Large Feet

Daniel Botkin

His foot was immense ten to sixteen it grew larger than a fence
it popped through his shoe.
It was clumpy and fat
and held down his body.
It restricted his tact
and he no longer was naughty,
For his foot held him back
'Twas a weight in the water.
He couldn't have any children not a son nor a daughter.
The reason is basic for one to learn for a size 16 shoe on a daughter would burn - a burn in the heart of an old man with pains who didn't need a daughter with feet long as trains So awful a case for the man and others for it wasn't just him, he had 13 brothers.
