State of Maine

WHEREAS, the Women's Conference of the National Safety Council represents some 50 members at large and 61 national and international women's organizations with an outreach to 55 million women; and

WHEREAS, the Women's Conference has recognized the need for, and initiated, a National Crusade to have Safety on the Streets (S.O.S.); and

WHEREAS, the Safety on the Street Crusade represents an action-oriented program for volunteers nationwide, who marshal the human resources of their communities and public service, civic, fraternal and law enforcement agencies to have safe neighborhoods; and

WHEREAS, program aspects of S.O.S. include automobile, bicycle, pedestrian, personal and school safety, with public support being urged for alcohol and drug counter-measures and national highway safety standards;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, James B. Longley, do hereby proclaim the last week of October as

"SAFETY ON THE STREETS WEEK"

in recognition of the outstanding contribution to this State and to other communities and States throughout the nation of volunteer womanpower, united to have Safety on the Streets.

Given at the office of the Governor at Augusta, and sealed with the Great Seal of the State of Maine, this Twenty-ninth day of September, in the Year of Our Lord, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Seventy-five, and of the Independence of the United States of America, the Two Hundredth.
