Intuition

Adrian Lechter

A man walks into a bar.
No punchline, no riddle;
Tom sits to cool his steam,
Ready for a dry port.

Enter Daniel.
Killer-on-the-run in need
Of quick shelter; he meanders into
The saloon and joins Tom.

He seems like amiable company;
Daniel engages in conversation
With Tom without getting into
His personal issues.

But something's not right:
Tom feels it in his core.

He picks up his drink;
Leaves to satisfy his gut's plea.
On the move in the still night,
Tom hears the bang of gunshots.

Daniel returns to prison;
Convicted of two murders,
The second occurring where
Tom had sat earlier.

Did Tom happen to feel
An upset stomach at the Right time?
Did fate save his life?
Could this be intuition?
