Integration

"The LMS won't disappear, but it will probably evolve into more of a hub of resources, and that's something that universities are going to continue to want."

Question: How do I add non-Friends to this group? I wouldn't want to be Friends with my students, but would want to communicate with them via this Facebook group - how is that done?

Ian Hiatt Toss the link for the group at them. If it's a public group, they can join. If not -someone- in the group has to be a friend to invite them.

Ian Hiatt You have it set to Private, so -someone- has to be a friend to add them.
