

This session will review citing and generating attribution statements for openly licensed works. The difference between citation and attribution, using creative commons licenses, copyright basics, and best practices will be covered.