Change: A New Beginning

By Justin Trapana

Through the darkness of the world,
A seed falls from the heavens,
Only to be captured by nature's fire,
Liquid fire reaches high to the stars,
Rivers of blazing fire flow,
Forming lakes of red that stretch forever,
Days pass and fire turns to black rock,
Darken the world once more,
Through black and ashes
Lay a green life that reaches
Up into a red being, which stands in darkness,
Creeping higher, to escape the world's grief
Creeping higher, to change what has been set in stone
Creeping higher, to a better place
Creeping higher, to a new beginning

Masquerade Ball

By Daniella Gers

As the sun slowly sank
Beneath the horizon
Darkness quickly spread
Night approached
The masquerade ball had begun

As the doors unbolted
Guests fully clad in elegant
