Eastport. Sept. 15th. 1864.

To His Excellency,

Samuel Cony

Governor of the State of Maine

Sir;

I would respectfully recommend to your notice for promotion to a "Majority" in the 1st Maine Heavy Artillery, Capt. W. S. Clark, Co. E. of the same Regt.;

I have been intimately associated with Capt. Clark since the organization of the Regt. & know him only as a zealous, faithful, brave & efficient officer.

During our active Campaign these qualities were especially prominent;

I have every reason to believe that he was thus held in the estimation of our late lamented Col. and is well his intention to recommend him for the first vacancy.

Trusting your Excellency may be able to give to so worthy an officer the appointment required to

I remain Sir

Very Respectfully
Your Obedient Servant
George W Sabine
Major 1st Medy Arty
