Geo. C. Sibley Esq

Lilburn W. Boggs
St. Louis
March 26, 1839

To Geo. C. Sibley Esq
One of the Directors of the Board of Internal Improvements of the State of Missouri

Sir,

I have fixed upon St Louis as the point and the first Monday in May next, the time, of the first Meeting of the Board of Internal Improvements of this State.

I herewith enclose you an unsealed Communication to be delivered to the Board at their first Meeting nominating the Person therein Named as Engineer of the The State of Missouri. You will please Seal it and present it to the Board at the proper time.
Should the Board fix the salary of the Engineer at 2000 $ pr. Annum, it will be approved by the Executive. I have directed the Secretary of State to Notify each of the Directors of the time and place of Meeting.

The Gentleman nominated as Engineer comes highly recommended to the Executive as well qualified in every respect for the office.

I am respectfully

Yr Ob^t. St.

Lilburn W. Boggs
