WHEREAS, the State of Maine is known as Vacationland and many visitors and citizens alike enjoy within its borders the great sport of salt-water fishing; and

WHEREAS, the sport of salt-water fishing in Maine has a great potential for growth which will enhance both the development of boating and the use of salt water fish as a source of food value;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, John H. Reed, Governor of the State of Maine, do hereby proclaim the month of August, 1963, as in the State of Maine and urge our recreational interests throughout the State to plan special events stressing the importance of the sport and a need for conservation along our coastal areas.

SALT WATER SPORT FISHING MONTH

Given at the office of the Governor at Augusta and sealed with the Great Seal of the State of Maine, this Eighth day of August, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Sixty-three, and of the Independence of the United States of America, the One Hundred and Eighty-eighth.
