The Stadium

David Krohn

The stadium filled with faces.
Cheering fans arise.
The players bow with grace.
Knowing whom they've come to see excelling at their pace.

Watching the game and cheering.
Enjoying what they see.
Their eyes widened when tension grew and sighing when at ease.

The stadium gates are closing.
The crowd is leaving fast.
For they know that all the pressure and excitement
Were much too good to last.
