Elevation

Gabriela Gadia

It tears at my aching back,
The heavy task I bear,
Though I will carry it.

And those who in me had no trust
Can stop their worries.
No longer must they look down;
They will find no weakness there.

I have been elevated,
I can hold like any other,
I will carry it,
Let there be no disbelief.

Now that it is done,
If they look down
There will be nothing,
And I must no longer strain my neck.
