

17th International Conference of the International Network of Sport and Health Science

27th to 29th of May 2021

Organised by INSHS and
Peter the Great St. Petersburg Polytechnic University (SPbPU)
Department of Physical Education and Sport Science

INVITATION

The event is being organised as an ONLINE event with a two-part programme:

The Convention

All partners who have been involved with INSHS should attend the Convention to consider the business of INSHS, receive reports from the Board and discuss future-plans.

The International Conference

This is a two-day sport and health scientific conference highlighting current research, research projects and contemporary issues with oral presentations, and e-posters. DEADLINE for Abstracts is 1st April 2021.

We look forward to welcoming you to Russia ONLINE in May!
