The Continuum of Life

Alex Breslau

Life is a word of complexity,
With meanings as endless as the horizon.
With denotations of heartbeat and breath,
With connotations of birth, love, and ambition.

Life is a continuous journey,
Beginning at conception, ending at mortality.
From birth to maturation, to regression to death,
Many a destination will have come and gone.

Life is a journey of journeys,
Struggles and successes alike traversed.
Rehabilitation and recovery similarly exemplary,
Striving and ambition alike in aforesaid aspect.

Life is an inclusive journey of patterns,
All labors bear fruit, but only as sweet as tedious,
The benefits and detriments amount to level,
But in the continuum of life, the level may be as high as a plateau.
