Faculty Announces Honor Students For 1926 Class

Margaret Ehly, Valedictorian; Claude Shoently, Salutatorian

TO SPEAK COMMENCEMENT DAY

Announcement has been made that Miss Margaret R. Ehly of Roxborough, Philadelphia, is valedictorian of the class of 1926, while Mr. Claude Schoently of East Greenville has the salutatory.

Miss Ehly is a prominent member of the Classical group specializing in Latin, in which she is doing honor work. Somewhat outside the classical field she is majoring, also, in French. These are the two subjects which she expects to teach.

Her time has not all been taken up with her studies, but, on the other hand, Miss Ehly has been occupied in numerous extra-curricular activities as well. Her record of four years filled with duties proves that honor students need not devote all their time to academic work. In musical and dramatic circles, the valedictorian is well-known, while she has demonstrated her executive ability in capably heading committees and the like, culminating with the honor of the Y. W. C. A. presidency in her last year. The valedictory is a fitting honor to complete her well-rounded college career.

East Greenville seems to be productive of real genius, for not only did one of last year's honor students come from that place, but Mr. Schoently does, as well. He is a member of the Economics and Business Administration group, and will enter the world of business next year.

Many New Books Added to College Library

Purchase Made Through Annual Contributions of '14 and '15 Classes

Since its graduation in June, 1914, the class of that year has annually made a contribution to the College Library for the purchase of books. Some years ago the class of 1915 began to make contributions for the same purpose, naming its fund the Fegely-Glendenning Memorial after the two members of the class who lost their lives in the Great War. The following books were recently added to the Library, purchased by funds received from these sources:

Class of 1914

Keyser, The Human Worth of Rigorous Thinking
Hukley, Life and Letters of T. H. Huxley, 2 vols.

Miller, Railway Transportation.
Dewey, Experience and Nature.
Oman, England before the Norman Conquest

La Fontaine, Fables, 2 vols.
Pellissier, Histoire de la Litterature Francaise

Robinson, Readings in General Psychology
Cledat, Dictionnaire Etymologique de la Langue Francaise

Knowlton, Birds of the World

JUNIOR CLASS COMMITTEE SELECTS CAST FOR ANNUAL MAY STAGE PRODUCTION

Jones, Blum, and Kauffman Take Leading Roles in Comedy by Dodd

In accord with traditional custom the Junior class has chosen as its play, "Pals First," a comedy by Lee Wilson Dodd adapted from the novel by Francis Percy Elliot. The plot of the drama centers around "the pals," Danny and Dominic, veritable tramps, who approach a Southern home one evening. The old colored servants, Aunt Caroline and Uncle Alex, believe Danny to be their long-absented master. The imposters mutually decide to act out the good fortune wished upon them and immediately they are assailed with difficulties. Dominic's wit and humor which pervades every scene augmented by the humorous lines of the other characters give a charmingly entertaining tone to the whole drama.

The following cast was selected prior to the beginning of the Easter recess: Danny and Dominic, the pals, Clair Blum and Owen Jones; Uncle Alex and Aunt Caroline, servants, George Erb and Helen Ort; The Squirrel, a tramp, George Koch; Judge Logan, Earl Skinner, Jean Logan, Grace Kauffman; Dr. Chilton, Leonard Miller; Miss Alicia, Ruth Eppehimer; Gordon, Ralph Straley; Stivers, Robert Henkels,

Mr. and Mrs. Sheeder, who fully proved their ability as coaches of Schaff Play, have consented to coach the play. While the cast contains some names familiarly associated already with dramatics it has also some new names which bid fair to make the rendition one of an excellent character. The date of the play, as tentatively arranged, is May 7.

URSINUS CELEBRITIES ENTERTAIN AT W. M. S. AFFAIR

Among the persons appearing on the program presented by the Woman's Missionary Society in Trinity Reformed Church, Collegeville, last Thursday evening, were several closely connected with the college.

Miss Ella Watkins in her characteristic manner, delighted her audience with a reading. Mrs. Franklin Sheeder had the main role in a one-act play portraying the college life of a co-ed.

MEN'S GLEE CLUB RENDERS DELIGHTFUL PROGRAM AT CONSHOHOCKEN HIGH

Club Members Entertained at Dance by Community Center

After a vacation of several weeks, the Men's Glee Club made a successful appearance at Conshohocken High School, Saturday evening, April 10, giving that audience a particularly delightful program. Under the direction of Miss Jeanette Douglas Hartenstine the entertainers put forth their best effort—one that was appreciated by the large audience.

Special numbers again played a heavy role with Miss Margaret Ehly, pianist, Harold Peterson, trumpeter, Walter Scheirer and Charles Hoerner, violinists, and Harold Peterman, baritone soloist rendering successful interpretations of their respective numbers. The quartet composed of Owen Jones, first tenor, Clair Blum, second tenor, Randolph Helfrich, the new baritone, and Paul Krasley, bass, is now functioning in true form. With such able members, it is hoped the quartet will take a greater part in succeeding programs.

Following the concert, the Conshohocken Community Center provided dancing and refreshments, both of which were enjoyed by the Ursinus men.

WOMEN'S FORENSIC TEAMS TO DEBATE ELIZABETHTOWN

The women's debating teams are making careful preparations for the remaining part of their schedule which includes a dual debate with Elizabethtown, April 15, and Susquehanna, April 22.

In the beginning of the season, when for the first time the Ursinus girls debating teams appeared in public, they established an excellent reputation for themselves by their well prepared arguments and skill in presentation.

Bucknell was met and defeated by the affirmative here, but overcame the negative at Lewisburg. At Temple the results were just the reverse, the affirmative meeting with defeat, while the negative was victorious.

The April debates, to all appearances, promises to add further well-deserved laurels to these talented co-eds.

CONCERT BY PHILHARMONIC QUARTET TO CONCLUDE ENTERTAINMENT COURSE

Elaborate Program to be Given in Bomberger Hall Wednesday Night

The end of a most enjoyable series of entertainments approaches. The curtain is opened for the last act and in this we see the fitting culmination of a successful season drawing near. Each of these entertainments has displayed skill and talent—each of them was enjoyed; and it is with keen anticipation that we await the final and concluding number by the Philharmonic String Quartet Wednesday night.

This famous quartet is composed of Harry Alenikoff, leader, Louis Fishzohn, Philip Neeter and Millin Printz, each one of whom is a member of the Philadelphia Orchestra, of nation-wide renown. They are accompanied by Miss Jane Howell, soprano vocalist, and William Silvano Thunder at the piano. Mr. Thunder is the only one of these entertainers who has been at Ursinus before, having performed on a previous occasion with Mr. Thaddeus Rich.

BEARS MEET "JING" JOHNSON'S LEHIGH NINE NEXT

Ursinus continues the national pastime by vying with Lehigh at Bethlehem on Wednesday, April 14. Although Lehigh has suffered defeat this season in the South they comprise a strong aggregation. The Red, Old Gold and Black and the Brown and White have contested athletic supremacy for many years on the diamond. The last victory registered against them was in 1921 when they were beaten by a score of 3-1.

Lehigh's mentor "Jing" Johnson, Ursinus alumnus '16, and Coach Kichline were classmates here. "Jing" added many victories to Ursinus' fame and captained the team his Senior year. He arose to the acme of pitching fame when he twirled a no-hit, no-run game against Fordham in 1914. He is also the hero of the longest game ever played on Patterson field, and in the same year he pitched a 17-inning game against Gettysburg resulting in a 1-1 tie. If Lehigh has imbibed any of his spirit they should have a successful season.

Derk Strikes Out Nineteen Batters in Opening Tilt

Textile Bows Before Bears in Loosely Played Game

HOAGEY LEADS IN BATTING

Saturday afternoon on Patterson Field the Ursinus Bears downed Textile of Philadelphia 4-2 in a loosely played contest.

Capt. Derk on the mound for Ursinus pitched good ball having nineteen strikeouts to his credit but loose and erratic support allowed two runs to cross the rubber for Textile.

Coach Kichline shifted his line-up numerous times in order to give everyone a chance and several infield positions are as yet unsettled.

For Ursinus Hoagey garnered 4 hits to be the batting star of the day while Connelly gave the best exhibition for Textile.

On Wednesday Ursinus plays Lehigh at Bethlehem.

Play inning by inning:

First Inning

Moran struck out. Kay grounded to Bigley. Sears singled. Lindsey doubled, Sears scoring, Connelly struck out. One run, Two hits.

Hoagey singled. Francis sacrificed. Moyer singled. Hoagey scoring. Derk and Benner grounded to Connelly. One run. Two hits.

Second Inning

Hodgeson struck out. Bigley tossed out Campelford. Tips walked; Harding singled. Moran was safe on Bigley's error, Tips scoring. Kay struck out. One run. One hit.

Carl flied out to Tips. Bigley walked. Clark walked. Millar walked.

State University Students Only Ones to Use Name "Grizzlies"

"Grizzlies" Win By A Touchdown" Now Quite Common

When the native of Butte or Missoula read this, in the past, he knew that the State University eleven had scored another victory. But since 1924 he does not dance in the streets at the mere sight of such headlines. For the Univer. of California, Southern Branch, has appropriated the name for itself—the name borne by Montana teams since 1897. And now there is confusion.

Montana is indignant. Oscar Dahlberg, president of the Associated Students, asked the new Grizzlies to change their name. They suggested the teams be known as "Montana Grizzlies" and "California Grizzlies." The Montana refused; they now threaten legal action.

Montana students point to the University of California for precedent in seeking redress in the courts. It is reported that the University of California students are going to court to prevent the Mission Ball Club of San Francisco from using the name Bears, which has always been exclusively used by Varsity teams.

BERNICE LEO ELECTED PRESIDENT OF W. S. GOVERNMENT

One of highest honors, that of being elected president of the Women's Student Government, was bestowed upon Bernice Leo at a meeting of the women's student body on Thursday evening. Other officers elected were: Vice president, Ruth Von Steuben; secretary, Elizabeth Thomason, and treasurer, Ruth Eppehimer. Elizabeth Thomason, Sallie Hoffer, and Grace Kauffman were elected Sophomore, Junior, and Senior representatives respectively.

"THE OLD ORDER CHANGETH"

With this issue the newly elected staff of the Weekly takes over the duties and responsibilities of publication. The past administration has by its wisdom and fairness in all cases performed a great and lasting credit to our institution by bringing the Weekly, to a great extent, to the enviable position which it now holds. It is thus with due respect to the noble accomplishments of our worthy predecessors that we, the newly elected staff, carry on the torch in an attempt to further place the Weekly on a higher plane and make of it a more vital instrument for reflecting student opinion on the campus.

It shall be the effort of the present staff to aim constantly toward higher standards in more efficient and accurate dissemination of the news; to exercise a constant vigil for accuracy in the columns; to cherish the principles and traditions for which Ursinus has stood and to render a genuine service to the student body, faculty, alumni, and friends.

Constructive criticism will be gladly appreciated any time concerning this publication for it is only thru this method that we are able to ascertain what our readers want. In closing we would say that only thru the co-operation of all will we be able, to succeed in bringing into clearer relief our dominant ideals and purposes, to work out in detail our fundamental principles and to bring all available power to bear in the production of better and larger results.

S. A. R., '27

The Weekly joins with the entire student body in extending the deepest sympathy to Allen C. Harman over the death of his father, who passed away on March 30.

RAMBLINGS OF A RAMBLER

"A Moral Little Tale" written by Joaquin Maria Bartrina consists of less than one hundred words but has a moral that is peculiarly applicable to this age of myriad desires. Here is the story:

"John had a diamond of great price, and in order to learn how to appreciate what he had, he studied chemistry and excited, breathless, he analyzed the diamond."

"But oh horrors! That perfect jewel, in appearance like some star's tear, he found, with wrath and with profound rancour, was nothing but a little piece of lamp black."

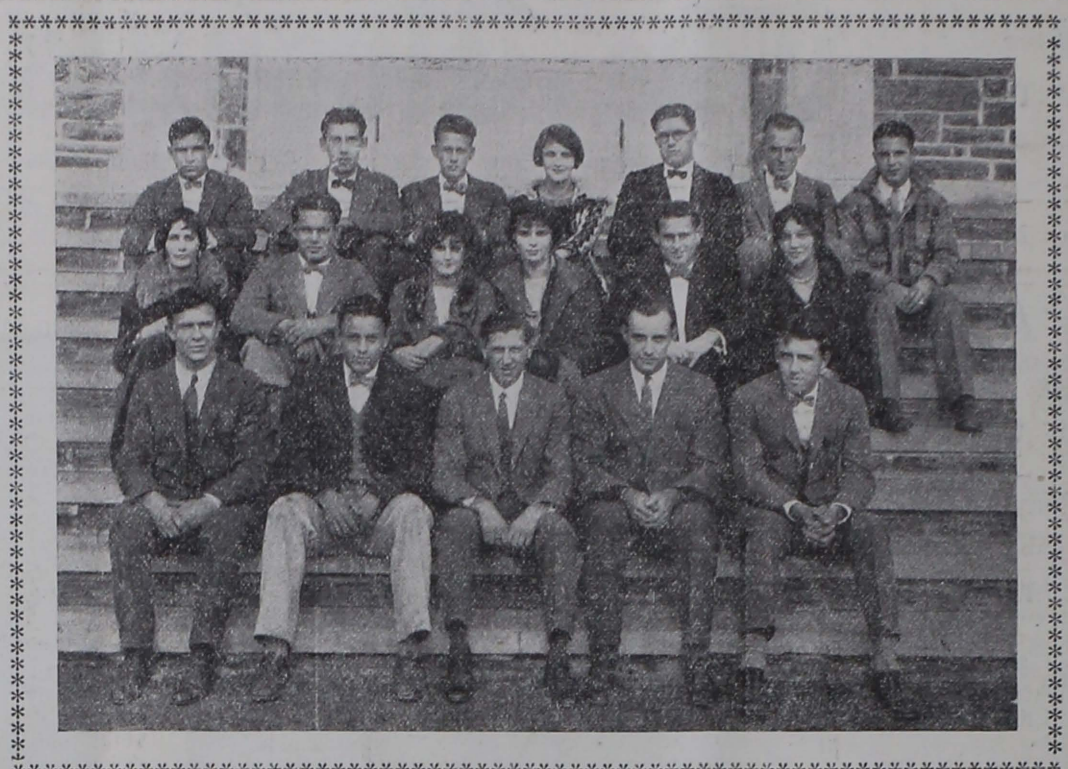

"If you wish to keep your happiness, as you say you do, don't analyze my body; don't analyze."

Of the multiplicity of desires of man few can withstand analysis. So often after men have struggled, utilizing the finest years of their life in the endeavor to obtain their "diamond" they have found to their chagrin that it was only a bit of "lamp black." Philosophers have said that anticipation is greater than realization. Men have proved it. Who is it that has not conjured beautiful dreams in anticipation of the fulfillment of some desire, painting with the brush of the dreamer a glorifying and resplendent picture, living their lives for the anticipated desire, only to find the reality drab and commonplace?

How much disappointment, disillusion and remorse could be saved mankind if the analysis of our desires would only precede the gratification of these desires. Conceive of the vast amount of sorrow and strife that could be avoided if man weighed the consequences of its acts before acting.

Men devote whole lives to the achievement of something only to discover in the end that the "star" to which they have hitched their wagon has fallen to earth.

Human desire is insatiable. From cradle to casket life is only a concatenation of desires, none satisfying. In this tendency to crave possession of all that one sees the adult is not unlike the child. If you must analyze do so before you set out to acquire. If you would retain the beauty, whether gem or friend, do not analyze.

ZWING

Members of Zwing were afforded the pleasure of a well-balanced and excellently presented program last Friday night. After a lapse of several weeks without meetings, the Zwingians were an eager audience, and the program more than realized their expectations.

The first number was a reading, "Why Go to College," by Miss Alice Miller, '26 which proved highly amusing, as well as interesting.

Miss Helen Lucas, '28 directed a sketch, "Selections from the Student Prince," which was received enthusiastically. Miss Ruth Eppehimer, '28 and Mr. Robert Henkels, '28 delighted those present by a charming waltz and duet. Another feature of the sketch was a duet, "Deep in My Heart," by Miss Ruth Von Steuben and Mr. Owen Jones. The "Drinking Song" was perfectly sung by a chorus consisting of Messrs. Jones, Roehm, Yaukey, Skinner, Henkels, Armento, Krasley, Wisler, Reimert, and Miss Von Steuben. Miss Lucas deserves much credit for one of the most enjoyable musical sketches offered by Zwing this season.

Miss Evelyn Hamm, '28 gave an interesting reading as a substitution number. Four songs from the latest Masque and Whig production were sung by Miss Hope Dietrich accompanied by Miss Ehly. The lilting songs were made doubly good by Miss Dietrich's manner of presenting them.

During the business session of the meeting, the new officers were installed.

SCHAFF

Francis Bacon once said that "variety discovers virtue" and this can be well applied to the miscellaneous program presented by Schaff Literary Society, Friday night, April 9. The program was varied but each number was so presented that the whole performance blended into a harmonious whole.

The first number on the program was a vocal solo by R. Maxwell Paine. He sang two Indian love lyrics, "Less than the Dust" and "Till I Wake," written by Lawrence Hope. The audience greatly appreciated these numbers and an encore was in order. Following this Miss Hoch gave a reading of the "Bald Man" and "Jack." These were two humorous selections and Miss Hoch displayed fine talent as a reader.

Miss Jenkins then gave a brief resume of Dr. Faustus and with the aid of Mr. Welsh, Schaff's tragic actor, presented a very vivid picture of the agony and suffering of Dr. Faustus during the last hours of his life. Miss Ehret and Miss Sargent then presented a fine piano duet using "Over Hill and Dale" for their selection.

Mr. Fitzkee then read "Renegade" by McClure. The reader selected this story because it is typical of the frankness and forwardness among the modern short story writers. The story was greatly appreciated by the audience. Under the leadership of Miss Derr, several Senior women presented a parody of "Beau Brummel." This was very amusing and caused considerable laughter among the audience.

The Gazette was then read by Miss Kresge. Her editorial on "Success" was very timely and her jokes were appreciated. The society then adjourned.

The Tower Window

THE URSINUS Woman's Club with remarkable constancy has kept up its interest and increased its usefulness from year to year. Other organizations affiliated with the College have their ups and downs, but not so with the Woman's Club. From the days of its beginning a dozen of years ago this organization has steadily increased in numbers and in helpfulness to the College. Today it is indispensable. It was believed in 1914, when the number of women graduates had reached one hundred, that they could serve their Alma Mater more effectively if they would form an organization of their own. It was not intended that its existence should detract in any way from the prestige or the strength of the general Alumni Association. Composed at first of graduates only it soon found that its sphere of activity could be extended to the advantage of the College if it were to include in its active membership other women to whom its objectives and associations should be congenial. On reconstituting the club along these lines under its present name it grew rapidly in numbers.

The Ursinus Woman's Club has at present a membership of approximately 400. Practically all the women members of each graduating class become members of the Club immediately and take an active interest in its work. Membership is extending beyond the alumni rank and the immediate community to surrounding towns and even to distant places. It may be that eventually local branches may be formed in these centers thus multiplying the membership more rapidly. Something like this happened in the case of a similar organization at Gettysburg College, which is an older club than ours with many good works to its credit.

Recently members of the Ursinus Woman's Club residing in Pottstown, under the leadership of Mrs. Mabel Hobson Fretz, '06, the present president of the club, gave a delightful musical entertainment which received the patronage of many of that town's most excellent people and as a result of which a handsome sum was added to the Club's current funds.

From the beginning, this Club has contributed toward the support of the Department of Physical Instruction and Public Speaking for women students, and for a number of years has provided the entire salary of the incumbent of this position. In addition a beginning has been made in the accumulation of an endowment fund. The financial obligations and personal service involved in membership do not fall heavily on any one and yet collectively enable the Club to carry on a large and important work.

Its members look forward with pleasant anticipations to the annual meeting and dinner at commencement. They will be heartily welcomed.

THE BROTHERHOOD OF ST. PAUL

The Brotherhood of St. Paul met in Schaff Hall on Thursday evening at eight o'clock. The meeting opened with devotional exercises in charge of Mr. Dillinger, '29.

During the business session Messrs. Barr, '29, and Bauman, '29, were welcomed into membership. More definite plans were laid for the banquet to be held on April 20.

The program was most interesting and enlightening. It consisted of a discussion on "Erasmus, the Scholar," by Mr. Pentz, '26; a very interesting survey of some of the latest books by Mr. String, '28, and a very excellent address on "The Church Calendar" by Dr. Clawson, in which were indicated the origins of the various Church holidays. Mr. Brenner submitted a very interesting report of the current literature. After a few remarks by Prof. Sawhill the meeting was adjourned.

GAFF FROM THE GRIZZLY

Many comments about clinging vines and sturdy oaks are broadcast on the campus. We presume they have reference to that strange spring-time malady noticed at this time of the year. We would suggest as a necessary precaution to those "Campus Shieks" who must take their daily strolls that they remedy their methods in piloting the co-eds over perfectly smooth side walks by putting their arms around their partners—This would cause an entwining rather than a clinging vine effect.

If singing classes for the student body are to be conducted at Ursinus we would suggest that a certain time be set aside each day for the purpose; that a regular professor of music be employed to act in that capacity and that credit be given for the course. Why waste perfectly good class room time by having to undergo voice culture in chapel? The fundamentals of voice culture should be taught in kindergarden and the grade schools and not in college. We'll admit we can't sing, but why rub it in?

Members of the E. B. & A. seem to have profited from courses in Economics and Finance. They've even mastered the mysteries of "Jewing up" an innocent book buyer to say nothing of reduplication policies. We feel our education has not been in vain. And at that ingenious imbibers of benign influence have discovered a new use for chapel hymn books. Maybe we could throw Bomberger in for a good price next time.

INTERCOLLEGIATE COMMENT

Frederick K. Detwiler, a graduate of Lafayette College in the class of 1904, has achieved great fame in the world of art. He was awarded, in his comparatively short career, the Shaw prize for etching, membership to the Salmagundi Club of New York and also membership to the Medal Society of Beaux Arts Architects. Detwiler pursued the study of art both in this country and abroad, studying at Columbia University and the Ecole des Beaux Arts, Paris. He has exhibited his works in many of the noted galleries of the world.

Students of Temple University were amused by the "Charleston Contest" staged by the members of the Freshman class under the direction of the Sophomores. The green dinked, white socked frosh, battling for the honor of being called "Champion Charlestoner" of Temple, drew forth many rounds of applause and many encores. The winner chosen by the loudness of applause received as a prize three hearty kisses from the famous paddle.

Notre Dame is said to have produced more college coaches than any other college in the country.

Herb McCracken, former University of Pittsburgh star and present football coach at Lafayette College, has been secured to conduct the course for football coaches at Penn State this summer.

The University of Florida has ordered a stop on the wholesale collection of cats by fraternity pledges in the process of initiation. This action is due to the numerous complaints that have come in from the different owners.

The Rev. Mr. Roy B. Chamberlain, Dartmouth Chapel Director, has expressed himself as feeling satisfied with the entirely new spirit which has come with the abolition of compulsory chapel, which was inaugurated at Dartmouth in the spring of 1924. In the opinion of Dr. Chamberlain, satisfactory religion and compulsion drives away the interest.

The musical ability of Muhlenberg College will be displayed on November 17 when the Glee Club will sing at the Sesqui-Centennial Exposition in Philadelphia. The Club will sing in connection with College Day at the Exposition and will participate with colleges from all over the United States in celebration of that day.

ALUMNI NOTES

Please send news about yourself and other alumni to the Alumni Editor. All news greatly appreciated.

'25—Howard T. Herber, who is a graduate student in Educational Administration at Columbia University, has recently participated in a survey of the Hammonton Public Schools, Hammonton, New Jersey. The survey was made under the direction of the Division of Field Studies, Department of Educational Research, of the Teachers' College. Lately, Mr. Herber addressed a meeting of a Parent-Teachers Association in Brooklyn on the subject, "Why a Junior High School."

Ex-'25—Mildred Hollenbach is completing her last period of training in the St. Luke's Hospital, 113th St. and Amsterdam Ave., New York City. In June Miss Hollenbach will be a registered nurse.

'16—On Monday evening, March 15, the members of the First Reformed Church, Philadelphia, tendered a reception to Reverend H. B. Kerschner in recognition of the fifth anniversary of his pastorate. The five years of Rev. Mr. Kerschner's pastorate at the First Church have been years of great activity. During this time the fine church was completed at the corner of 50th and Locust Streets. It is one of the best buildings in the entire denomination. Moreover the membership has been greatly increased, in fact, almost doubled.

'18—Rev. Walter H. Diehl, pastor of St. Paul's Church, Mahanoy City, Pa., confirmed 40, added 3 by letter and 13 by reprofession of faith, making a total of 56 new members.

'24—Dorothy Haelig spent the week end on the campus renewing friendships.

Linck-Corkhill

On Monday, March 29, C. Earl Linck, '24, was married to Miss Florence J. Corkhill, of Devon, Penna., in the Trinity Presbyterian Church of Berwyn, Penna. Eric Corkhill, ex-'24, a brother of the bride, was the best man and Henry Kauffman, '24, was one of the ushers. The Weekly extends best wishes for the happiness of the couple.

Y. M. C. A.

An informal gathering of the "Y. M." on Wednesday took the form of a discussion to plan for the work of the coming year. It was the first meeting under the new administration and President Kratz spoke of the aims and goals which would be striven for. A new department, the sick visitation committee, will be added to the organization. Deputation was also one of the things spoken of to be stressed. Teams will be formed; these will visit roundabout churches, conduct services, and do other forms of service. It was suggested that the fees for the year be added to the bills of the men instead of the method heretofore used for raising money. With such officers and plans, and with the co-operation of all the members, surely the "Y" will be most successful.

HARVARD STUDENTS MAKE REPORT

Cabridge, Mass.—(by New Student New Service)—Following the lead of Dartmouth, Bowdoin and other colleges the undergraduates of Harvard University have through their students council drawn up a report on education. The report calls the University too large and recommends that it be broken up into at least six smaller colleges, preferably of about 300 students each, and that the students of each be housed in dormitories by themselves.

Many New Books Added to Library

Finney, A Brief History of the American Public School
Grizzel, Origin and Development of the High School in New England
Gregory, Fundamentals of Intellectual Development
Fegely-Glendenning Memorial Class of 1915
Lodge, The Senate and the League of Nations
Grey, Sir, E., Twenty-five Years—1892-1916, 2 vols.
Cushing, The Life of Sir Wm. Osler, 2 vols.
Barrus, The Life and Letters of John Borroughs, 2 vols.
Channing, A History of the United States. Vol V
Gordon, My Education and Religion.
It will be seen at a glance what a variety of subjects and interests are covered by these volumes. It is a suggestion of what classes and individuals can do for the Library at small cost to them, but of great value to the College.

Faculty Announces Honor Students
He has not been so prominent in campus affairs because until his last year he was a day student. However, since he has been on the campus he has joined the Men's Glee Club and been elected vice-president of the Senior class. He is more inclined to keep to the books and deserves this honor as a reward for his application throughout the four years.

Men's Glee Club Renders Program

The high type of songs the club gives is verified by the Sesqui-Centennial Committee, which, in a poll of popular glee club numbers, accepted the Ursinus selections as submitted by Miss Hartenstine. With this in view, it is hoped that a large audience will greet the club on its final appearance before the student body in Bomberger Hall, May 14.
Manager Robert Henkels has secured important concert engagements for the remainder of the Ursinus Glee Club season. Following its appearance at St. Andrew's Church, Philadelphia, on April 15, concerts will be given at Ridley Park, April 22, Roxborough, April 23, Germantown High School, April 30, Schwenksville, May 4, Bomberger Hall, May 14, broadcasting from WIP, Gimbel Brothers, Philadelphia, May 18, and Allentown, May 21.
