State of Maine

WHEREAS, the Maine Graphic Arts Association is a non-profit corporation of printers, designers, graphic arts students, and suppliers involved with the advancement of the graphic arts industry in the State of Maine; and

WHEREAS, Maine people are grateful for the educational efforts and economic development the graphic arts industry has displayed; and

WHEREAS, the spirit of volunteerism, service, and professional commitment is no more self-evident than in the dedicated work of all M.G.A.A. members,

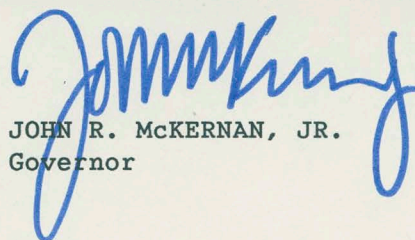

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JOHN R. MCKERNAN, JR., Governor of the State of Maine, do hereby proclaim October 16, 1992 as throughout the State of Maine, to recognize and acknowledge excellence in printing produced by companies and schools which promote a sense of pride in the workmanship involved in the production of printed materials.

In testimony whereof, I have caused the Great Seal of the State to be hereunto affixed GIVEN under my hand at Augusta this eleventh day of September in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred and Ninety-Two.

JOHN R. MCKERNAN, JR.
Governor
