NOTE

In early September of last semester, I was asked by Dr. William Downs, Director of Public Relations, to write the music for the centennial documentary, "Ouachita at 100." The filming of this project was well underway and it was my responsibility to compose theme music for various spots on the film. Triumph and Slow Triumph are two of the compositions which resulted from that project.

I wish to thank Dr. Downs for this opportunity to expose my creative abilities. I would also like to thank him for allowing me free reign over the music. His patience and understanding contributed as much to the success of this project as did the music itself.

I would also like to express my thanks to Mr. Marvin Lawson and Mr. Craig Hamilton. Without the support of these two men, nothing I had done this year would have been worthwhile. I thank them for believing in me and believing in the things I could do for the band as well as for the music department.

Lastly, I would like to express my gratitude to the men who make up the OBU combo. Without the talents of these people, there would be no music at all. I thank them for their talents as well as their friendship.

This is probably the last time this group will perform together. Making music with friends, is something I take very seriously. It's like having another family and when that family separates it is very emotional. However, I never leave a musical family without learning something from the experience. The things that I have learned from this group I will never forget. Thank you very much.
