URSINUS DEFEATED BY STRONG MUHLENBERG TEAM SATURDAY, 14-6

Many Errors Combined With Loose
Playing Spelled Defeat for Bears

TED LA CLAIR STARS

Seven errors afield spelled ruin and disaster for the Ursinus nine in the first conference game of the season on Saturday when the strong Muhlenberg nine defeated the Bears 14-6 in a loosely played game at Allentown.

The Bears found their batting eyes and clicked off eleven safe blows, the same number as their foes got off the combined hurling of Mink and Ohl. The only difference was the airtight support given Webber contrasted to the erratic playing of Ursinus. Mink was nicked for nine hits in seven innings while Ohl granted two in his inning on the peak.

LaClair Shines

Ted LaClair was the outstanding hero for the Bruins with three singles and a double to his credit out of five times at bat. He also handled three chances in the field faultlessly.

Muhlenberg got off to a good start, sending five runners around the paths on three singles, two bases on balls and a brace of errors in the first inning. Three more were sent across on two hits in the fourth and two more were chased across in the fifth before Mink ended the rally by fanning the last two. One was scored in the sixth and seventh and two more added in the eighth. This ran Muhlenberg's total number of runs to sixty-five for four games.

Ursinus found Webber for two runs in the second when LaClair singled, Clark and Carl walked and Hoagey sent Ted and Tom across the rubber with a single. One more was added in the sixth on Jones' single and LaClair's double. A rally in the eighth netted three runs, Benner and LaClair singled, Jones walked and Webber bled.

RAIN HALTS SWARTHMORE GAME; WILL PLAY TODAY

Jupiter Pluvius, well known rain jinx and spoiler of sports, scored the only victory of the day in the initial home contest of the season last Wednesday, when, after one inning had been played he sent the Swarthmore and Ursinus players to the showers with the score deadlocked at 1-1.

Umpire "Bunk" Rapine, observing the heavy clouds on all sides saw that there would be no immediate let-up in the precipitation and ruled the fracas off.

However the one inning played furnished some thrills for the most-ened fans. Swarthmore pushed a run across in the opening stanza and the Bears led by Hoagey evened the count in their half.

"Scoop," the first man up, connected with one of McFreely's pitches, sending the sphere far out into the right field pasture and rounded all the bases before the ball was returned to the infield. No more scoring occurred, although Francis beat out an infield hit and Benner walked. Jones hit into a double play.

It was decided that the game would be played off next Monday (today).

Y. W. C. A. CABINET HELD PARTY AT CAMP ARCOLA

The members of the Y. W. Cabinet and those girls who are to be delegates at the Eaglesmere Conference held a house party at Camp Arcola, Friday evening and Saturday morning. The purpose of this gathering was the consideration of problems in the Y. W. C. A. meetings and management.

No very formal program was followed, but a general discussion of these problems was held. Friday evening, around the fireplace, Mrs. Sheeder gave a talk comparing the choosing of cabinet members to the selection of Christ's disciples. The meeting ended with the singing of college songs.

Saturday morning was spent in reviews of books of interest to young people in college, and also in discussion of the duties of various committees in the Y. W.

This gathering proved to be one of great help and inspiration to those who attended. It was conducted by the retiring cabinet for the new one and was the last service this group will perform.

CONFERENCE PLANNED BY Y. M. C. A. TO TAKE PLACE AT GREEN LANE CAMP

Camp is Sponsored by Many Eastern College Associations

URSINUS TO ENROLL FIFTEEN

A most attractive conference has been planned for men—June 9th to 16th. It will be held at the University Camp at Green Lane by the Y. M. C. Associations of University of Pa., Haverford, Drexel, Swarthmore, and Ursinus Colleges. To attend will be an excellent way to wind up the college year; get something to think about during the summer, and get set for making more of college next year.

It will be a delight just to be at the beautiful camp site along the Perkiomen. There will be the opportunity for permanent acquaintance with the best college men of the East. Outstanding leaders of religious and social life will speak and conduct discussions on vital problems. The theme is "Life's Foundations." Not the least attraction is a bountiful table board of the highest quality. That the conference is for men only and limited to 175 will permit everyone to "rough it" and have intimate fellowship with one another and the leaders. The total cost—and mind you for 8 days—is $20—board $13, registration $4, and carfare $3.

Ursinus College has until May 18 to enroll 15 men. It is hoped this quota will be filled early. The conference will mean a new grip on life for the individual and a new spirit for the College. The other colleges are rapidly filling their quotas. Ursinus College must not be left behind. We owe it to ourselves and to our College to go if at all possible. Ursinus must have at least 15 men at this conference.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY NEARING COMPLETION

"The Seventh Heaven" is the Junior Class play to be presented in Bomberger, Friday, May 13. The cast is rounding into form under the efforts of Professor Sheeder. "The Seventh Heaven" ran for an extended time in Philadelphia, and other large cities. The Play is the last of the plays that will be offered by an organization in the College this year and promises to be one of the best.

All persons, alumni and friends who desire to purchase tickets communicate with Albert Lachman. Prices for the play are set at $.75 and $1.00.

CORNERSTONES OF NEW DORMITORIES WERE LAID ON WEDNESDAY MORNING

Appropriate Ceremonies Mark the Impressive Occasion

STRINE & MOYER LAY STONES

The Cornerstones for the New Men's Dormitories were laid with appropriate ceremonies Wednesday morning, May 4. A large number of the student body and several visitors witnessed the affair. The order of service provided for the Doxology, unison reading of a portion of the Scriptures, followed by the prayer which was given by Rev. W. W. Jordan, D. D., the Professor of the English Bible.

To two of the members of the Senior class was accorded the privilege of actually laying the stones. Stanley M. Moyer, President of the Men's Student Council, laid the first cornerstone. Frank E. Strine, president of the Senior Class, placed the second stone in its position. Both these gentlemen performed their part like experienced masons.

The placing of the papers, pamphlets, etc., in the copper boxes was performed by the President of the College, and the Dean. Such articles as the catalogue of the College, the Alumni Register, The Ode to Ursinus, several plate booklets depicting scenes and phases of life at Ursinus, The Weekly, and several of the present day newspapers formed the contents. Lastly a Freshman cap was put thereon. A great surprise awaits those who shall open the boxes centuries hence. The occasion closed with the singing of The Campus Song.

PREPARATIONS FOR MAY DAY FETE BEING COMPLETED

Preparations are being completed rapidly for the annual May Day pageant, which will be presented under the direction of Miss Helen Errett, instructor of physical education, in the College Woods this Saturday, May 14, at three o'clock Daylight Saving Time. Tickets may be bought for thirty-five cents from the girls who are participating in the event. Since the seating capacity available is very limited, seats will be sold to the early comers for an additional charge of ten cents. Bertha Weaver, Adelaide Hathaway, and Mary Stichler are assisting Miss Errett in arranging the details of the program and designing the costumes. All the girls have been working faithfully on drills and dances and making their costumes. The event promises to be superior to any of previous years. Miss Margaret Stocker will be the pianist. Dick Snyder, Walter Scheirer, and Harold Peterson will provide special music. It is hoped that the weather will be favorable and that many friends of the College and people of the town will avail themselves of this opportunity to see an original little pageant in a natural woodland setting.

DEBATING TEAMS BANQUETED ON THURSDAY EVENING

The debate season was formally closed Thursday evening, May 5 with the banquet held in Freeland dining room by the joint men's and women's teams. For the latter it took the form of a celebration in that neither the women's affirmative nor negative lost an encounter. To the former it was a social gathering and more of a farewell inasmuch as all six of the men speakers are to graduate. Even this however did not dampen the spirit of the occasion or dull the wit of Mr. Martin Witmer, men's coach and toast master, or the repartee of Dr. Elizabeth White, coach of the

URSINUS HOST OF MONTGOMERY COUNTY SCHOOL EXHIBITION

Academic Contests Feature the Morning Session While Field
Events Hold Sway in Afternoon

THIRTY-SIX SCHOOLS PARTICIPATE IN EXHIBIT

The Ursinus Campus was the scene of great activity and enthusiasm on Saturday when the College acted as host for the third consecutive Montgomery County Play Festival and Exhibition. Not only did the Exhibition prove a decided success, but it marked a great advance along educational lines. About three thousand persons, composed of school principals, teachers, and scholars were conveyed to our beautiful campus by means of motor cars, buses, street cars, and trucks, to spend a grand and glorious day, and view with interest the many events and activities which were scheduled. Not only were there events along educational lines, such as contests in spelling, singing, declamation, typewriting, drawing, and so forth, but a big field event also took place for both girls and boys, into which a great number took part, and which proved to become one of the features of the day.

The campus took the setting of a regular picnic ground, where ice cream, sandwiches, cake, and candies were on sale in great quantities throughout the entire day.

The academic exercises of the Festival took place in the morning in Bomberger Hall, starting at 9.30. Much competition was seen in the various contests for approximately thirty-six schools had representatives in one or more of the events. The judges of the contests were composed of members of the Ursinus faculty and their assistants.

The winners of the scholastic contests are as follows: Spelling—Catherine Bartlett, Red Hill, first; Virginia Bowers, Lower Providence, second; Burquin Hatch, Whitmarsh, third. Declamation—Class B: Mildred Gehman, West Telford, first; Dolly Hannum, West Conshohocken, second; Grace Shelly, Worcester, third. Declamation—Class A: Jane Ashby, Springfield, first; Grace Bucher, schwenksville, second; Bernese Lee, Ambler, third. Declamation—Class C: Edith Hofer, West Norriton, first; George Sell, Upper Merion, second; Mildred Coulston, Plymouth, third. Declamation—Class D: Webster Pedrick, Upper Providence, first; Dorothy Zern, Douglass, second; Shirley Hammond, Skipack, third. Typewriting—Margaret Wier, Hatboro, first; Sarah Kipplehouse, Ambler, second. The first winner in the typewriting contest typed fifty words per minute, while the second best typed forty-eight words per minute. Singing contests in Class A was won by Collegeville; Class B—Upper Gwynedd; Class C—Upper Dublin; class D—Limerick.

The athletic events for both girls and boys took place in the afternoon, starting at one o'clock. The girls events took place on the hockey field, while the boys contests were staged on Patterson Field. Events for both sexes, such as dashes, shot put, running broad jump, running high jump, baseball and basketball throws took place. In these contests the schools

SIX NEW MEMBERS ELECTED TO TAU KAPPA ALPHA

The Tau Kappa Alpha at a meeting held last Wednesday, duly initiated into membership six new members who had represented the college in many debates thruout the season.

The men who were thus honored, are all members of the present graduating class and are, Paul Wisler, Nesbit Straley, Earl Burgard and John R. Moore. Two members of the Women's Debating Club, Lois Nickel and Gladys Park were also initiated as members.

All the newly elected members have served on the Varsity Debating teams one or more years and their elevation to membership came as a recognition for their faithful endeavor and ability in forensic circles.

Prof. Franklin I. Sheeder was elected president of the association and Prof. M. W. Witmer, who is also coach of the Debating team, was elected secretary-treasurer.

All the alumni members of the Tau Kappa Alpha are earnestly requested to return for the initiation and inaugural ceremonies.

TENNIS TEAM WINS OVER OSTEOPATHY; BUT LOSES CONTEST TO MORAVIAN

Delaware Contest Scheduled for Wednesday Postponed Due to Rain

LOSES TO F. & M. SATURDAY

Last Tuesday the Bears' Tennis team journeyed to Philadelphia for its first match of the season and returned home with a 4-2 victory over the Philadelphia College of Osteopathy. The score would have been even more decisive had it not been for the enforced absence of Huston Spangler, last year's star.

Paul Lefever, a freshman playing his first match for the Red, Old Gold and Black romped thru his match with Herbst of Osteopathy in fine fashion, winning easily 6-0, 7-5.

"Crocky" Ergood, another freshman, playing his first match for "U", lost to Barnes of Osteopathy after putting up a hard fight, 4-6, 7-5, 3-6.

"Walt" Spangler of last year's team smothered Daber of Osteopathy with his fast driving to the corners, winning 6-2, 6-1.

Captain Oppenheimer, although not in the best of condition gave Davies of Osteopathy plenty of opposition, finally losing 8-10, 0-6.

The score now stood 2-2 and in order to win the Bears would have to take both the doubles matches. But the players were equal to the occasion and after a display of the fighting spirit which was characteristic of the Ursinus teams of long ago, broke thru for a win of 4-2, Lefever and Ergood beating Herbst and Barnes 6-4, 6-1 and Capt. Oppenheimer and Spangler besting Davies and Bowlby 6-1, 6-4.

Summary:

Singles:
Lefever, U, vs. Herbst, O, 6-0, 7-5.
Ergood, U, vs. Barnes, O, 4-6, 7-5, 3-6.

W. Spangler, U, vs. Daber, O, 6-1, Capt. Oppenheimer, U, vs. Davies, O, 8-10, 0-6.

Doubles:

Lefever and Ergood, U, vs. Herbst and Barnes, O, 6-4, 6-1.

Capt. Oppenheimer and W. Spangler, U, vs. Davies and Bowlby 6-1, 6-4.

Moravian Match

The match with Delaware University scheduled for Wednesday was cancelled on account of rain, so on Thursday the Bears again took up their racquets after one day's lay-off and journeyed to Bethlehem where they were tied by the Moravian net.

MOTHER'S DAY

Because I feel that, in the Heavens above
The angels, whispering to one another
Can find, among their burning terms of love,
None so devotional as that of "Mother."—Poe.

MOTHER'S DAY has again come and gone. In spite of the fact that there has been much discussion recently regarding the observance of this one day each year in honor of the Mothers of the land, by schools, colleges, churches and other organizations whose influence for the highest and noblest in life are greatest, we were glad to note that the observance, in general, was as great (if not greater) this year as in former years. By our observations during the past few days the Ursinus campus was no exception to the rule, for the thoughts of most students turned, for a brief while at least, toward home, and the outgoing mails seemed to be exceptionally heavy—letters and packages to mothers of students were exceptionally numerous. This is as it should be.

The Weekly believes in the observance of Mother's Day because it believes in exalting home life, homely duties and all basic domestic relationships. We believe that Mothers Day has served, and can be made to serve more fully, in stressing our duties to our homes, our privileges in the homes, and our hopes for better homes, and all the kindred topics that make for better citizenship and for more practical Christianity.

What a multitude of thoughts and pleasant memories surge back and forth in our minds as we think of motherhood the world over, for the holiest thing in our round of human life is motherhood.

There is no function so beautiful, so sacrificial, so enduring as this. "A mother is a mother still, the holiest thing alive."

Every tribute paid to mother yesterday was commendable indeed. It is well for us to remember, however, that it is by the way we live that we can reflect most credit upon, and pay our highest tribute to our mothers.

The Apostle of Old wrote that he had no greater joy than to see his children walk in the ways of truth and righteousness. Those whose lives are noble, useful, and unselfish, pay greatest tribute to mother, whether she be living here or in the Great Beyond. It is well that every Ursinus student keep that in mind continually.

***** JUST A PASSING THOUGHT

MOST of us, as we returned from the Easter vacation, were agreeably surprised to find that such splendid progress had been made in the building of the new dormitories, in so short a period of time. Only a little more than two weeks previous, as we left the campus for our homes, so little, it seems, had been done.

The new dormitory buildings do not look different from any other building in process of erection, but as the writer stood nearby and beheld what the hands of the craftsmen had accomplished, the thought, "how true to life" seemed to be constantly surging back and forth.

Inside it is a mass of marvellous disorder, to the eye of every novice. Yet there is order in that disorder. In a few more months all the apparent confusion will have disappeared, and even the wayfaring man will see that the architect and the builder knew what they are doing.

How like the world—how true to life—such an unfinished building is! The world is building. The Divine Architect has a plan which He is undoubtedly following; but our eyes, as we gaze around, see only the wildest confusion.

If the world were a finished product, we might well despair. But it is not. It is a house in the process of erection.

A mighty Mind is directing that process, and some day, when the building is finished, even fools (if there are any left by that time) will see the wisdom that has produced it, and know that the price paid for it has not been too high.

M. E. B., '29.

Y. M. C. A.

Last Wednesday evening, the old "Y" regime terminated their year's activity, when Mr. Kratz gave his last talk as president, and the new rulers were ushered into office as Mr. String gave his first presentation as president.

Mr. Kratz spoke of the "Y" from the depths of a sympathetic heart, tempered by a year's experience as leader of that organization. A few of his thoughts are contained in the following sentences. The religion of Jesus Christ has a place in the world, a place on the Ursinus campus, and the "Y" should be a living interpretation of that spirit of service, which Christ implanted upon this earth. The "Y" is merely a reflection of its leaders and we must strive for a clear image for the coming year.

Mr. String accepting the challenge of Mr. Kratz, addressed the members as "gentlemen of the jury" for they are to be the jury which will judge him. He accused, and justly so, the majority of people of playing with religion. We do what we wish and make religion conform to our actions. Among his thoughts are these. Christ is the real head of the "Y" and all men on the campus should be interested in seeking for the manner of living which he came to teach us. In his closing words he paid a worthy and deserved compliment to Mr. Kratz when he called him, "A Real Big Brother."

On Wednesday evening, May 11, Dr. R. F. Jenny will be here to tell us more about the camp conference at Green Lane. This camp has good speakers on the program, plenty of eats in the pantry (which will not stay there), and a live time promised to all who go to mingle with the fellows of our neighboring colleges. Everyone should be at the meeting as Jenny can draw vivid pictures of the coming summer.

Y. W. C. A.

The rainy weather forced the Y. W. girls to retreat to the Y room for the song service which was to have taken place on the library steps. After singing several hymns Adelaide Hathaway read the ninety sixth Psalm. Grace Kauffman was in charge of the singing. Songs characteristic to college and Y. W. life here and in general were sung with enthusiasm and other familiar melodies were enjoyed as well. The meeting was closed with the benediction.

"THE NEW EARTH" ORATORIO

Rehearsal has begun in preparation for the annual Commencement Oratorio, which will be presented by a mixed chorus of seventy-five voices in Bomberger Hall on Sunday evening, June 5. "The New Earth," by Henry Hadley, assistant conductor of the New York Philharmonic Orchestra, will be presented, under the direction of Jeanette Douglas Hartenstein, with Minna Just Keller at the organ, and Helen Lucas at the piano. The presentation of the oratorio this year promises to be of especial interest to music lovers of Ursinus, as the final chorus, "The Song of the Marching Men" has been a feature on the program of the Men's Glee Club during their entire concert season.

The Tower Window

WE are hearing the new developments at Ursinus spoken of as an "expansion program." It is important that there should be an understanding of the situation and no wrong impressions from the use of the word "expansion." Yesterday we received a letter from a prospective student inquiring about our "library course." In like manner girls ask information regarding our "domestic science department" and boys write regarding various branches of "engineering."

Let it be known that there has been no change in the policy of Ursinus by which it confines itself exclusively to the liberal arts. We stand for no kind of technical training and will introduce no "vocational" courses in the narrow sense of that word. There is a sense in which purely cultural studies are vocational. A knowledge of pure mathematics will help one do many kinds of work in the world, and so it is with history, literature, philosophy and the natural sciences. In so far as a thorough knowledge of liberal studies promotes efficiency in service, our courses may be said to be vocational, but the real objective is the education of the individual and not training with a view to the attainment of skill in the performance of some particular kind of work. Let no one think that Ursinus is expanding beyond the well defined limits of cultural education.

We are merely increasing the capacity of the College so as to permit of a student body of about 450, and adding to the equipment and teaching staff so as to do the work within our chosen field with ever increasing success. In this there is almost infinite opportunity for improvement of equipment and refinement of method. It is along these lines that the development of Ursinus is being directed.

The education of a limited number of youth under the best of conditions with fullness and thoroughness is more important at this time than the attempt to give a higher education to a great number of individuals. We do not arrogate any special credit or distinction to ourselves in the recognition of this simple fact and in the development of our work accordingly. That we are now doing a superior type of educational work is the judgment of observers and this encourages us to apply ourselves with greater energy and skill than ever before in the pursuit of our ideal.

What makes us especially active in the so-called "expansion program" at this time is the aim to extend the privileges of Ursinus to a somewhat increased number, mainly because the larger unit will enable us to gain better results as a whole and in each individual student.

FUTURE BASEBALL GAMES

Last Wednesday, the rain thwarted all our attempts to witness the first home game of the season. Neither of the teams were able to give an exhibition of their skill because of the soggy field and the slippery ball. This game with Swarthmore would have given the students an idea of the team's ability, but, now, we must base our opinions on the results of games we do not see.

This Wednesday, the team travels to Lancaster where they will cross bats with the traditional rival of Ursinus, Franklin and Marshall. As this is a conference game, the Bears will miss the help of the yearlings, but they will give their 150 per cent to win in this national pastime.

On Saturday, the Bruins will again leave their lair in quest of battle, when they seek to revenge themselves against Bucknell for two defeats in basketball. The team will try to toll the knell of Bucknell in this week end game.

COMING EVENTS

The Girls' Glee Club will give its home concert in Bomberger Hall this evening.

Rev. Ray Freeman Jenny, D. D., General Director of United Christian Work of the Christian Association of the University of Pennsylvania, will speak to the Y. M. C. A., Wednesday evening.

"Seventh Heaven," by Austin Strong is nearing completion under the skillful and untiring efforts of Mr. and Mrs. F. I. Sheeder and will be presented in Bomberger Friday, May 13.

Extensive preparations are being made by the girls of the College for the annual May Day Fete to be held in the College Woods Saturday, May 14, at 3 p. m., D. S. T. Admission, thirty-five cents.

INTERCOLLEGIATE COMMENT

The "point system" is going to be given a trial at Lebanon Valley College. The joint Faculty-Student Council is preparing to take definite action upon the matter and very likely by the fall of 1927 Lebanon Valley will enjoy such a system.

Seven acres of historic land at Castle Point, Hoboken, N. J., originally owned by Colonel John Stevens, confiscated by the British Government during the Revolution, and overlooking the old duelling grounds where Aaron Burr shot Alexander Hamilton, have been purchased by Stevens Institute of Technology.

Not a few colleges have decided to abolish obligatory chapel attendance this year. Yale has decided to do away with compulsory chapel, but many colleges still retain it. Out of 310 college presidents who were asked for opinions on the subject 220 replied in favor of compulsory chapel.

ALUMNI NOTES

Please send news about yourself and other alumni to the Alumni Editor. All news greatly appreciated.

were graded rural, elementary and high schools, and in these three classes subdivisions were made.

As awards for the winners trophies, banners, medals, cash prizes, and ribbons were given by various associations through Montgomery County.

Aside from the contests there were Art, Commercial, Home Economics, General Shop Work and Mechanical Drawing Exhibits which were placed in the various classrooms in Bomberger where they were reviewed by hundreds of people.

Aside from these contests another of a different type was held in the Agricultural Contests, and consisted of Crop Judging, Poultry Judging and Dairy Cattle Judging.

About five o'clock the various events came to a close and the school children departed for their homes.

Debating Teams Banqueted

women's teams.

At such an annual event it is customary to permit those of honored positions to review the season and make suggestions. In this matter the banquet was an exception, but the number of outstanding students in such a small group was remarkable. Following the addresses of "Brother" Witmer and "Sister" White (of Tau Kappa Alpha) Paul Wisler, captain of the men's affirmative, and Miriam Ehret, captain of the women's affirmative, made short speeches succeeded by Grove Haines, men's negative captain, and Elizabeth Miller, leader of women's negative. Manager Earl Burgard and Ruth Eppheimer, who managed the feminine debaters, expressed their pleasure in directing forensics at Ursinus.

Even this group did not exhaust the list of the honored. George Haines, Mary Garber, Nesbit Straley, Helen Ort, John Moore and Bertha Weaver, all having taken a prominent part during the past season, gave a few remarks and suggestions for the perfection of debating.

It was a most successful season, both in view of the victories and the association with other colleges. As Coach Witmer suggested, however, it is not for the glory of winning but for the gratification of fair tactics that Ursinus is striving. Thus after serving their Alma Mater, some three years, some two and others one, they joined in her favorite—The Campus Song.

men 3-3. Lefever was the mainstay of the team, not only decisively defeating his singles' opponent but also proving himself to be the chief factor in the lone doubles' victory—the win which prevented the Bears from tasting their first defeat of the year.

Ergood, although being eclipsed by his more brilliant partner, came thru in the pinches and succeeded in holding his own thruout the match which had the spectators on their toes every minute, with the Bears finally winning 6-4, 9-11, 6-4. Spokes, an ex-Lehigh netman, gave the U-men most of their trouble in this match.

Lloyd Hoagey, U's all around athlete, in his first appearance with the net team impressed the spectators with his fight, but lost to a more experienced opponent 1-6, 5-7.

Summary:

Singles: Lefever, U, vs. Hoffman, M. 6-1, 6-1
Ergood, U. vs. Michael, M. 6-4, 5-7, 6-4.

W. Sangler, U. vs. Spahr, M. 1-6, 1-6.

Hoagey, U. vs. Yaeck, M. 1-6, 5-7. Doubles:

Capt. Oppenheimer and W. Spangler, U. vs. Spahr and Yaeck, M. 1-6, 1-6.

Ursinus vs. F. & M.

On Saturday, May 7, our tennis team played Franklin and Marshall at Lancaster. Ursinus was defeated in all six matches, the final score being 6-0.

Walter Spangler outdid himself and showed the best form of the year. Playing against a superior player in Mark Lefever, first man and captain of F. & M., he fought well and executed many brilliant shots. In doubles, playing with Snyder for the first time Spangler's work carried Lefever and Feagley to close sets 6-4, 9-7. The rest of the fellows fought hard but to no avail.

Summaries:

- M. Lefever defeated Spangler 6-3, 6-1.
Feagley defeated Snyder 6-1, 6-1.
Kahler defeated Oppenheimer 6-0, 6-1.
Shupp defeated Reimert 6-1, 6-0.

MANY AMERICANS FOUND COLLEGE LIFE UNBEARABLE

New York (By New Student Service)—Has the United States a distinguished kicked-out-of-college list? Oxford today reveres the memory of Shelley, John Locke, William Penn, Edward Gibbon and Waiter Savage Landor. Yet these men were such unruly undergraduates that they were all expelled from the university, charged with such crimes as sedition, atheism, duel fighting and manslaughter. Has this country a comparable list?

Of late there has been a great deal of discussion of dismissals. Editors have been expelled, expulsions have been threatened. Yet these defy the authorities, hold to their principles and point with pride to English predecessors. Mr. Gerald Fling, who was expelled from Kansas City Junior College for writing outspoken editorials, says that a student dismissed for criticizing the authorities is better off than one willing to be "put in his place" without objecting. And to put the faculty benediction on undergraduate nose-thumbing, Professor Walter L. Whittlesey of Princeton says that "Young Jeffersons or Franklins would be fired in short order today. They would not be likely to submit to restraints put upon modern students. I doubt very much if either would have lasted through his freshman year."
