First Flight: New Student Week

New students arrived on Otterbein's campus to spend August 21 - 25, 2013, getting to know each other and the university before classes began on August 26. After check-in, students went to a convocation and heard Justin Laipply speak. The 2013 orientation leaders helped with orientation days and First Flight.

Mr. Otterbein

Held on November 14, 2013, Mr. Otterbein was sponsored by the Campus Activities Board and nearly 200 students were in attendance. Male students were able to showcase their talents in front of a panel of six judges in competition for a cash prize and bragging rights. The nine contestants of various class standings held introductions, questions and answer segments, and displayed their formal wear, talents and Otterbein spirit. Andy Hufford took the crown of Mr. Otterbein 2013 with his trumpet solo. "He's charming, he's witty, he's kind, he is Mr. Otterbein."

One Billion Rising

One Billion Rising (OBR/RISE) is a worldwide movement that raises awareness about violence against women and girls. Otterbein has been involved in the movement for the past two years, creating and hosting events that draw various student audiences, and encouraging them to discuss issues such as rape culture, consent and feminism. This year, Tri-Iota, Otterbein's WGSS honorary society, hosted OBR.

From February 10-14, Otterbein hosted organizations such as Project Unbreakable, Purple Lotus Project and BRAVO in order to engage students in a myriad of conversations that all circle back around to talking about violence, domestic and otherwise. Otterbein students rose and danced together with the rest of the globe, in a culmination of the world's determination to eliminate gender violence in society.

Feminist Pride Day

Tri-Iota: WQSS Honorary

Iota Iota Iota, or Tri-Iota, is the honorary society for the women's, gender and sexuality program at Otterbein. New member induction was held on Sunday, November 3, in the Chapel. President Kathy Krendl spoke, and new and current members had the opportunity to share quotes that were inspiring to them in order to pass on encouragement to others, and kick off the rejuvenated Tri-Iota chapter in a positive way. There were 12 new inductees.

NET Event

The Otterbein Women's Leadership Network (the NET) hosted Karen Hough, CEO and founder of ImprovEdge LLC, on April 22. Hosted on the third floor of The Old Bag of Nails Pub, Hough presented to the audience various ways to improve leadership skills through improv secrets. The presentation was full of laughs and activity, as Hough had the audience up and moving more than once.

Convocations & Special Guests

This year marked the 50th Anniversary of the March on Washington. The Martin Luther King Jr. Convocation, originally planned to be held on Tuesday, January 28, was delayed until February 11 due to extreme winter temperatures and canceled classes. The Humble Dance Ministry and Otterbein Gospel Choir performed at the convocation (above). William Nicholson-Burley, was the Master of Ceremony (top left). Arrianna Allen spoke about Rosa Parks (middle left).

Michael Huston '86 made a visit to Otterbein to discuss his position at the Lubrizol Coporation. He mentors young scientists at the corporation, which had its first Otterbein intern in summer 2014. Huston majored in chemistry at Otterbein and his son, Peter, is majoring in mathematics as the fourth generation of Hustons to attend Otterbein (left). Huston with Dean Johnston, professor and chair of chemistry at Otterbein (above).

Conor Grennan, author of Otterbein University's 2013 Common Book, "Little Princes: One Man's Promise to Bring Home the Lost Children of Nepal", visited campus on Oct. 1-3 to discuss his book. The Common Book Convocation was held on Oct. 1 with a book signing directly after the Convocation. This was the 19th year for Otterbein's Common Book program, which is supported by The Thomas Academic Excellence Series.

Otterbein welcomed novelist Sir Salman Rushdie to campus on April 10-11, 2014, as the Vernon L. Pack Distinguished Lecturer. At the lecture, "Public Events, Private Lives: Literature and Politics in the Modern World" on April 10, approximately 1,000 people heard Sir Salman Rushdie's inspiring, and often humorous, message. A book signing followed the lecture and Rushdie visited classes on April 11, answering student questions on such topics as literature, politics and religion. Otterbein thanks Vernon L. Pack '50 for funding the opportunity to bring Mr. Rushdie to the community.

Tree Lighting & Holiday Feast

The annual Christmas Tree Lighting and Holiday Feast was on Friday, Dec. 6, at 5:30 p.m. Otterbein President Kathy Krendl illuminated the official Otterbein University Christmas Tree on Towers Hall lawn. The tradition of a Christmas tree lighting ceremony began at Otterbein in 1961.

Following the tree lighting, a feast was held in the Campus Center for students and the Otterbein community. There was also a canned food drive that benefited Westerville Area Resource Ministry (WARM).

OtterThon

Students, faculty and members of the Otterbein community were on their feet for seven hours dancing from 6 p.m. to 1 a.m. on March 28. There were dance classes, games and personal family stories while the dancing took place in the Clements Recreational Center. The OtterThon benefits Nationwide Children's Hospital in Columbus. "Our cause is real, local and inspiring—it's 'For the Kids.'"

Peer to Peer Internship Fair

For the first year, the Center for Career and Professional Development recognized Otterbein student interns and gave them the opportunity to share their experiences with their peers at the fair. Twenty-seven students, representing 17 different majors and 32 different employers/organizations hosted tables at the event.

Cardinal Colloquium

The third annual Cardinal Colloquium is a multi-disciplinary celebration of the exciting research and creative achievements of graduate and undergraduate students. The event features student work in a range of disciplines and departments. Students presented their work in a variety of formats, including performances, poster sessions, exhibits and panel presentations. It took place April 24-25.

Renovations

Courtright Memorial Library

Summer 2013 included a revamp of Otterbein's library with new tables, chairs and more computers.

Track & Turf Project

In May 2014, the track and turf project began at Memorial Stadium for Ballenger Field and the McVay Track. The fundraising reached almost $2 million at the start of demolition. The project was anticipated to be finished by fall 2014 in time for the start of classes and fall sports season. A pep rally and groundbreaking ceremony was held on May 16.

Commuter Lounge

In spring 2014, the commuter lounge was revamped to give students who commute to Otterbein a welcoming place to hang out.

Les Miserables

October 3-6 & 9-12, 2013

A New Production of Boublil and Schönberg's Les Misérables is based on the 19th-century French novel by Victor Hugo. "The world's longest running musical," follows the ex-convict Jean Valjean in his journey of redemption. This was the first university-produced performance in Ohio of the full score of the 1987 Tony Award-winner for Best Musical.

Cast and ensemble: Jordan Donica, Hayden Clifton, John Henry Carter, Marina Pires, Sam Parker, Jeff Gise, Kyle Alexander Hansen, Sophia Caraline Ribar, Alex Huffman, Corinne Munsch, Georgia Curtis, Jared Howelton, James Sanders, Kevin Thiel, Anthony Murphy, James Scully, Anthony Cason, Tommy Betz, Jordan Abbruzzese, Monica Brown, Courtney Dahl, Natalie Girard Nicole Gonthier, Haley Jones, Casey O'Connor, Alison Schiller, Melanie Sierra, Mason Smajstrla, Sydney Smith, Madison Tinder, Erin Ulman, Kayla Walsh.

Speed-the-Plow

Oct. 31-Nov. 2 & Nov. 8-9, 2013

David Mamet's 1988 drama Speed-the-Plow takes the audience to Hollywood. This play follows Charlie Fox as he tries to navigate and negotiate through risky gambles, movie stars, and a very persuasive temp. This morality play makes you think about the perils of success, and what you would do to take part in "life's contest" and make it to the Big Time.

Cast: Sean Murphy, Sam Ray, and Tori Hidalgo.

The Importance of Being Earnest

March 6-9, 13-15, 2014

Cucumber sandwiches and petticoats set the environment for this classic British farce on the aristocracy, which has become a standard of the English and American theatres, having most recently been revived on Broadway in 2011.

Though set at the turn of the 20th century, this comedy has stood the test of time thanks to Oscar Wilde's sharp commentary on upper-class society.

Cast: James Sanders, Jordan Donica, Kyle Hansen, Evan Moore-Call, Peter Moses, Melanie Sierra, Madison Tinder, Haley Jones, Afton Welch.

The Full Monty

April 24-27, May 1-3, 2014

Based on the 1997 film, The Full Monty follows a gang of out-of-work steel mill workers in Buffalo, NY, who decide to provide some "special" entertainment for their wives and the community to make some cash. These men strip for cash, even without rock-hard abs or chiseled jawlines. These lovable characters prepare for their big performance while working through their issues of stage fright, poor self-image, and anxiety and finding strength in their friendship and families.

Communication

The staff at WOB 97.5 completely re-vamped the station with new music and programming, more sponsors, and effective station promotion. Radio executive Emily Boldon '94 came to speak with students in the communication department on Sept. 19 (pictured left with students). WOB also hosted a Halloween party for students. David Kinder, Grace Lenahan, Danny Lebsock, Josh Overholser, Jon Bozeka (above left). Dustin Runyon, Jennifer Hall and Emmy Wells dancing (above right).

The local and regional chapters of the Society of Professional Journalists honored the students' work in seeking campus police records with awards for Anna Schiffbauer and the staffs of Otterbein360.com and the T&C. The Central Ohio Chapter of SPJ presented the staff of the website and newspaper/magazine with its First Amendment Award in April 2014. The board of Region 4 of SPJ, which encompasses Michigan, Ohio, Western Pennsylvania and West Virginia, similarly recognized Schiffbauer and the staff of Otterbein360.com with the 2014 Dick Goehler First Amendment Award. Both awards frequently recognize professional newsrooms' efforts to advance public service journalism. The staff was also recognized by the Ohio Newspaper Association for excellence in editorial writing and news coverage. The weekly Tan & Cardinal newspaper transformed into T&C Magazine published twice a semester.

Editor's Note

Danielle Lanning '14
Editor-in-chief

Time is a strange thing. It usually goes by too fast when you're not paying close enough attention. Such as my senior year being over already. And maybe the ending of my entire time at Otterbein, but I don't think that ever really ends.

In today's world, we have blogs, Facebook, Instagram and places to easily share digital photos and content. So why would anyone want or care about a printed yearbook?

Well anyone who values memories should care. Who knows if you will still have access to a friend's photos online in ten years? Or if you will even remember their name?

This yearbook works to capture the year and freeze-frame moments with photos and words. It serves as an important way to preserve our Cardinal memories and history at Otterbein. The value of this yearbook will increase every year in some way. If not by monetary cost, then by sentimental value.

Not only did Kim and I document life at Otterbein, but I believe the process of creating the book helped document our own time here. We were able to include pieces of our year with photographs to remember later.

We learned a lot about what campus life at Otterbein is like for everyone, not just ourselves, and got to know the names and faces of people we might've only met once.

This is the second yearbook Kim and I have worked together to complete since re-establishing the hard copy last year after it went to a digital-only format. Two people creating a 100-page yearbook would not be possible without the help of the people listed below, professors, fellow students and anyone else we may have forgotten. They provided us with photos, information and encouragement. Special thanks to the Office of Alumni Relations for making this a possibility in the first place.

I hope these pages remind you of why Otterbein is a place to belong.

-Danielle
