Harvey: Mary Quite Contrary
Mary Quite Contrary

Mary's passion,
contrary to
the popular old poem,
was not a garden, it was a Harley-Davidson's
hard saddle
under her ass.

Sitting astride it,
riding, riding
nowhere and the only garden's silver bells and cockleshells were tattooed on her arms.

Mother Goose, you should tell it so, hard and true to the times and leave the prissy miss where you found her.
