

Change and Resistance

DR. NORFLEET (1977-84)

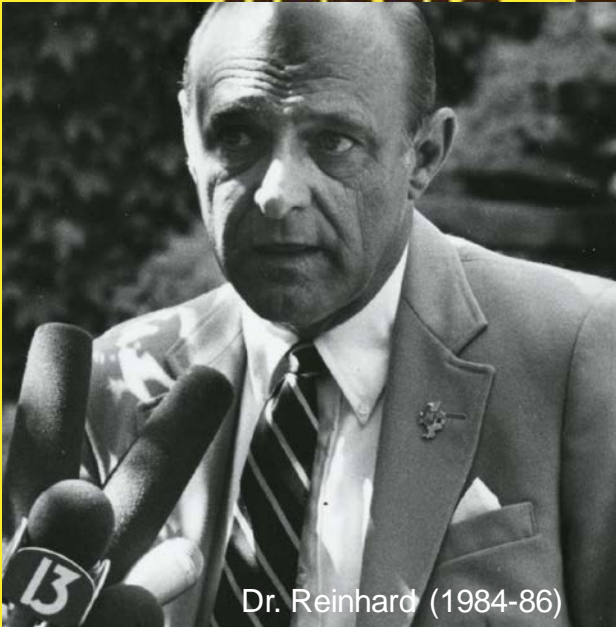

MSU under President Norfleet saw the construction of athletic, living, and learning centers.

President Reinhard would expand on these projects for the betterment of student life on campus.

Dr. Reinhard (1984-86)

Reinhard's cutbacks were drastic. 3 Deans were cut, and 6 schools were converted into 2 colleges and 1 school.

Reinhard's unpopularity with MSU Administrators led to his contract lapsing. This event led to students protesting across campus.

"...eliminate about $206,000 in the budget. In the past, MSU's administration resembled that of a state government" - Dr. Reinhard
