Pt. Town Bounty by Co B, 1st Maine Heavy Artillery

and

Office 33 School St, Boston,

August 26th, 1865.

To the Adjutant General,
Augusta, Maine.
General,

Charles Stade, a Private in Co B, 1st Maine Heavy Artillery Vols, enrolled Dec 14/63, & discharged June 14/65, thinks that there is some bounty due him from the State of Maine. At his request I wish to ascertain whether such is the case, & I will be obliged if you will forward this to the proper State official who will give the information.

I would also feel obliged if you could send me some information as to the bounty given by Maine in the war, if any circular has been published.

Very respectfully yours,

James Schouler, A.M.

General

Charles Johnson
General in C. S. Army
I am sorry to hear of your illness and hope you will be able to return to your duties soon.
I am, Sir, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
James Schuler

I would also feel obliged if you
the bounty paid by Maine in the war if any circulation has been published.
Very respectfully,
James Schuler, M.D.
