UNITED STATES SENATE,
Washington, D.C.

To the President:

I desire to make application for the Second Secretaryship of the Embassy of the United States to France.

Huntington Wilson.

Mr. Wilson is a well educated young man - speaks and writes the French language, is the son of a most excellent man and friend and I will be much pleased if he can secure a position.

Truly,

S. M. Cullom.

I concur,

Wm. E. Mason.
