WELCOME NEW STUDENTS

Annual Reception a Social Success.
Many Attend

The annual reception tendered to the new students by the Christian associations was held on Saturday evening in Bomberger auditorium. The primary purpose of this function is to get acquainted. Incidentally, it begins the social life of the year. Said one senior as she left Bomberger, "It is the best reception we have ever had." There is no doubt that she voiced the sentiments of all present.

As the guests arrived they were presented with tags bearing their names and home address, in addition to short descriptions or quotations concerning each one personally. Many a time cherished secret was given away in the "remarks" space, but the wearer of the card took it good naturedly, and tried not to blush.

Contrary to custom, a prepared program was presented. A large Ursinus seal greeted the audience upon the drawing of the curtains. After an aesthetic dance by Dorothy Haelig, Father Ursinus "came to life," as it were. This role was well portrayed by Mr. Walter Beattie. The fairy then introduced in turn the heads of the various college organizations. Miss Frutchey, president of the Y. W. C. A., welcomed the guests in the name of the association. Her hearty enthusiasm indicated a sincere determination to make 1922-23 the most successful one in the history of the local Y. W.

Mr. Howells, president of the men's organization, told of the plans of the Y. M. C. A. for the coming year. To make every student a Christian in thought and deed, and not in name only, is one of the aims of the association this year.

Then the faculty was introduced in a novel manner. Mr. Houck carried its spirit upon a tray and required every member to show himself in person.

The editors of the college publications were next presented. Mr. Siegfried Baden, editor of the 1923 Ruby, gave a description of the book, telling of the origin of its name, the nature of its contents, the date of its first publication, and of what the 1923 promises to be.

The editor-in-chief of the Weekly commented briefly upon that publication.

Athletics at Ursinus are of major interest to everyone. The captains of men's and women's sports appeared in their respective uniforms. Mr. E. K. Miller, pilot of the football team, Mr. Kulp, representing basketball, and Mr. Faye, captain of baseball, all looked forward to successful seasons. Misses Lawrence and Xander, captains of the hockey and basketball teams are likewise confident of hundred per cent seasons.

Schaff Literary Society was represented by Mr. Michael. He admirably enacted the death scene from "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde." Mr. Howells, president of Zwinglian Literary Society, rendered a vocal solo in costume. Mr. E. K. Miller, representing the Ursinus debating club, discussed debating both at the College and in the surrounding high schools.

Mr. Snyder and Miss Gross, presidents of the Men's and Women's Student Councils, respectively, expressed optimistic outlooks for the ensuing year. Several constructive plans were merely mentioned, but will be given a great deal of attention during the year.

In order that all might get acquainted, each guest was given the opportunity to shake hands with everyone else. The committees in charge made the evening complete with the refreshments served.

HELP US TO BEGIN THE "NEW YEAR" by meeting our builder's requisitions on time. You can do this by sending your committee at least a partial payment on your pledge. Funds are urgently needed. The plastering is almost completed, and the steel book stacks are now due.

A CHECK mailed to A. P. FRANTZ, Treasurer, 2147 South 20th Street, Philadelphia, by OCTOBER 3 will do more good now than later.

Co-operate!

URSINUS DEFEATS

WILLIAMSON, 15-0

Pre-season Game Featured by Fine Showing of Miller, Eckert and Faye

Two touchdowns and a safety, thrillingly executed by Coach Cornog's varsity eleven spelled defeat for the fast and aggressive Williamson team on Patterson Field, Saturday afternoon, giving Ursinus a 15-0 victory. It was a fitting beginning for a season which bears all the earmarks of being a huge success in every way. And the playing, altho ragged at times, proved without a doubt that Coach Cornog is possessed of an abundance of fine material, unexcelled for some years past.

With the opening whistle Faye kicked off for Ursinus to the Williamson twenty yard line. Williamson was unable to advance the ball and punted. Faye caught the punt, advancing to the fifty yard line. "Shorty" Miller executed a series of line plunges with considerable success. Gotshalk caught a long pass from Eckert which was good for twenty yards. With the ball almost in the shadow of the goal posts, Williamson held. But only for a moment, and Miller's mighty plunge took the pigskin across for the first tally of the game. Faye kicked the goal.

Late in the second quarter, after Williamson made futile efforts to advance and Ursinus had the ball, Eckert punted to the enemy's five yard line. A minute later Wismer pulled down a Williamson man for a safety, netting Ursinus two more points.

The third quarter was uneventful, both sides being unable to advance to the danger point. But in the fourth a beautiful forward pass, Eckert to Faye, and a stellar run of sixty yards added six more points to the home team score. Eckert failed to kick the goal, because of a poor pass, and the game ended Ursinus 15, Williamson 0.

Outstanding among the heroes of the day were Faye, Miller and Eckert, the latter showing marked ability in forward passing. Williamson's line was powerless against the terrific onslaught of captain Miller, who in spite of poor interference, gained yard after yard for his team. Faye, at quarter, played his usual brilliant game, catching four difficult passes when they were most needed.

For Williamson Captain Hastings and Finch, left end, played well. Much might be said of the cleverness of the visitors' shift, which puzzled the Ursinus players several times. Williamson played an excellent game against great handicaps, both in weight and experience.

President Board of Directors Delivers Opening Address

LARGEST ENROLLMENT IN HISTORY OF COLLEGE

Over two hundred and forty students have registered for the college year. With other late arrivals continually applying for registration it is expected that the full quota of two hundred and fifty students will be received. Already the student body is larger than ever before in the history of the College.

The full quota of one hundred girls has been registered. Late registrants among the men are necessarily being housed in private homes adjoining the campus. The men's dormitories are completely filled.

All the professors of last year continue on the faculty this year with no changes. In addition Mr. P. K. Edwards, a graduate of Harvard University School of Business Administration, has been called to head the new department in Economics and Business Administration in which three women and eight men have been enrolled.

The department of music has been greatly strengthened by the appointment of Miss Marion Spangler, '03, who will head the vocal department. Miss Spangler, since her retirement from the Ursinus faculty several years ago, has been engaged in private work in Philadelphia and Norristown.

The college physician, Dr. Ammon G. Kershner, '12, who was appointed by the directors at their spring meeting will begin his duties this week in his newly erected office adjoining the College post office.

Charles Klopp, '25, discontinued his work here last week when he left Collegeville to enter the Freshman class of Yale College.

Thelma Snape, '25, was one of Mrs. Ermold's assistants in August while the kitchen faculty was supplemented during most of the summer by W. H. K. and E. K. Miller, Mary "Kirk" and Emma Roeder.

We regret that Arthur Leeming, '23, has found it necessary, because of the illness of his father, to discontinue his studies for the present.

Buchanan, ex-'24, spent part of the week end on the campus. Yes, there was a reason other than just to say adieu to his former roommate. "Buck" intends to enroll at Ohio State on Tuesday.

MR. HARRY E. PAISLEY EXTENDS FORMAL WELCOME

Ursinus opened its doors to the incoming group of students on Tuesday morning. Immediately welcomes were tendered, and until late Wednesday afternoon the halls and campus hummed with the activity of registration and the business of settlement.

On Thursday evening a formal welcome was extended to both old and new students when the annual opening address was delivered.

Due to his recent illness President Omwake was unable to assume the burden of the address proper which was subsequently delivered by Harry E. Paisley, President of the Board of Directors.

Dr. Omwake presided and presented the speaker of the evening, after a few well-chosen words of welcome.

Mr. Paisley is well known by Ursinus students. His message was timely and was given in the characteristic forceful and earnest manner which makes his addresses so impressive.

He spoke of the high privilege accorded any who are permitted the benefit of a course in a school of higher education and urged that the privilege be prized and guarded as such.

The opportunities for directors, faculty and students in a small Christian college to be of service to others, are well-nigh limitless. Here, where the relationships are so close, the responsibility for leadership and influence is highly important.

The speaker closed with an appeal for determination expressed in a living hope that the best is yet to be. To illustrate this he told of two artists, one, who when asked, "Which is your masterpiece?" replied, "I shall never paint like that again." The other, in answer to the same question answered—"My next." It is this spirit of hopeful determination that should emanate from college men and women.

Mary Gross, '23, taught in the Paoli Daily Bible School last summer. She expects to use the experience there gained in application for honors in the Bible Department.

Among the "few" conductors who rang up all the fares collected at Asbury Park were Shaffer, '23, Ehlman, '23, and J. W. Bright, '22.

FOOTBALL SQUAD

IN FINE SHAPE

Considerable New Material Makes Outlook Favorable

"Ursinus College is to have one of the best football teams in the annals of the institution," writes the Norristown Times in a recent issue. Such is the prophecy of a prominent sports writer who has carefully looked over the material for the coming season. Not only does the press offer optimism, but it is to be found everywhere among those who have closely watched the development of athletics at Ursinus. The student body is filled with the highest hopes and the assurance that this year's aggregation will put up battles wherein will be consistently found science, play and power.

Anyone who has witnessed the preliminary drilling on Patterson Field is impressed with the performance of the squad. From the influx of the first candidate on September 11 until September 21, rigid and gruelling workouts have been held by Coach Cornog both in the morning and in the afternoon.

A strong nucleus of veterans has aided Coach Cornog in his work. Captain Miller was first to report. "Shorty" is back again after being put out of the game early last year and will probably occupy the fullback position. Among the first to be on hand was Kengle, last year's fullback. After a summer of athletic training, he has returned to the gridiron as a mountain of energy. Faye, another backfield veteran, has been on the gridiron since the initial work-out. Gotshalk is again in moleskins and promises to be mightier than ever. Wikoff, last year's center, is trying his skill at an end position. His fighting spirit, speed and weight render him a high light among the candidates for a wing position.

Rensch, a veteran at guard position, has changed his fancies to the pivot position, where his passing and charging make him loom brightly for final choice. Updike, a veteran guard, is back at his old position. His grit and determination warrant him to be placed foremost among the candidates for guard. Hunsicker, the old reliable tackle on last year's crew, is at his old berth like the Rock of Gibraltar. Last year's sub-general and halfback, Evans, is also in togs. Johnston, another veteran guard, has been showing his worth on the line in Herculean style. Williams, last year's wonder boy at tackle, is back after a summer of illness.

Among the new men who are bidding high for a varsity berth are to be found a galaxy of high school stars. Echert, a former star of Darby High School, has proved to be the find of the season. His punting and passing mark him as a high light among the candidates for a backfield position. Yaukey, a burly chap of 180 pounds, is contesting for the center position. Wismer, formerly a Penn State man, is picking his heels up high and fast to bid for a position on one of the wings. Sellers, a former Drexel player.

Editorial Comment

"I will study and prepare myself and perhaps some day my chance will come." The great American liberator has become known and honored thruout all the world because of the fulfillment of that resolution. His accomplishment was a worthy one in spite of the fact that there were to him few books available and that he had the opportunity of attending school for no longer than a year in all his life.

What an advance in the field of education since that day! A really new era has come upon the world since then. In America an education is now available to every individual who is desirous of securing one. Everywhere in a comparably short period, institutions have sprung up within reach of all the youth of the land. And the new spirit is not confined to the western world. With it as a home base representatives of its enlightened humanity have influenced other races to cast off the spirit of ignorance and superstition. All this in the past century.

Together with many other institutions of higher learning that have enjoyed a period of continued growth we think of our own Ursinus with just pride in her achievements. In the half century of her existence there have gone forth from her academic halls many leaders to wherever man is able to dwell until we can say, with a great deal of truth, that "the sun never sets upon the graduates of Ursinus."

It is a unique privilege that we have, to enjoy the advantages of the new and constantly growing Ursinus. This year our student body is larger than ever before in the history of the College; the faculty has been enlarged again and a new group of studies has been introduced. A new building is nearly completed and new athletic equipment almost ready for use. With these many assets we enter upon a new year of work. But let our growth be not only in the physical sense. There is ever a need for greater loyalty to the ideals fostered by the institution. Let that enthusiastic spirit with which we have begun the year remain with us thruout its course. Our opportunities are decidedly greater than were those of our fathers. All that presents a challenge to the greatest possible achievement.

It was our purpose to continue in the Weekly this year all the departments it embraced last year. However, due to the recent illness of President Omwake he has decided to discontinue "The Tower Window" for the present. We hope that, as soon as he is again able, we shall be privileged to present that column of great worth and inspiration from the pen of our president.

RETURNED MISSIONARY

SPEAKS OF CHINA

On Sunday morning Mr. Clarence E. Heffelfinger, '20, who just returned from a two years' stay in China, where he was located as instructor in English and science at the Eastview Boys School in Shenchowfu, Hunan, spoke to a large group of interested students in Bomberger Hall. He told of his trip across the Pacific, of the long journey up the Yangtse river by house boat and other small craft and of the hearty welcome tendered him by the Chinese students upon his arrival in Shenchowfu. With the deepest enthusiasm he described his work among the Chinese, telling of their receptiveness and great desire for Western culture. He spoke of the great need of the China Mission for more adequate equipment and for missionaries fitted with a sincere purpose and desire to carry on the work of Christ among the people of that interesting nation.

President Omwake Seriously Ill

President Omwake passed thru a serious illness during the summer. During the week after commencement he was stricken with bronchial pneumonia. This with other complications kept him confined to his room for six weeks. After he was able to be about he spent several weeks in the Cumberland valley, returning to Collegeville the last days in August. Although he has not yet fully regained his former capacity for strenuous work, he is now again attending to executive duties.

FACULTY NOTES

During the summer's vacation, just passed, the members of our faculty were occupied in various ways.

Due to the serious illness of Dr. Omwake his duties were assumed by Asst. President Mertz, until his partial recovery. Prof. Mertz was also engaged in canvassing for new students.

Dr. Jordan's time was divided between study and gardening at his home in Ardmore. He also enjoyed a short vacation at Nantucket.

The duties of librarian absorbed the greater part of Prof. Yost's time during summer school. Later in the season he was actively engaged in work at the Summer Assembly.

Miss Roe was a swimming counselor at a girl's summer camp in the Adirondacks.

Two worthy rivals for Isaac Walton's angler were discovered in Prof. Gawthrop and Coach Cornog. They took turns "diggin bait."

Prof. Edwards, new head of the Economics department, spent his summer in Washington collecting statistics for the Harvard College department of Economics and Business statistics.

Dr. Smith spent some time, after the close of summer school, in parts of New England.

Prof. Small, whose good fortune it was to spend six weeks in France in University work, arrived home last week. We expect to publish an account of his trip in a later issue.

Professors Baden, Clawson, Kline, Smith, Tower and Witmer constituted a part of the summer school faculty during July.

ZWINGLIAN LITERARY SOCIETY

Crowded to the doors and with an excellent program, the first meeting of Zwing for 1922-23 was held on Friday evening.

The program was miscellaneous in nature and a great success. The program was opened with an address by President Howells. If the sentiments expressed and the vim displayed are any indication of the society's spirit, Zwing is due for a most successful year.

Miss Groff's reading, a selection from "Penrod," was given in such a delightful style as to charm the audience. Mr. Neuroth gave a flute solo in a most admirable manner.

An oration, "Unionism vs Democracy," was delivered by Mr. Griffin. The timeliness of the subject and his familiarity with the material made it interesting as well as profitable. Miss Achenbach was the leader of a mixed quartet which rendered several much enjoyed selections. "Advice from an Ex-Freshman" was given by Mr. Williams. A number of Freshman rules, ironically given, were amusing.

Miss Weldon put on "Something New," a skit, which was very original. Miss Laurence read "The History of Zwinglian Literary Society," a well-prepared paper interesting to old and new students alike. A pleasing piano solo was rendered by Miss Hoover. Her encore was equally enjoyed.

Miss Isenberg gave the critic's report. The hall was crowded with both old members of Zwing and new students. Among the visitors was seen "Ty" Helffrich, '21, one-time captain of the Ursinus football eleven.

SCHAFF LITERARY SOCIETY

The opening night of Schaff was quite a drawing card for the new students as well as all the old members. With an excellent program and an appreciative audience, the meeting was all that could be expected and assurance was expressed that the new students were well repaid for the time spent there for the first time in their college career.

The opening address of welcome was given by President E. Karl Houck and was followed by a clever discussion of the meaning of Schaff, taken directly from its motto "Prudens Futuri," by Miss Gross. Mr. Fretz, ably assisted by Miss Xander, gave a very delightful operatic rendition which was followed by a comic dialogue, "Romeo and Juliet" by the Misses Detwiler and Haelig. Miss Sutcliffe presented a recitation "The Wreck," by Robert Service, which, with its wealth of pathos gave a leveling effect to the program. Mr. Reifsneider, in delivering an oration, held his audience spell-bound, while the Misses Mills and Trout, in rendering a piano duet, upheld his precedent. An original sketch by Mr. Brocco brought forth bursts of laughter while the Gazette presented by Mr. Michael in a novel way enjoyed equal prominence and brought the program to a fitting close. Incidentally, Schaff's new blue velvet curtains, with the gold S, showing to advantage the society's colors, were called into use on numerous occasions.

Three Alumni Sail for China

Three Ursinus alumni sailed for the foreign mission field this month. On September 7, Miss Ruth J. Craft, '19, sailed from Vancouver, B. C., on the Empress of Russia, to become a teacher in the True Light Middle School, Canton, China. One day previous Rev. Jesse B. Yaukey, '19, and Ethelbert B. Yost, '21, sailed from San Francisco on the Korea Maru for China. Yaukey will probably spend a year in the language school at Nankin. Yost will become a teacher of English in the Eastview Schools at Shenchowfu. This position was previously filled by Heffelfinger, '20. The best wishes of the College, its students, and their many friends follow them on their great adventure.

E. T. Undercuffler, '22, has entered upon his duties as Superintendent of the Alden, Kansas, schools.

Miss Tillie Maurer, '19, was married in July to Mr. Price Parker, of Minersville. They have taken up their residence in Minersville.

Haps From a Huddle

Once again we take up our multiple personality. Once again "we" will run rampant!

In the course of the peregrinations in which we indulged while on our way to Ursinus, it was our singular good fortune to visit Philadelphia. (As a certain young fellow with an Irish nickname would say. Eh, Mike?)

There we risked our lives in crossing and recrossing the crowded streets of our neighboring metropolis. And believe you us, we did risk them! There was one driver who swung around Penn Square, nonchalantly scratching his nose. We must give him credit for using only one hand for this operation and keeping the other on the steering wheel. How considerate of him—but then this is beside the point. The point is that two pedestrians jumped out of his way, barely escaping his wheels by six inches. Mr. Driver kept serenely on, scratching his nose with one hand and driving with the other.

All of which goes to prove that the streets of Philadelphia are not safe for Editors and also that the moon is made of imported Sweitzer Cheese.

Perhaps at this time it is appropriate to extend a hearty greeting to all our old friends and a glad welcome to all the new students. But since you can not know who we are, such a greeting is rather superfluous.

Apropos of this mystery, we announce a contest. To the first person who proves to us that we are we will be given a real cigarette. In case of feminine victory, the prize will be changed to a genuine powder puff, only used for two weeks.

We are a poet or two or three—we don't know which. To prove this we append one of our efforts—some of which is free (except that they charge the Weekly on your bill).

An Idyll of Laughter and Love in the Springtime

The stars gleamed,
 The moon beamed,
 There was darkness immense all around.
 The fragrant wood
 Where I stood
 Did with redolent odors abound.
 A lion roared,
 My soul soared,
 Who would not be stirred by the sound?
 My heart leaped,
 The blood seeped,
 My consciousness took a huge bound.

(This is free verse)

Who would not be
 Glad when they stood,
 As I did,
 In the wood
 In the springtime,
 With life in the air,
 And love all around.

But then I thought
 What am I?
 And my soul troubled
 Itself.
 What is my ego
 In this cosmos?
 or what is my cosmos
 In this ego?
 And then I thought—
 Oh heck,
 What's the use?

(Poetry again)
 For something banged,
 And I'll be hanged,
 If it wasn't like a can on a sword.
 What's the use?
 Why be a goose?
 'Twas my girl with a Ford.

So I jumped in
 The hunk of tin,
 And off the two of us sped.
 My problem forgot,
 Beside her I sat,
 With laughter and love ahead.

That ought to hold you for a week.

ALUMNI NOTES

The Rev. Dr. James M. S. Iserberg, '93, pastor of Trinity Reformed Church, Broad and Venango streets, Philadelphia, has accepted a call to the Central Reformed Church of Dayton, Ohio, said to be the largest church in the denomination.

The Rev. Hiram A. Frantz, Sem. '89, who for a year served as supply pastor of St. Michael's Church, in Tilden Township, accepted the call and was installed by the Rev. I. Calvin Fisher, D. D., '89, Lebanon, and the Rev. Henry J. Welker, '76, Myers-town.

Among the teachers appointed for schools in Gloucester, N. J., Ursinus recognizes these daughters and this son: Grace Chandler, '19 Naomi C. Detwiler, '20, and Albert R. Thompson, '10.

Miss Mary M. Wiest, '85, Freeburg, Pa., has been elected as one of the local officials of the League of Women Voters of Snyder County.

Mrs. Jessie Royer Greaves, '92, is conducting a school of exceptional blind children at Strafford, Pa.

On September 16, a daughter was born to Ensign and Mrs. Charles Will, of 549 Buttonwood Street, Norristown. Mrs. Will was formerly Miss Ann Willever, '18. Ensign Will was for three years a member of the class of 1918. At the breaking out of the war he went into the navy and never returned to college to complete his course.

On August 19, Walter F. Kern, '02, of Nazareth, Pa., coming to Collegeville to attend the Missionary Conference then in session, had the misfortune to run down and fatally injure a little girl, Josephine Moyer, who ran in front of his car. Mr. Kern was exonerated from all blame for the distressing happening. The people of the community, many of whom remembered Mr. Kern from college days, shared his feeling of regret and sorrow, and the entire community sympathized with the parents of the unfortunate child.

Mrs. Howard Tyson, '09, served on the September Grand Jury in Montgomery County.

The Rev. J. E. Mertz, '14, was installed as pastor of the First Reformed Church, Patterson, N. J., on Friday, June 2. He was formerly pastor of the Deerpark Reformed Church at Port Jervis, N. Y. He is a brother of Paul A. Mertz, '10, of the Ursinus faculty.

Ursinus was ably represented in Summer High School work by William R. Anson, '03; Elmer H. Carl, '11; Harvey B. Danehower, '08; Amos J. Heinly, '11; Harry W. Kochenderfer, '01; Rowland R. Umstead, '09; and Elmer B. Ziegler, '06.

Mr. Reginald Harding, '20, after spending the summer in England, expects to take up his work as a teacher in the Episcopal Academy, Philadelphia.

On June 25, the Rev. Walter E. Garrett, '99, celebrated his 20th anniversary in the work of the Gospel Ministry. His charge at present is in Hellam, Pa. Dr. Edward S. Bromer, '90, was one of the speakers.

On July 5 Miss Carolyn Klingler, '21, became the wife of Rev. A. Levan Zechman, '21. Dr. Umbenhen, pastor of the Trinity Lutheran Church in Pottsville, Pa., performed the ceremony. Rev. Zechman is now pastor of the Numidia Reformed Charge near Catawissa, Pa.

"Ty" Helffrich, '21, a student at the Yale Law School in New Haven, Conn., spent a short time at Ursinus after his return from a summer's trip to Germany. During the summer "Ty" accumulated another endless string of yarns.

"Mel" Rahn, '22, has accepted a position as instructor in English and Coach of Athletics in the Tom's River, N. J., High School.

Miss Marion Reifsneider, '17, a member of the Pottstown High School faculty, spent a several months' vacation in Portland, Oregon.

Miss Margaret Bookman, '22, instructor in the Kane, Pa., High School, spent the summer in the employ of the "Norristown Times."

Charles U. Shellenberger, '21, has accepted a position as Y. M. C. A. secretary in Denver, Colo.

Clarence E. Heffelfinger, '20, arrived in New York from Southampton, England, on September 11, after a return voyage from China which took him into India, Arabia, Egypt and France. He has no end of tales about China and other parts of the world he visited on the way home. While in America on furlough, Heffelfinger expects to study English and Science at Columbia University. His place is being taken at the school in Shenchowfu by Yost, '21.

Misao Nishiyama, '19, is a member of the teaching staff at the North Japan College in Sendai, Japan.

Dr. Ammon Kershner, the College Physician, has purchased the building at 516 Swede Street, Norristown, where, after alterations are completed, he will establish an office.

Wm. L. Fink, '15, principal of the Slatington High School, and Elmer K. Kilmer, '15, a teacher in the Collegiate School, New York City, were among the visitors at the College during the opening week.

Florence M. Detwiler, '14, of Trappe, Pa., was married to John B. Keyser, of Norristown, Pa., on August 30. The marriage service was performed by Rev. W. O. Fegely, of Augustus Lutheran Church. Among the Ursinus people present were Howard B. Keyser, '10, Percy W. Mathieu, '13, Harry W. Mathieu, '13. Mr. and Mrs. Keyser will reside in Norristown.

Miss Anna Grim, '20, was married to Bertram M. Light, also of the class of '20, during the month of August. The ceremony took place at the bride's home in Perkasio. Mr. and Mrs. Light will reside in Sunbury.

Y. W. C. A. House Party

The Y. W. House Party of the '23 Cabinet opened Saturday afternoon with a hike and picnic supper at Lost Lake. Here at dusk about the camp fire impressive vesper services were held with the president in charge. Mrs. Gawthrop, who was the guest, gave the girls a both helpful and delightful talk. In the meetings Sunday afternoon and Monday morning each chairlady discussed her plans for the coming year and the ways and means to attain the best possible results. The Cabinet was glad to have at its meeting Sunday afternoon Mrs. Omwake and Mrs. Gawthrop.

The members of the Y. W. Cabinet are: President, Margaret Frutche; vice president, Edna Detwiler; treasurer, Verna Kurtz; secretary, Beatrice Shafer, religious meetings, Mary Gross, missions, Helen Achenbach; Bible, Helen Groninger; social service, Millicent Xander; life service, Grace Trout, social, Lillian Iserberg; publicity, Irene Jones; undergraduate representative, Sarah Hinkle.

Student Council Doings

At a joint meeting of the Councils, it was decided to hold the first dance of the year on Saturday, September the 30th.

The men's Council passed an action on Friday whereby all male students ranking scholastically as Freshmen shall necessarily be ranked as Freshmen in a social sense. That is, they shall be subject to all rules governing the social life of the first year men. A mass meeting was held last week, when the constitution was read by Secretary Linck and explained by President Snyder.

Girls' Student Council Party.

On Monday, September 18, the members of the Executive Board of the Girls' Student Council gathered at Ursinus in answer to the call of their president for a happy, peppy and constructive party.

During the summer months a Round Robin letter had been circulated and no one could ever find a letter that was as interesting or as full of suggestions for the future of the G. S. C. at Ursinus. The Round Robin along with many other suggestions were thoroly discussed.

TO THE READERS OF

THE URSINUS WEEKLY:

The Valley Forge Historical Society is bringing to Valley Forge the United States Marine Band, undoubtedly the greatest military band of the world. Its leader, Capt. William H. Sandleman, has won many honors, the latest being the degree of Doctor of Music from George Washington University. Among the famous soloists of the band are A. S. Whitcomb, cornet; E. Rada, clarinet; C. Lindsay, flute; Augustus Pfeiffer, saxophone; Robert E. Clark, trombone; E. A. Hazes, euphonium; Taylor Branson and H. C. Stephen, violinists; Fritz Mueller and Gerold Schon, cellists. The other fifty members are artists, second only to the soloists just named.

The United States Marine Band has participated in the inauguration of every President of the United States since Thomas Jefferson. Its history is closely associated with that of our nation. On Saturday, September 30, we plan to establish a new national relationship of this famous band with Valley Forge. We hope to inaugurate an annual pilgrimage of this historic organization to Valley Forge. We believe that our fellow citizens will help us to accomplish this great purpose by their generous co-operation. "The President's Own" comes for the first time to Valley Forge. Let us make that event memorable by our enthusiastic reception of these famous American musicians.

The United States Marine Band comes to Valley Forge to help the Valley Forge Historical Society achieve its great plans for the Nation. The Valley Forge Museum of American History has already won worldwide renown. It will take a great step forward on Saturday the 30th when at 2 o'clock there will be dedicated the only log cabin built by American troops in the World War. It was erected at Camp Meade by the officers of the famous 314th Regiment. The government has turned it over to them for removal to Valley Forge. The logs, and even the stones of the fireplace were brought here. It will be dedicated to the sacred memory of the members of the Regiment who gave their lives for civilization. Eventually it will be enshrined in America's greatest Victory Hall, which the American people will erect on the hills of Valley Forge. The Marine Band will take part in the dedication, and then begin its service to the Nation at Valley Forge.

The two concerts by the Marine Band will be given to increase the Building Fund of the Valley Forge Museum. Every true American will be eager to co-operate with the Band in this patriotic endeavor. Remember that every dollar counts. Therefore if you can afford it, do not take dollar seats, but those which cost two dollars and a half. The money is not for seats, it is for America.

We are to honor both the Army and Navy of the United States on Saturday the thirtieth. We have therefore named the day Army and Navy Day. We ask all who come to celebrate the day with us on these hills and patriotism to wear the colors and to display Old Glory upon every vehicle.

Especially let us remember "No spot on earth—not the plains of Marathon, nor the passes of Sembach, nor the place of the Bastille, nor the dykes of Holland, nor the moors of England—is so sacred in the history of the struggle for human liberty as Valley Forge."

Faithfully yours,

W. HERBERT BURK,
President of Valley Forge Historical Society.

Some preachers also strive to be carpenters. Both Beattie and Howells, '23, passed a profitable summer at that trade.

Summer School was the big attraction for some such as Saunders, '22, Erma Boyd, '23, and Steim, ex-'25.

Ethel Fox, '23, fell a victim to the "get-rich-quick" jar cap proposition inaugurated here in the spring.

Frank Sheeder, '22, was a student in the Summer School at the U. of P. Others enrolled in courses were Miss J. Xander, '21, and Altenderfer, '22. The latter will enroll in the graduate school next week.

FRESHMEN EASILY

WIN TUG-OF-WAR

Heavy Team Victorious in First Inter-Class Struggle

The red caps and black ties of the class of '26 had scarcely made their appearance when the first clash with '25 for inter-class honors, came on Thursday morning after chapel.

The Sophs were decidedly lacking in preparation for the contest. Fate, too, seemed to be against them when they were faced by a team outweighing them nearly forty pounds to the man. The first pull was almost a tie but the Frosh won by a small margin. With the second pull there came a greater determination and enthusiasm upon the first year men, enabling them to drag their opponents well toward their end of the field.

While the Frosh and Juniors exulted in this first victory of the year all the Sophs decided to retaliate when the opportunity next presents itself. The result of the contest and the enthusiasm aroused indicate a series of inter-class struggles of unusual interest this year.

er, has cast his lot for an end position. Molitor, a lanky lad from New Jersey, has shown his worth in a commendable way for guard position. Buchanan from Sharon Hill and Moyer from Sunbury are battling for a position among the forwards. Both look very promising and good things can be expected from them. A tower of strength can be found in the husky boy, Dean Canan, brother of Joe Canan, last year's baseball captain. The last few days of practice have found a new man, Wood, tearing and ripping things at guard position in whirlwind fashion. Sterner, a Collegeville lad, has been doing noteworthy work among the candidates for the end positions.

The schedule this year is one which will require the Red and Black aggregation to use all its tactics and play in each fray.

The schedule:

Sept. 30 Columbia at New York.
Oct. 7, Swarthmore at Swarthmore.
Oct. 14, Delaware at Newark.
Oct. 21, Juniata at Huntingdon, Pa.
Oct. 28, Dickinson at Carlisle.
Nov. 4, Albright at Reading.
Nov. 11, P. M. C. at Collegeville.
Nov. 18, F. and M. at Collegeville.
Nov. 30, Muhlenberg at Allentown.

WORK ON MEMORIAL

LIBRARY PROGRESSING

Many Minor Improvements Made to College Equipment

Work on the interior of the Memorial Library was recommenced during August after a short period of inactivity on account of lack of funds. In the large reading room progress is especially noticeable. The steel book stacks are expected within thirty days and it is planned to have the clock which was presented by the class of '21 placed during the same time.

During the early part of the summer the grand stand and the exterior of both the Field House and Field Cage were painted.

In August work on the athletic field in preparation for track was recommenced. The straightaway will probably be completed in a short time, and deliveries of stone for the foundation of the track will begin this week.

The new heating plant in the field house provides both heat and hot water. The lockers have been overhauled and refurnished. The equipment for athletics is in better shape than ever before. A new and more commodious stack room for the athletic goods fitted with the necessary facilities has been provided.

The electric pump which was installed last spring has proved very successful. The entire water supply of the College during Summer Session and Summer Assembly was provided from the old well.

An electrical refrigerating machine has been added to the equipment of the College kitchen. The capacity of the machine is one hundred and fifty pounds daily. It has been found most satisfactory and vastly superior to the former system.

Among other improvements the floors in the men's dormitories have been refinished and a temporary structure adjoining the post office has been reared to provide accommodations for the office of the College Physician, who will enter upon his duties this week.
