The Hardships of the Middle Passage

Erica Savelle

Back and forth.

The ships keeps moving across the Atlantic

From Europe to America

Day after day, nothing changes.

Back and forth.

Men, women, and children

Only the strongest make it across

Not knowing if they will live or die.

Back and forth.

Disease is spreading

Children are being born

Adults are dying.

Back and forth.

Enough people have been tortured

And no one deserves this

But nothing ever changes on the ships that are traveling

Back and forth.
