My two favorite library resources are...

Think of the best experience you've every had when using a research library. If you could do something to make it even better, what would it be?

I wish the Dana librarians knew...

...that it can be difficult to find online journals.

...that I don't know how to use MeSH in Medline.

...quiet rooms work best for me during research/studying.

...that I'm probably not as good at doing online research as I think I am.

...how I love paper journals!

...how important their role is in patient care.

...I'm not very comfortable with EndNote.

...that the Giants are better than the Patriots.

What's Next?

- Review the workshop design to correct weak elements
- Continue to analyze data
- Build on success by expanding our connection to residents
