Dear Mother I have
a chance to send to the office this evening, will write this card in haste, but in the midst of harvest - James is helping, all well, I hope you are better, hope the
Dr. did you good, had a good shower of rain
last night, lots of weeds
in our wheat and oats even doing well, have a good garden, have plenty of potatoes, pees
and beets and some beans and cucumbers to see,
I am making currant-
jelly, have some little children boys and all
take good care of yourself,
yours, J. S. Perkins,
