

ERRATUM

In the article “Generality of vertebrate development patterns: evidence for a dermomyotome in fish” by S. H. Devoto, W. Stoiber, C. L. Hammond, P. Steinbacher, J. R. Haslett, M. J. F. Barresi, S. E. Patterson, E. G. Adiarte, and S. M. Hughes, that appeared in the January/February 2006 issue of Evolution & Development on pages 101–110, the article incorrectly indicated that M. J. F. Barresi contributed equally to the work. S. H. Devoto, W. Stoiber, and C. L. Hammond contributed equally.
