Free Verse

Mikey Dolberg

A man walks along a winding asphalt road. The road stirs many memories in his mind. A woman steps into a small cabin perched alongside a glistening lake. She remembers a summer filled with innocence as she paces through the empty space.

The wind blows a man's cap off as he salutes the camp's flagpole. He stands alone.

Memories of a time long past fill their minds. So many summers they had spent in these now cold places. Will they ever come alive again?
