RE: COPYRIGHT PERMISSION

Dear Mr. Magier:

The American Society for Engineering Management hereby grants permission to use material from the Proceedings of the American Society for Engineering Management (ASEM) International Annual Conferences as listed with each paper below.

Ralls, J. W., Pinto, C. A., Bowling, S. R., Unal, R., & Daniels, C. B. (2014). A heuristic for the analysis of truncated standard normal distribution assemblies. 2014 International Annual Conference of the American Society for Engineering Management - Entrepreneurship Engineering: Harnessing Innovation, ASEM 2014, 15-18 October 2014, Virginia Beach, VA.

Plumb, M. C., Pinto, C. A., Landaeta, R., Unal, R., & Murphy, T. (2012). Project-risk management and decision analysis in maritime maintenance and repair. Annual International Conference of the American Society for Engineering Management 2012, ASEM 2012 - Agile Management: Embracing Change and Uncertainty in Engineering Management, 15-18 October 2014, Virginia Beach, Virginia.

Pinto, C. A., Tolk, A., & Landaeta, R. (2010). Goal approach to risk scenario identification in systems development. 31st Annual National Conference of the American Society for Engineering Management 2010, ASEM 2010, 13-16 October 2010, Fayetteville, Arkansas.

Pinto, C. A., & Talley, W. K. (2005). Modeling of commercial maritime port recoverability from security disruptions: Work-in-progress. 26th Annual National Conference of the American Society for Engineering Management 2005 - Organizational Transformation: Opportunities and Challenges, ASEM 2005, October 26-29, 2005, Virginia Beach, Virginia.

Pinto, C. A., McShane, M. K., & Kady, R. (2010). Risk and system-of-systems: Toward a unified concept. 31st Annual National Conference of the American Society for Engineering Management 2010, ASEM 2010,

Pinto, C. A. (2005). Management of extremes in the configuration of interoffice telephone switch & priority systems. 26th Annual National Conference of the American Society for Engineering Management 2005 - Organizational Transformation: Opportunities and Challenges, ASEM 2005, 26-29 October 2005, Virginia Beach, VA.
