides that of providing week-end entertainment, was to raise money for the cause of bigger and better athletics at Ursinus and the committee in charge, headed by William Benner '29, worked untiringly to make the event a success.

One of the biggest features of the evening was the booths, variously situated in parts of the Gymnasium and each one vying with the other for the attention and patronage of those present.

Richard Fox '29, ably assisted by Miss Mary Garrett '31 was in charge of the novelty booth. During intervals between the dances, "Dick's" well-known voice would be heard calling, "Step right up, ladies and gentlemen—step right up—we need two more before we can begin." The eager crowd, grouped around him, was then presented with mysterious looking cards and a pile of beans and, after the intricacies of the game were explained, the game commenced and went on until someone victoriously shouted "Beano." The lucky winner then had the choice of any novelty there, such as cigarette cases, cards, and trays, rouge, etc.

Directly opposite "Dick's" booth was another very popular booth, namely the cake booth, under the able supervision of James Donaldson '30. All cake lovers hid themselves to take chances upon delicious looking chocolate cakes or big, fluffy coconut cakes or a big apple pie in the center of the display. Each one arranged himself before huge sheets of paper in the counter, each sheet characterized by certain numbers.

Y. M. C. A. ELECTS SANDO '31
PRESIDENT FOR 1929-30

A business meeting of the Y. M. C. A. was held in Bomberger Hall on Wednesday evening, April 8, for the purpose of electing officers. The following men were chosen to lead the Y. M. C. A. next year: President, John Sando, '31; Vice President, Albert S. Thompson, '31; Secretary, Elam G. Wiest, '30; Treasurer, Calvin D. Yost, Jr., '30; Pianist, Albert S. Thompson, '31; Song Leader, William H. Denny, '30.

Mr. Leon Kohl, Student Secretary of the State Field Council, was present at the meeting, and he outlined the reorganization of the Field Council. Upon his recommendation that a member other than the President be selected for Ursinus' representative on the State Field Council, a separate ballot was held, by which John Witmer '30 was elected to this position.

Various ways and means for resuscitating the treasury and securing an adequate amount of money to carry on the "Y" work were discussed. No action was taken at this meeting.

The retiring President, Harvey Lytle '29, presided at the meeting. The devotional exercises were conducted by Elam G. Wiest '30.

ANNUAL MINSTREL SHOW TO BE GIVEN NEXT SATURDAY

The Senior Class will present the annual Minstrel Show in the Gym next Saturday, April 20, at 8 o'clock. The cast is drawn from the best vocalists and funmakers in the College. The end men will provide their usual bit of entertainment; but, rather, it should be called unusual, as they promise some brand-new antics, with "Ursinus' Funniest Man" in a leading role. His identity will be disclosed on Friday.

The production is being directed by "Tom" Swanger and "Mike" Leimbach, and is under the management of the Class of 1929. Tickets will be 50 cents.

JOSEPHINE RIDDELL '29 IS QUEEN OF MAY PAGEANT

At a mass meeting of the girls, held on Monday, April 8, Josephine Riddell '29, was chosen May Queen, and Evelyn Lake '30 was elected Manager of the Pageant.

The May Day exercises this year will be presented on the Front Campus and the theme of the Pageant will be the "Story of Robin Hood." The part of "Maid Marion" will be played by the Queen and Evelyn Lake will be Robin Hood. These characters, together with the jolly Friar Tuck, Allan-a-Dale, Little John, John Scarlett and a host of Mimmers, Morris dancers, fairies and elves will provide a charming innovation in May Pageants.

Titania, Queen of the Fairies, is to be played by Polly Thompson '29. The attendants to the queen, Maid Marion, are Marie Markley '29, Katherine Sanderson '30, Ida Jaggard '31 and Eleanor Roeder '32.

ANNUAL COLOR CEREMONY
HELD IN BOMBERGER HALL

HONOR BLAZER AWARDED

One of the most beautiful and significant of ceremonies dear to the heart of every girl of Ursinus is the Color Ceremony which took place in Bomberger Hall on Monday evening, April 8. The scene was one that will not easily be forgotten. For the Freshmen it held a little of awe and wonder. For the upperclassmen a little of wistfulness and regret when they remember how quickly the years are flying and how short the time that is theirs to hold high their standards.

Bomberger was particularly regal and impressive with its low, dim lights; the Freshmen clad in gleaming white, slowly filing up the aisle, followed by the other classes; while at the back of the platform proudly stood the two symbols of honor and tradition—the American flag and the banner of Ursinus.

The program commenced with the charge of the Athletic Association which was given by Dorothy Seitz '29. It was a charge of sportsmanship and good spirit followed by the rousing strains of "Fight Ursinus." Jane Kohler '29 speaking for the Y. W. C. A. delivered its charge. "The only true happiness is to be found in the development of a four fold life." To "Follow the Gleam" of light and life was her message.

The W. S. G. A. was represented by Helen Reber, '29, who urged organization and co-operation. Good citizenship is the duty of everyone and we learn it in our daily lives, particularly here in our undergraduate days.

ALICE CASSEL '30 WILL HEAD Y. W. C. A. NEXT YEAR

On Tuesday, April 9, the Young Women's Christian Association held their annual elections in the Philosophy Room. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Vice President, Marguerite Reimert, '31; Secretary, Katherine Inman, '32; Treasurer, Elizabeth Yeates, '30, and pianist, Marguerite Demarest, '32. A tie resulted in attempting to fill the office of President and a second meeting of the Y. W. C. A. was held on Wednesday, April 10, at which time Alice Cassel, '30, was elected.

ALUMNI AND FRIENDS!
Order a Ruby Now!

An advance sale of the 1929 Ruby is being held now. Advance notice of this Ruby indicates that it will be one of the best ever published. It is very important that you order your copy at once. This can be done by sending either one dollar, to reserve your copy, or four dollars, the cost of the book, to Walter Spangler '29, Business Manager. Don't put off securing your copy of the Ruby. Further notice of its character and contents is published in this issue of the Weekly. Read it, and then send your check.

YORK-ADAMS ALUMNI BODY
BANQUETS FRIDAY NIGHT

Songs and Speeches Enliven Event As Fifty Alumni Gather at Bethany Reformed Church

OFFICERS ELECTED

The alumni of Ursinus residing in York and Adams counties, this state, met in annual conclave in the city of York last Friday evening. This is one of the oldest and most faithful of the local alumni bodies. Its meetings are usually held in the parlors of some church where the dinners are served by ladies of the congregation. The meeting of 1929 was in keeping with this custom. The church acting as hostess to this association was Bethany Reformed, located on West Princess street, and presided over for more than twenty-five years by the dean of the York alumni, the Rev. George S. Sorber, D. D., '76. The social room was gay with Ursinus colors and the occasion was enlivened with music by the Bethany orchestra. In the gathering were the old-time cheer leaders, Gilbert Deitz, '18, Clara Moul Lentz, '19, and Catherine Heindel Newham, '21. Under the leadership of these experienced pep artists, all were boys and girls again as they chanted the time-honored songs of Ursinus.

Charles W. Rutschky, '19, presided. After a short address he introduced Dr. Sorber as toastmaster. The latter with his unusual grace and good humor kept the spirit of the evening running high. The speakers were the Rev. O. P. Schellhamer, D. D., '85, Professor Franklin I. Sheeder, Jr., '22, Dr. J. M. S. Isenberg, '93, Vice President, and Dr. George L. Omwake, '98, President. Mrs. F. I. Sheeder was also present from the Faculty.

Officers for the coming year were chosen as follows: President, O. P. Schellhamer, D. D., '85; Secretary, Emma Huyett Livengood, '21. Samuel S. Loucks, '10, was reelected treasurer.

MRS. JOHNSON HOSTESS TO WOMEN'S DORM COMMITTEE

Mrs. Rhea Duryea Johnson, '08, was hostess at a luncheon meeting of the Women's Dormitory Building Committee at the College Club, Philadelphia, last Saturday. Those present were Mrs. Johnson, Miss Florence A. Brooks, '12, Miss Helen M. Ferree, '14 and Dr. Elizabeth B. White, representing the Ursinus Woman's Club, and Dr. J. M. S. Isenberg and Dr. George L. Omwake representing the Board of Directors. Other members of the Committee are Dr. Mary E. Markley, '02, of the Woman's Club, and Edward S. Fretz, Treasurer of the College, a representative of the Board of Directors. The purpose of the meeting was to go over the preliminary plans for the proposed new building and suggest changes for their improvement. Excellent progress is being made by the Committee and it is expected that ere long the architects will be directed to proceed to the drafting of specifications.

CLASSES IN BIBLE AND CHURCH HISTORY RESUMED

Owing to Dr. Jordan's extended illness, the College authorities have decided to have his work carried on pending his recovery. The class in Church History has been taken by Dr. Barnard, and Rev. John Lentz '02 will teach the two sections of English Bible 3-4. This arrangement will continue till Dr. Jordan is able to resume his duties.

The Weekly expresses the sentiments of the whole College in wishing Dr. Jordan a speedy recovery.

SENIOR CLASS SELECTS
THE CLASS DAY ORATORS

At the recent meeting of the Senior class, held on Monday evening, April 8, in Bomberger Hall, it was voted to have a Senior Banquet, according to the traditions of the Senior class. Further balloting elected Robert Roth '29, star debater, to be Class Orator. Richard Snyder, retiring Editor-in-Chief of the Weekly was elected Tree Orator, and the Senior Class President, James Poff received the honorable duty of being the Mantle Orator.

Bears Defeat Haverford in First Home Game of Season, Score 5-4

Strong Ninth Inning Rally by Grizzlies Garners Three Runs and Transforms Defeat Into Victory

BEARS MAKE ELEVEN HITS IN GAME WITH THE MAIN LINERS

A great ninth inning rally, coupled with fine pitching by Strine, spelled defeat for the Haverford team which met the Grizzlies Saturday afternoon on the High School diamond. Strine, who was in good form yielded only 5 hits and four runs to the visitors, while his team-mates were garnering 11 bingles, to best their opponents by one run, the final count being 5-4. After a wobbly start, Ursinus settled down and played a fine game in the field throughout the fray; three errors were chalked up against them, but two of these came in the first inning.

After trailing for the greater part of the game, the home boys did some heavy work with the stick in the closing frame, which netted three runs and consequently a victory. A timely single by Francis with the bases loaded tied the score, while Schink following with a one-bagger brought in the winning run.

Meckley was the leading hitter of the afternoon getting three safeties out of four trips to the plate. Young took the honors in long distance clouting, when he poled out two doubles, while Bateman with a double and a single, and Schink with two singles were next in line.

SOPHOMORES EASILY WIN
INTERCLASS TRACK MEET

Sophomores Win 68 Points, Juniors 31 Points, Seniors 30 Points And Freshmen 24 Points

JEFFERS IS HIGH SCORER

The second annual Inter-Class Track Meet run off on Saturday morning, April 13, was won by the Class of 1931 by the overwhelming total of sixty-eight points. 1930, 1929, and 1932 finished in the order named with 31, 30, and 24 points respectively.

The Athletic Council medals for first, second, and third high scorers were won by Merritt J. Jeffers, '29, who led the field with 16 points, R. S. Newcomer, '29, runner-up with 14 points, and C. D. Mattern '30, who clinched third honors with a total of 11. Jeffers and Newcomer were the whole Senior team, scoring all of 1929's points by their lonesomes.

1931, with practically all of last year's Freshman team, presented a well-balanced combination which walked away with nearly everything in sight. The second-year men failed to place in only one event, the high jump, while in ten of the fourteen events they took two or more places, and in the half, low hurdles, and pole vault, they managed to knock down three of the four places. Six first places, five seconds, nine thirds and six fourths made up the victors' share. The Juniors grabbed three firsts, four seconds, and three thirds, the Seniors three firsts, two seconds, three thirds, and three fourths, and the Frosh took three firsts, two seconds, and three fourths.

DATE OF JUNIOR PROM IS CHANGED TO MAY 17

The Junior Prom will be given on Friday evening, May 17, and the Junior Play on Saturday evening, May 18. This change of dates was decided upon at a meeting of the Junior Class held on Tuesday evening, April 9, in Bomberger Hall.

A report presented by the class treasurer, John Witmer, revealed the fact that the recent drive for payment of dues was successful, and it was urged that the condition of the treasury warranted the holding of a Prom. After some discussion the President, Horace Werner, was authorized to appoint the Prom Committee. The Committee is headed by Paul Mattis, assisted by Margaret Johnson, Dorothy Beck, Evelyn Lake, Katherine Sanderson, William McGarvey, Jacob Stacks, and Joseph Citta. Further advance notice of this event will be presented in later issues of the Weekly.

Alumni and any others who wish tickets for the Zwinglian Anniversary Play, "The Cat and the Canary," to be given on April 26, may have them reserved by writing to John Wilkinson or Margaret Johnson. Since the tickets will soon be on sale write as soon as possible.

Haverford got off to a flying start by scoring twice in the initial stanza. These markers came before the infield had settled down to do business, for they were the result of two errors combined with a one-base hit. In their half of the inning Ursinus retaliated by scoring once. With two out Schink singled and crossed the plate a moment later when Corson, Haverford's second baseman, lost Young's high fly somewhere in the more or less cloudy heavens.

In the next period Kichline's youths again dented the rubber to knot the score at two all. Hunter opened by grounding out to second, but Bateman came to bat and connecting with the first ball pitched, lofted it into the left pasture and reached second while it was being returned. Meckley then proceeded to bring him in with a single to right, thus ending the scoring activity of Collegium Ursini until the fateful ninth.

Not content to let things remain on an equal basis the visitors up and secured another tally in the previous part of the third. Keech walked and stole second and then advanced to third on a grounder to the box. From that station he scampered home when A. Supplee lined one to center, making the count 3-2.

For five full innings both pitchers labored nobly, with the result that not a player was able to reach home. During this intermission Strine held Haverford hitless, and H. Supplee gave only two bingles.

Richie started off the ninth with a safety through the box. He went to second and third, on an attempt to nab him off first and on a ground ball to short, respectively. A one-bagger by Longaker furnished another run, the last one of the day for the strangers.

Not daunted by the two run lead, the Bears came out for the last time to win or go down fighting. Things started auspiciously when Bateman walked. It began to look more and more interesting when Meckley drove out his third hit sending "Nearly" to second ahead of him. Mink, batting for Strine, fanned. On a bad throw to second Bateman took third and Meckley did likewise to second base. To make things more complete Sterner strolled, causing the bases to be fully occupied. At this critical moment Francis arrived on the scene; (Continued on page 4)

Editorial Comment

BY WAY OF PREFACE

With this issue the newly elected editorial staff of the Weekly takes up its duties for the remainder of this semester, and for the term beginning next September. It is with some feeling of perturbation and anxiety that we take up this task where it has been left by our predecessors. We feel some trepidation at the necessity of maintaining the high standards which they have established in this branch of college activity. Faced by very unusual problems and difficult situations they have earnestly striven to make the Weekly as good as they were able, and the record of the past year's issues is evidence to their success. As they leave this activity of college life shortly before they leave college walls for the greater activities of the world, we congratulate them on their fine work in the past and extend to them our sincere wishes for their future success.

For the present, the Weekly will be published as it has been in the past. It carries out efficiently the functions which a college newspaper should, but if we may discover or devise ways in which we may make it better, we will apply them to it. In this respect, any suggestions from either students, professors, alumni or friends will be gladly received and carefully considered. The staff will endeavor to print news of all that takes place on the campus. Ursinus has now attained such proportions that the student body is no longer one compact unit, and the interests and activities of the students are numerous and varied. Because of this fact the Weekly has increased its importance and value on the campus by the publication of all student news. It is a unifying force in the campus life.

There is one thing which must be remedied at once. That is the lack of men on the staff. There is room for an associate editor, a special feature writer, two reporters, and possibly another sports writer. During the past few days, several sophomores and upperclassmen have applied for work on the staff. But the Weekly also needs several freshmen. The organization must be built up so that there are experienced men to fill the higher positions each year. The work is one of the most interesting and worthwhile activities on the campus. So come out, Frosh, and show what you can do.

MAKE THE EVENTS SUCCESSES

Everybody on the campus knows about the major social events which are being held at this time. To enumerate them, the most prominent are the Senior Class Minstrel Show, the Zwinglian Anniversary Play, the Senior Ball, the Junior Prom, and the Junior Play. These functions are being put on through the efforts of many students, and they all need the support of the rest of the student body and the Alumni. The proceeds from each event is going to some worthy use. The proceeds from the Athletic Bazaar will swell the funds of the Athletic Association and thus aid athletics at Ursinus. The Minstrel Show and Senior Ball will be held to make possible the 1929 Ruby, and Junior Play proceeds will be used for the Class of '30's Ruby. The Zwinglian Anniversary Play will help put dramatics at Ursinus on a firmer financial basis. Thus all these events have a secondary purpose which makes it worth while to patronize them, even if we disregard the pleasure and entertainment received. But looking at the matter from the viewpoint of the patron every one of these events will be full of fun and pleasure. They need our help. We need the amusement. Figure out the solution for yourself and act accordingly.

USE THE WEEKLY COLUMNS

April and May are the months in which the elections of the classes and organizations are held. Many times these are unannounced before the day on which they take place, and as a result the attendance is slim and only a minority of the members vote. This is a condition which should be remedied. No election should take place unless more than one-half of the voters vote. But many do not know about the elections, and consequently do not come to the meetings. In order to remedy this condition we would suggest that the retiring officials of either classes or organizations notify the Issue Editor of the Weekly for the week in which the particular election is to take place. The meeting can then be inserted in the calendar and other notice of it made so that the members know beforehand what is to be done and when. This may be extended to important meetings of any kind. Advance notices are very helpful in gaining a larger attendance and thus assuring the success of the function or gathering. But this is especially important in reference to elections.
 C. D. Y., '30.

A WORD TO OUR READERS

It is the function of the advisory editor of The Weekly to give suggestions to the members of the staff and in general to aid in making the paper as good and attractive as possible for the reader. In a conference with the business manager he has learned some facts which are of intimate concern to the entire constituency of the paper, but of particular concern to those who are responsible for the business end of it. Each year at the meeting of the Alumni Association some persons want to know why The Ursinus Weekly cannot be published without incurring an annual deficit. Now the reason why it cannot be done is quite evident. Many of the readers of the paper fail to send the subscription price to the business manager. There is at present as much as a thousand dollars in subscriptions due the paper. If those who know themselves to be in arrears will aid the business manager, each one to the extent of one dollar and fifty cents, the manager's report will not show a deficit, but a balance. It is only reasonable that the small subscription price of the paper should be promptly paid, and our suggestion this time is not to the members of the staff, but to the readers of the Weekly: Be sure that your subscription to the paper is paid before June 1. Besides lightening the burden of the business management and opening the way for a still better Weekly in the future you will enjoy and appreciate the paper more. Do it. Do it now.
 C. D. Y., '31.

A LETTER FROM JUNIOR

Cheerio, fellow slaves of the dingy text book, abide with me for a few throbbing moments while I empty my glorious revelation upon your awe-struck personage. Breathe not so violently, my little one, nor heave out your chest in such a pulsating manner for that which I have to confide to you is enough in itself to stop the oscillation of your fair heart and convert your chilliest glance into a steaming scream of exhilarating joy.

The most stupendous, gigantic magnificent—step right this way ladies and gentlemen—awe-inspiring, titanic and colossal show which has ever visited the environs of Collegeville or cursed the campus with its presence has been definitely arranged and scheduled for one amazing exhibition only. Why, confidentially, believe it or not, those master men of super show, Barnum-Bailey and Ringling Brothers stunned by the scintillating splendor of it all, timidly refused to stage the creation because of its overwhelming portentousness. Consequently, and far be it from me, to boast, bray or bluster; exaggerate amplify, or distort any project in which my personal self is interested for alas, before I would stoop to such a level I would drink the dregs of defeat or hie myself to a dark, dusty corner and there meditate amongst my sweet thought (Greek and Physics); never again to go forth into the cold cruel world with its many ways of wickedness.

More anon, tis now time to reveal the deep secret so gather round ye shades of Ursinus while I expound my reasons for the unseemingly overflow of hilariousness and unmitigated frivolity which I have so promiseously indulged in. For lo! and behold! it has come to my fair ears and vibrated my tympanic membrane with a tickling resolution that on the seventeenth day of the month following the reign of showers here shall occur, happen, or chance to be, the most glorious prom ever given by a tribe of brown-eyed Grizzlies at Ursinus. The spot selected is the rock-ribbed cavern of the Thompson-Gay ball room where a merry night is promised to all from the vanishing yearling with an F—to the studious senior with a barrelful of A's.

JUNIOR.

P. S. If I'm not shot or flunked out I'll be back next week.

P. S. S. Write me, in care of the editor of the Weekly.

ENGLISH CLUB

A regular meeting of the English Club was held at Lynwood last Monday evening, April 8. Due to unavoidable conflicts and study for exams, several of the members were absent and could not present part of the program which had been arranged. Papers were prepared and read by Miss Marjorie Traves and Miss Pauline Thompson. Dr. Smith led a discussion on "Strange Interlude," and also talked on "The Influence of Foreign Poets."

WEBSTER FORENSIC CLUB

A debate on the subject, "Resolved, That the trial judge shall impanel the jury and state to the jurors his opinion concerning the evidence, asking them to answer specific questions of fact," was the main feature of the regular weekly meeting of the Webster Forensic Society held in Bomberger Hall Tuesday afternoon, April 9. There was only one speaker on each side, William Ferguson '29 upholding the affirmative side, and Warren Hess '29 defending the negative view of the case.

Manager Ferguson reported that a dual debate with Upsala College on April 22-23, and the return debate with Wagner College were on the schedule. It was decided by the Society that not more debates should be scheduled, and that the weekly meetings should be discontinued for the present. The Society also decided to hold the annual debaters' luncheon in conjunction with the Women's Debating Club.

MOVIE, "HIGH SCHOOL HERO," SHOWN WEDNESDAY EVENING

"The High School Hero" had a long procession of admirers when he was shown in the Field Cage, Wednesday, April 10th. Having gained all the college men's approval, the hero presented himself this time for the Women's Dormitory Fund. To make a short story shorter, it was simply a funny movie, plus the delightful synopsis of Miss Florence Shoop. From now on the feminine side of this institution expects to see "the hero" exemplified on our own campus.

The Tower Window

WITH the coming into service of a new editorial staff it becomes my duty to make obeisance to my new masters. Before doing so, however, I desire to indulge in a brief valedictory to those under whom it has been my privilege to serve as a contributor during the past year. For some sixteen years it has been my pleasure, if not that of my readers, to supply the material for this column of the Weekly. During all these years I have enjoyed the courtesy and often the indulgence of those who have been in active charge of the paper. To the vexations which commonly harass an editor have been added too frequently embarrassing and even annoying experiences arising from illegible copy, delayed manuscript, and such other petty shortcomings as would lead to the dismissal of many a columnist.

I wish to thank the retiring staff for allowing me to continue writing—a habit that has become so fixed in my schedule of weekly duties that I have become prone to go on inditing Tower Window paragraphs even when I have nothing to say. In view of the kindness shown me, and knowing well the handicaps under which the editors are often obliged to get out the paper, I cheerfully excuse the slips in proof-reading which have at times made my deliverances meaningless or stupid. One of these happened only last week when I undertook to say that the student who would do graduate work must be possessed of an "irrepressible desire to learn." I wonder what the reader thought when he read that I advocated an "irresponsible desire to learn." It is for taking up slack like this that every printing house has a "devil." So "let the devil have his due." To my fellow scribes of the retiring staff I have only kind words and regrets that our happy association in this capacity has come to an end.

And now to the new editor and his associates—greeting. I enter upon the new year of the Weekly with as high resolves as do you. I intend to support you in the endeavor to make the Weekly of 1929-30 the best ever.

GERADINE OHL '30 WILL LEAD BASKETBALL TEAM

At a meeting of the Athletic Council and the basketball team on Wednesday, April 10, the following girls were chosen to guide the team in the next season: Captain, Geraldine Ohl, '30; Manager, Ann Connor, '31; Assistant Manager, Anna Uhrich '32.

A special meeting of the Sophomore girls was held Tuesday, April 9, 1929, when they elected Ida Jagard as their attendant to the May Queen.

Other attendants will be: Senior, Marie Markley; Junior, Katherine Sanderson; Freshman, Eleanor Roeder. May Day will be held May 11 when an Old English pageant will be presented by the women of Ursinus College under the direction of Miss Errett with the aid of Evelyn Lake, '30, as manager.

I. N. A. SPRING CONVENTION WILL MEET AT ALLENTOWN

The spring convention of the Inter-collegiate Newspaper Association of the Middle Atlantic States will be held at Muhlenberg and Cedar Crest Colleges, Allentown, Friday and Saturday, May 3 and 4. The business sessions will be held at both colleges and social events following. The main feature of the convention will be the banquet at the Hotel Americus on Saturday, May 4. Speakers at this dinner will be President William F. Curtis, of Cedar Crest College, President John A. W. Haas, of Muhlenberg, representatives of the national and local presses, and Professor James M. Lee, of New York University.

The Association contests for the newspaper having the best journalistic style and make-up, and the one which has the best editorials. The silver loving-cups which are the prizes of these contests are now in the possession of Swarthmore and Haverford Colleges respectively. The delegates of the Weekly to this convention have not been selected as yet.

ALUMNI NOTES

Thomas Clarke, '27, is now stationed at Lancaster, Pa., as the representative of the Travelers Insurance Company.

Harley Hunter, '23, is the representative of the same company and is located at Williamsport, Pa.

F. D. Pence, '26, who will graduate in theology at Lancaster Seminary in May, has been called to the pastorate of Heller's Church, a rural congregation east of that city.

Herman W. Mathieu, '13, on August 1, 1928, resigned his position as research chemist with the E. I. du Pont de Nemours and Co., to become assistant to the chief chemist of the Delaware Rayon Co., of New Castle, Del.

Word has come from the Rev. L. Paul Moore, Jr., '20, who is serving as a missionary in Cameroun, West Africa, of the death of his wife on December 23, 1928. Mrs. Moore before her marriage was Helen R. Grahame, of Butler, Pa. The Weekly extends its sincere sympathy to Mr. Moore and his family in their grief.

Rev. Arthur Leeming '23, of Xenia, Ohio, and Rev. Walter K. Beattie, '23, of Eureka, were visitors on the campus this week.

SENIOR BALL TO BE HELD ON SATURDAY, APRIL 26

The newest thing is mean rhythm and wicked harmony—the kind of music that will be broadcast and recorded a month or more from now—all that and more is promised all who attend the the Senior Ball, and hear Joe Follman's Recording Artists, under the personal direction of Donald Walker. The dance is less than two weeks away—the date is April 26—and the sale of tickets is increasing rapidly.

Students are beginning to realize that they are in for a real treat in the musical line, and they are anxious to take advantage of this opportunity to hear an outfit composed of men drawn from bands of national repute, such as Hal Kemp, Roger Wolf Kahn, Jean Goldkette, and others, and directed by the famous Victor Record arranger and composer, Don Walker.

The committee again urges an early settlement for tickets—it will lessen confusion, and eliminate, as far as possible, the handling of money at the door. Alumni who desire tickets may secure them by mailing a check for $3.00 to C. R. Snyder, R. G. Helfrich, or J. C. Poff.

DRAMATIC CLUB PRESENTS PLAY, "WURZEL-FLUMMERY"

"Sail on, Sail on, Sail on!" Thus last Friday, April 12, a delightful evening's program was opened with a clever Columbus and O'Brien skit, a la canoe, by Misses Trattner and Davies '32. When these two lusty sailors were safely ashore Tiny McKee's Harmony Boys furnished several popular songs plus some equally appreciated jokes in which Blackie starred. King Solomon then sang two numbers and was called for an encore, "Desert Song." Kay Clark's two dialect readings added another pleasing act, and were well liked.

The feature of the program was a one-act play presented by the Dramatic Club, "Wurzel-Flummery." Paul Mattis as the English solicitor who was settling his uncle's legacies, together with the name, Wurzel-Flummery, made a decided hit. Bill McGarvey and Geraldine Ohl were very well suited to the roles of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Crawshaw, and as Bill said, she was a very good wife to him. Billie Strickler as their daughter, Viola, had some difficulties getting her fiancée, Robert Meriton, portrayed by Henry Alden, reconciled to life in a cottage but with the advent of the fifty thousand pounds, everything ended happily.

GIRLS TENNIS TOURNAMENT TO BE OPENED THIS WEEK

The Girls tennis team will begin this week with the opening of the tournament for which a large number of candidates are listed.

Among the strong prospects for the team are Jane Bowler '29, Evelyn Lake '30, Billy Strickler '32 and Ann Connor '31.

Four matches have been scheduled, the first of which will be played at Ursinus on May 6, with Swarthmore. Since this is the opening game for both teams, keen competition is expected.

The complete schedule is: May 6 Swarthmore at Collegeville May 18 Lebanon Valley at Annville (Date pending) Beaver at Collegeville (Date pending) Beaver at Jenkintown

Conquering the Cascades

SNOW falls every month in the year where the Great Northern crosses the Cascades. Steep, tortuous grades increase the difficulty of the railroading problem. Nature has stubbornly resisted man's effort to conquer the range.

In January, 1929, the new Cascade tunnel was opened. Man, with electricity as an ally, had conquered the Cascades.

The eight-mile bore was driven in three years—a record impossible without electric power. And electrification has been extended to the entire 75-mile route through the mountains.

The conquests of electricity on the land and on the sea, in the air, and underground, are making practicable the impossibilities of yesterday. As our vision encompasses wider horizons, electricity appears as a vital contribution to future industrial progress and human welfare.

he fouled two, and then seeing one to his liking he swung, and gave the proverbial horsehide a short but swift and sweet ride into right field, a distance great enough to allow two runs to pound across. With the score standing four all, Schink slapped a single off the pitcher's bare hand and Sterner romped in with the winning tally.

tion of the track slowed up the times in practically all events. The dashes were, as usual, the most exciting races of the day, the hundred and twenty being the closest, so far as picking the first four went. Mattern's pursuit of Newcomer in the 440, and the neck-and-neck sprint staged by Newcomer and Conover in the half-mile were the only other thrills provided.

The first event, the 100-yard dash, was won by Dulaney '31, in a close race. Conover '31 easily won the mile run, finishing a full ten yards ahead of Klingaman, the second man. The 120-yard high hurdles was a race between Jeffers '29, and Omwake '31 to see who could knock over the most hurdles, something Hess '31, the third man succeeded in avoiding. Newcomer '29, after being hard-pressed by Mattern '30 in the last fifty yards, managed to break the tape to win the 440-yard dash. Lentz '31 beat out Omwake '31 on the last two hurdles to win the 220-yard low hurdles. Klingaman '32 took honors in the two-mile endurance contest without being pressed at any time. In a very pretty and very close race, Mattern '30 won the 220-yard dash in 25 1-5 seconds, about the best time turned in for the day. The half-mile was a sweet battle between Newcomer '29 and Conover '31, the former beating out the latter by a bare six inches after a furious race down the home-stretch.

George MacBath, Sophomore Samson, carried off the honors in the field events, winning both the Shot Put and Discus Throw. Horn '31, overthrew Jeffers '29 a half-inch better than a foot to take the Javelin Throw. Gavin '30 broke the local Pole Vault record when he cleared the bar at 11 feet. The High Jump was a draw between H. Miller '32 and Black '30. Miller also took first place in the Broad Jump.

The officials were: Field Judge—H. L. Carter, (Wabash); Timers and Judges of Finish—F. E. Klingaman (Gettysburg), J. W. Clawson (Cambridge), W. Lindsay (McGill), R. I. Schell (Ursinus), and R. C. Kichline (Ursinus); Starter—T. L. Swanger '29; Announcer—W. A. Benner '29; Scorer—J. H. Pierson '30; Measurers—D. O. Trauger '31, A. J. Horn '31.

The summary of events is as follows:

100-yard dash: Won by Dulaney '31; second—Mattern '30; third—Newcomer '29; fourth—Jeffers '29. Time—11.7 seconds.

220-yard dash: Won by Mattern '30; second—Dulaney '31; third—Krall '31; fourth—Jeffers '29. Time—25 1-5 seconds.

PERKIOMEN DEFEATS FROSH
IN SHORT GAME, SCORE 13-6

The Freshman Baseball Team dropped their opening game to Perkiomen School in a game played at Pottstown Saturday afternoon, April 13. When the loosely-played contest was called at the end of the seventh inning, the score stood 13-6 in favor of the preppers. Soeder, starting hurler for the Frosh, was hammered high, wide and handsome by the up-country outfit, yielding eleven runs in two and a half innings. Coates then ascended the mound, pitched beautiful ball, and held the home team to two lone runs in the remaining innings. Eight two-baggers were poled out during the slug-fest, plus a three-base wallop by L. Hatton. F. Hatton, Whittock, and L. Hatton, with two hits apiece, led the Perkiomen attack. Super and Massey, each with a brace of bingles, headed the Grizzly Cubs' hitters.

Y. W. C. A.

A pleasant evening with nature was enjoyed by the Y. W. C. A., Wednesday, April 10th. Beautiful nature songs were led by Miss Margaret Stocker '29, who had charge of the meetings. Miss Helen Dealy '29 favored with a delightful soprano solo, "Over the Meadow," which added much to the spirit of the meeting. Dr. Kline then gave a fine talk on "Birds," emphasizing the songsters with us at the present time. Every characteristic of these feathered folk was gone over, and their homes in different trees of the campus were revealed. Needless to say, the "Y" enjoyed this timely talk and is profuse in the thanks to Dean Kline.

ANNUAL ATHLETIC BAZAAR

Then all waited with bated breath while "Jim" spun the big wheel and announced the lucky number. If one lost—nothing—but, if one won, a big chocolate cake or what have you—and many were the winners that night.

Those, who planned the Bazaar, ably provided for all sides of the student's nature. For, besides the novelty and cake booths, there was also the book booth, presided over by none other than Harding "Tiny" McKee '29. This booth furnished an opportunity for one to replenish his store of modern literature, for the one lucky enough to win was given his choice of any one of the many popular books displayed there.

Featuring largely in the success of the evening's entertainment was the "Blue and Gold" Orchestra from Pottstown. Peppy and jazzy or soothing and dreamy, it rendered all its interpretations well and if its ability to perform can be judged by the pleasure of those dancing, nothing but words of praise can be spoken.

Last, but, by no means least, comes the refreshment booth, which judging by the number of those patronizing it, was extremely popular. Here ice cream, strawberry shortcake and punch were sold between dances by Misses Betty Yahraes '30, Raye Ash '30 and Lois Quin '31, who deserve much credit for the success of the booth.

Unfortunately the Bazaar was not attended by as large a crowd as the committee expected due to the fact that many people had left the campus for the weekend and weather conditions were not favorable but those who did attend enjoyed an interesting and novel evening.

Co-operation is a law of nature and must be held forth to have the completest and best results.

Then came the presentation ceremony itself. Evelyn Cook, '30, Florence Benjamin, '30, Marie Markley, '29, spoke briefly of the meanings of the symbols, the Red for courage and loyalty; the Old Gold standing for discrimination and a sense of values; and the Black for service. The colors were presented to Marguerite Goldthwaite, the Vice President of the Freshman Class by the Vice President of the Junior Class, Geraldine Ohl. Each Freshman girl received her colors from a member of the Junior Advisory Committee.

The Honor Blazer to be awarded to the Senior girl who exemplifies most everything the colors stand for and who represents the best in college life—athletically, socially and scholastically—was awarded to Olive Sargeant. Miss Erret made the presentation speech.

Dr. White spoke briefly to the assembled girls on the subject of color day. She told them that light was essential in order to see colors. Most of us are physically able to see them but not actually able. Dr. White urged that the shutters of indifference and indolence and prejudice be kept wide open. The college is the prism through which we can see all colors. She closed with a short prayer by Joseph Fort Newton.

The ceremony ended with the traditional singing of the Campus Song.

WEEKLY STAFF MEETING

A short meeting of the Weekly Staff was held in the Seminar Room of the Library on Monday afternoon, April 8, for the purpose of organizing the work of the staff for the remainder of the school year. Various means for improving the College newspaper and for making it more interesting were proposed by members of the staff and discussed. No definite action was taken on these matters owing to lack of information and time.
