The Blooming Rose

By Katrina Lica

Wound tightly together, my petals closed
Unaware of what my future holds
Covered by droplets of new morning dew
Each droplet nurturing my need to know.

Rays of light shine upon me
Warming my soul
Fresh air swirls around me
Awakening my senses, I begin to grow.

Opening slowly day by day
I begin to loosen
And take in the rays
Hoping to be something more

I sway gracefully in the wind
Remain calm in the storms
Staying quiet, not making a sound
Taking in my surroundings

Knowing now what I want to be Each morning I welcome the dew, the sun, the morning breeze
I grow and grow, my top gets heavy
I am a beautiful rose waiting to be noticed
