The following is a reaction to the short story "The Fan Club" from Rachel's point of view.

There they stand, the whole lot of them,
Each group is divided although
You can't really tell.
They all come together when they
Hear the school bell,
And when I'm around
There is always something for them to discuss.
They're so cruel, so heartless,
I'm never treated with any kindness,
They consider me a loser.
A follower and a loser!
I walk through the halls and eyes
Begin to stare.
Why do they look at me?
Why? It's just not fair.
I try to be like them,
I try to belong
No matter what I do-
It just comes out wrong.
What should I do?
How should I be?
Someday I'll be accepted-
Someday, you'll see.
But for now what is there?
What is there for me?
