State of Maine

By the Governor of the State of Maine

A Proclamation.

Seeing the present posture of the question relating to the Northeastern boundary of this State and the matters connected therewith to form one of those "extraordinary occasions" contemplated in the constitution for convening the Legislature, I do, by these presents, appoint Wednesday, the eighteenth day of May next, for their meeting at the State House in Augusta; hereby requiring the respective Senators and Representatives then and there to assemble in Legislature, in order to receive such communication as may then be made to them, and to consult and determine on such measures as they may consider will best promote the welfare of the State and Nation.
