HELP WILDCATS WIN FROM SAVAGES

THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW

PEP SONG

To the tune of The Song of the Vagabond.
Ellensburg we're for you
Help to swell the score you
Cannot fail to win the game
We will have our pleasure
Give for us the treasure
Victory, laurel wreath and fame
Onward, onward
Charge against the foe
Forward, forward,
The Black and Crimson go
Fighting on, you ever
Will with your endeavor
Win for Ellensburg the game.

President Robert E. McConnell attended the W. E. A. meeting at Tacoma, on October 22, the meeting at Seattle on the 23rd of October, and the meetings at Yakima and Wenatchee, on October 26 and 27, and on October 29, respectively.

Professor Fish lectured before the student assembly of the Yakima Junior College at ten o'clock Tuesday, November 3. Mr. Fish presented a narrative of his recent travels in the various sections of this country.

Miss Jean McMorran attended the Douglas county institute in Waterville on Wednesday, October 28. Miss McMorran gave an address, "Personal Glimpses of Present-Day Europe," at the general session in the afternoon, and at the evening general meeting she read "Green Pastures."

During the past week the Halloween parties were an interesting feature of the primary department. The morning teachers gave the parties. The program included Halloween games, and refreshments were served at tables decorated with jack-o-lanterns. At these parties all the social amenities of sitting down when the hostess is seated, passing and eating food nicely, and filing past the hostesses and thanking them were observed.

The children and teachers of the Edison school will be hosts and hostesses to parents and friends at an open house, Friday evening, March 6.

From 7:30 until 8, the children of each room will have half an hour of classwork.

- 1st grade—creative painting.
- 2nd grade—spelling.
- 3rd grade—spelling.
- 4th grade—history.
- 5th grade—arithmetic.
- 6th grade—poetry appreciation.

At 8 o'clock there will be a general assembly in the auditorium.

- 1st—Dramatization, The Foolish Bears.
- 2nd—Colcks, a rhythmic interpretation.
- Song—Airplane.
- 3rd—Songs, Autumn Leaves, Rain.
- 4th—Animal Book Characterization.
- 5th—Dramatization, The Gold Rush.
- 6th—Highlights of Edison's Life.

At 8:45 the guests will be taken on a conducted tour of the building.

ALMA MATER

Unto thee our Alma Mater
Here we pledge devotion true,
Years may pass and time may bring us

Many a task that's hard to do,
Still we'll sing the old songs over,
Still we'll call the old days back,
Still we'll cheer the best of colors,
Hail the Crimson and the Black.
(Repeat the last four lines.)

Washington thy name we honor,
Ever loyal we will be;
May old Time each year add glory
W. S. N. S. to Thee.

Still we'll sing the old songs over,
Still we'll call the old days back,
Still we'll cheer the best of colors,
Hail the Crimson and the Black.
(Repeat the last four lines.)

NOTICE

John Stehman, business manager of the all-college play, THE IMPORTANCE OF BEING ERNEST, announces that prizes will be given for the best poster advertising the play. The posters can be of any size, and thick cardboard.

Those who are interested will please meet with Miss O'Leary in the Little Art Theater on Tuesday at two o'clock. If this cannot be done, please see Mr. Stehman at any time for details.

MANY OUT OF NORMAL SQUAD WITH INJURIES

Squad Improved Since Tilt With Bellingham Team

Bad luck is dogging the footsteps of the Wildcats these days. Exley, Hovland, and Phillips, all regulars, are out of the lineup because of inability. Cieslak is ill with influenza, Sutphin is out with a sprained ankle, and Larson has a sore shoulder as has Johannes.

On top of all the bad luck the team has gone into a slump. They looked terrible at Bellingham. There was no fight, no spirit, no drive, no anything except a bunch of men with football suits on. This attitude has to be overcome if the Wildcats are going to stay wild, and retain the tri-Normal championship. The only kind of team that can stop Cheney is one that will charge, and charge hard and fast.

According to the coaching staff the team lacked IT at Bellingham, but there are hopes of acquiring IT before Friday.

The possible starting lineup is: Ends, Decker and Danubio; tackles, Guggenbickler and Crosby; guards, Ingham and Irby; center, W. Lindquist; halves, Fuller and McKay; quarterback, Valdason; fullback, Sutton.

RIOTOUS TIME PROMISED AT BARN DANCE

Press Club Is Sponsoring Affair Saturday Night

Plans are rapidly nearing completion for the annual barn dance to be given Saturday night by the Press Club in the Student Pavilion. Committees on decoration, refreshment, publicity, and ticket sales have been appointed and are working hard to make the affair a success.

Decorations are to be as rustic as possible. Saddles, horse collars, milk cans, hay, harness, wagons, horses, and other farm furnishings will be seen.

Dancing will be featured as the main entertainment for the evening. Miss George will call square dances, and there will also be some old-fashioned circle two-steps and mixers. Cider will be served from a well during the evening.

All are urged to come in their oldest, most disreputable clothes. There will be two prizes for the best hard time costume, one to go to the boy and one to the girl.

Tickets go on sale on Wednesday and you can get them from any member of the Press Club. They are selling two for a quarter or fifteen cents apiece. Roswell Harding is general chairman for the event with Willard Rublin in charge of publicity, Grace Smith working on refreshments, and Nellie Williams managing the ticket sale.

STUDENT COUNCIL HOLDS MEETING

At the Student Council meeting held Tuesday morning, October 27, important matters were presented to the Council by Mr. Fish and Harry Weimer.

The business of bringing Robert Quick, Seattle violinist, was discussed from all angles and it was finally decided to reserve a date for him on the social calendar.

Mr. Weimer brought up the matter of losing private wearing apparel while on football trips among the football players. It was agreed upon that after this, money to reimburse the articles lost or stolen, while on football trips would come out of the athletic fund.

The business of selecting an editor for the Campus Crier was settled, with

HARD FOUGHT GAME EXPECTED

Dopesters Pick Cheney To Win Big Game Tomorrow

According to the dope on the coming game with Cheney tomorrow, they are about thirteen points better than the Wildcats. They beat Bellingham 40 to 0, they held the W. S. C. Frosh 7 to 7, and the W. S. C. Frosh took Gonzaga to the tune of 13 to 0. Compare this with our scores and see what you get.

Coach "Red" Reese has twelve lettermen to rely upon for the game. The starting line-up will be all veterans with the exception of Peterson, the fullback. The line is very fast and powerful with plenty of drive and fight. Roundy at left tackle weighs 196 pounds and is all bone and muscle, and Stannard, at center is 207 pounds of the same material.

Cheney is out to take the championship away from Ellensburg, who has held it for five years in a row. From all appearances they will succeed.

The probable starting line-up for Cheney will be:

- L. E. Jones No. 45—171 lbs.
- L. T. Roundy No. 23—196 lbs.
- L. G. Dyer No. 1—171 lbs.
- C. Stannard No. 46—207 lbs.
- R. G. Bannon No. 22—175 lbs.
- R. T. Hodge No. 39—174 lbs.
- R. E. H. McNew No. 7—162 lbs.
- Q. Coulter No. 48—138 lbs.
- R. H. E. McNew No. 20—162 lbs.
- L. H. Day No. 18—175 lbs.
- F. Peterson No. 41—173.

SMITH DISCUSSES VERSAILLES TREATY

The Men's Glee Club sang two numbers: an arrangement of SWING LOW SWEET CHARIOT, and ROLLING DOWN TO RIO, and Miss Margaret Smith of the Yakima Junior College spoke at the assembly Tuesday morning, November 3.

Miss Smith spoke on the revision of the Versailles treaty. The treaty must be revised sooner or later, because it is badly arranged, stands in

PEP RALLY STAGED FOR CHENEY GAME

Vigilantes' Paddle Will Enforce Attendance at Rally

Any student found on the Campus and not at the PEP-RALLY this evening will suffer dire consequences. A vigilante committee made up of those people who just love to "lift" a paddle, will comb the Campus for all slackers. You will be granted no mercy if you fail to do your part, nor should you be. We are out to show the team that they are not fighting a lone battle to beat Cheney. If Cheney wins this big game they are defeating all of us and not just the team.

Materials for a bonfire are being got together and we are all set for a

CAST WORKING ON QUARTERLY PLAY

Following the precedent set by Burton James and Lovejoy, in the Dramatic Department of the University of Washington, Miss Eileen O'Leary will take a part in "The Importance of Being Earnest," the all-school play scheduled to be presented on December 11th and 12th. Miss O'Leary will take a character part, that of Lady Bracknell, an English society matron. She has taken work under both James and Lovejoy, and skilful characterization of the part is assured by Miss O'Leary's dramatic reputation.

Other parts will be taken as follows: John Worthing.....Dick Bird
Algernon Moncrieff.....Max Berger
Rev. Canon Chasuble.....Tony Argano

K. LEVIENNE SPONSORED BY LOCAL P. E. O.

Ve Ona Socolofsky, Dramatic Soprano, Will Sing Several Numbers

Variety will be the key-note of the program which Kolia Levienne and assisting artists will present in the Normal school auditorium on November 5. Music lovers who are reluctant to devote an entire evening to a single artist or a single instrument will find here a most pleasing assortment of musical experiences.

The leading artist will be Kolia Levienne, celebrated Russian-American cellist, whose first months in America were spent as co-artist with Feodor Chaliapin, often called the greatest singing actor of his day. Appearing with Mr. Levienne will be Ve Ona Socolofsky, young and vivacious dramatic soprano, who is making an enviable reputation for herself throughout the Northwest. At the piano will be Frank Leon, distinguished accompanist. The program follows:

- I—CELLO
Sonata.....Eccles
Prelude.....Rachmaninoff
Airs Baskys.....Piatti

- II—VOICE
Air de Lia from The Prodigal Son.....Debussy

- III—CELLO
Variations sur un theme Rocooco.....Tschaiowsky

- IV—VOICE
Les Filles de Cadiz.....Delibes
Vergebliches Standchen.....Brahms
Ave Maria (by request) Bach-Gounod with cello obligato

- V—PIANO
Sparks.....Moszkowsky
Valse, Opus 64.....Chopin

- VI—VOICE
Shepherd, Thy Demeanor Vary.....Brown
The Fisher's Widow.....Edwards
The Hour of Remembrance.....Eide
Dedicated to Mme. Socolofsky

- VII—CELLO HABANER
Habanera.....Pasternack
Gypsy Dance.....Jeral

Proceeds of the concert will go toward the increase of the P. E. O. Educational Loan Fund. Tickets are being sold to adults at 75 cents and to students at 35 cents. They may be obtained from P. E. O. members or at Elwoods Drug Store.

Club Activities

Crimson W Club

Monday night the W club held its weekly meeting. The pep rally was discussed and primary preparations for the club's winter formal, the Varsity Ball were formed. Several inflictions of the initiation were bestowed by the sergeant at arms, Mr. Sutphin.

Theater Guild

Tuesday night the old members and new of the Theater Guild were dancing at the Sunset Tea Room after their formal initiation. Suddenly some bright psychology student began counting the prominent people who were present. Then he made a fearful and wonderful (shades of Miss Frater) discovery. The correlation between executive ability, as measured by officers, and dramatic ability was almost 100 percent. If you don't believe it, look at this, Felix King, president of the Guild, president of the A. S. B. (why try to list everything he has been?); Tony Argano, vice president of the Guild, president of the Men's Club, former president of the Guild, Knights of the Claw, etc. Mildred Wise, secretary and social commissioner of the Guild, Frosh Class secretary, 1930. Richard Bird, social commissioner Crimson W; Catherine Chaudoin, social commissioner of the Off-Campus club; Leola Bull, president of the Music Club, secretary of Sue Lombard; Ralph Backs, vice president of the Sophomore Class, social commissioner of the Men's Club, member of the Crystal Serenaders; Max Berger, editor of the Campus Crier, president of the Sophomore Class, president of the Press Club; Alma Bloch, president of the Women's League; Erja Lonngrén, former president of the Guild, secretary-treasurer of the Herodoteans, treasurer of Sue Lombard; Perry Marsh, Printer's Devil, Everybody's Pal; Walter Hotsko, every girl's boy friend, new member of the Guild; Clea Johnson, new member of the Guild, member of the Herodoteans; Charles Ganty, champion pinocle player of the Men's Club, new member of the Guild.

Pi Omega Meeting

At the first regular meeting of the Pi Omega, psychology organization the following officers were elected: President, Leland Jackson; vice president, John Witte; secretary and treasurer, Irene James. After a short business meeting during which a committee was appointed to decide on a topic for the next meeting, Mr. Werner took charge of the discussion on Spiritualism and Hypnotism. Various members participated. Mr. Trainor and Mr. Jackson contributed much clarifying information pertaining to spirits and hypnotic phenomena. The the way of other developments, and is a compromise on a large scale in which Germany had no say. It had too many builders, each looking out for the interests of his own country. It may be revised by violence or by international agreement. It will be revised sooner if economic conditions grow worse, or later if they improve. It cannot long remain as it is. We are bound up in this treaty as much as Europe. Europe is using Germany as a source of money to pay the United States. If the treaty is revised, this source will be cut off. America will not scale down the reparations unless Europe cuts down on armaments. If Europe cuts down her armaments, the United States will cut down the debts and then will come the revision of the treaty.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Max Berger accepted, due to the splendid work already done by Mr. Berger. Al Gerritz was accepted to continue as Business Manager of the same paper.
The Council discussed the possibilities of bringing Stoddard King here but nothing definite was settled. With no further business the meeting adjourned.

two phenomena are more or less interlocked but although spiritualism has not been proven scientifically exact, hypnotism has been used with some success in treating mental illness. Hypnotism, however, is not an advisable practise for an amateur.

Newman Club Meeting

At a special meeting of the Newman club Tuesday evening Carol Alberts was elected president; Charles 'Red' Scott, vice president; Mickey Leonardo, secretary-treasurer; social commissioner, Philomena Lenska; while Harold Beeler was appointed sergeant-at-arms. After the elections Miss Hebler gave a short talk and the meeting adjourned.

Knights of the Claw

The weekly meeting of the Knights of the Claw took place on October 29; at this time each candidate for membership was introduced to the old members, and requested to state why he should be a member. After the candidates were dismissed the first five in the list were accepted.

In lieu of any known existing constitution for the Knights of the Claw, the constitution of the Knights of the Oyster, of Olympia High School was read for approval as a model. This constitution was accepted and referred to a committee for revisions.

The club being without an adviser, decided to obtain one, and the president was authorized to look into the matter.

The organization agreed to sponsor some social activity, the date for which is to be arranged with the dean.

Next the matter of furnishing the club room in the old Administration Building was discussed. Leland Jackson and Lewis Argano were appointed as a committee to furnish the room.

The meeting adjourned after a discussion of the club standards to be maintained by each member, it was further decided to enforce the adherence to a strong C average, and above all, each member is to do his best to preserve the standards of the organization.

Men's Club

At a meeting of the Men's Club, which was held Monday evening in the recreation room of the Men's Residence, a motion was made and carried to form basketball teams, or as Coach Nicholson calls them "sock 'em and rock 'em" teams, to compete in intramural games.

Those named to head teams were, Fortier, Plotner, and Woodring. Bill Stayer is to form a team to represent the Men's Residence.

Paul Soll suggested that the name of the residence be Munson hall. Soll, Jackson, and Loring were appointed to look into the matter.

BOOK WEEK

morning until night.
Read with me: "The adult world, especially that part which might be labeled PARENTS, TEACHERS, and CALLERS needs to be reminded of the strength and the delicate sensitivity of a child's imagination—of how freshly they see beauty; of their whimsical love of the incongruous, so that they combine with absolute fearlessness widely separated and contradictory things. Periods and dates have no horrors for them. Dragons and teddy bears are alike international."
"Words themselves are living things to children as they are to poets. They have color and voice and they are as real as robins and squirrels."
"The magic hour has come when a child begins his independent reading. It is of great importance that good books be provided for him then. Because of the extraordinary vividness and persistence of first impressions, the QUALITY of these books should be the best. Even in these days when there has been a kind of renaissance in realm of literature for children, so that there is a wide range among books that are significant and finely written, it is still true that many unworthy and empty books find their way into the bookstalls. There they are, relying on outward gaiety and ready with their decorations, especially at Christmas time. It is tragic to allow them to usurp the place of genuine and beautiful books. The susceptible and responsive child who reads should be trusted with the richest and the best."
"Here then is a tremendous responsibility for it means the selection of a varied library, rich enough to satisfy the imaginative child eager and ready to live as Keats once said he lived 'in a thousand worlds.' If we ourselves ask of literature precisely those things of which we must feel the lack in our own life, how much more surely will children demand and appreciate the opportunities to widen their knowledge of a world which is to them all strange and new?"
Children's Book Week is an annual festival observed widely by schools, libraries, and bookshops. It will be celebrated in the Ellensburg Libraries by an exhibit of new and old juvenile books, maps, and posters. Watch the bulletin boards for the program which will carry out national book week theme: "Round the World in Books."

PEP RALLY

Big Time tonight. The PEP band will be present and the yell leaders, Red and Micky are hot. We will get together immediately after dinner and will break up at eight o'clock. The program will be short and snappy.

Comprehensive plans have been made for this occasion, and it is no one-man celebration. No one is excluded or will be permitted to not participate. We all know that we should study, and we also know that we must attend to the essential problem of the day and that is to BEAT CHENEY. The Masters of Ceremony will tell you what to do and it will be unnecessary to ask questions. JUST FOLLOW THE CROWD and BE A PART OF IT.

The vigilante committee consists of:

MOGULS

By STEHMAN

Leland Jackson was born. Yes, he was born in Portland while his mother was spending the week end there. He moved from Portland to Vader where he lived one year and attended the first grade. After six years of life Jack became six years old. Then he caught a cold. After dropping the cold he caught a train to Castle Rock. He attended grade school here eight years, and high school for four. He was president of the A. S. B. and was a football and track man. He was especially good in track as he had a girl who lived in the far end of town and he ran to see her every night.

As a Frosh at the Ellensburg Normal he didn't go over so big. He didn't go out for athletics, and this is quite strange as every one who is interested in blondes is quite athletically inclined. Jack sure has a weakness for blondes. In fact he has two other weaknesses, one is Lucky Strikes and the other is beer.

Jack, as you know, is quite interested in Chemistry. If you will notice he has very few whiskers on his face, and his chest is even more free from hair than his face. He is working on a sure-grow hair tonic that is guaranteed to produce the goods. That accounts for his interest in Chemistry. Don't be surprised if you see some one in the class some day that has a striking resemblance to the Smith Brothers—it will be Jack.

When asked if his parents would be surprised when he graduates he said, "No. They have been expecting it for three years."

CHANCE FOR MUSIC LOVERS

Music lovers who are looking forward to the Kolia Levienne concert under P. E. O. auspices in the Normal school auditorium on November 5 will hear one who is a master of a difficult but most expressive instrument, the violoncello.

The 'cello, as it is popularly known, is the largest save one of the instruments which make up the string choir. Only the double bass is greater in size, and indeed the 'cello itself was long known as the bass.

SPORT DOPE

By
BIRD

- Wildcats Blight Bellingham's Homecoming
- Le Grande Due Wednesday
- Basketball Possibilities
- Townpeople Offer Lights
- BEAT CHENEY
- Why Not Get Some Locks

We triumph again by beating Bellingham, 7 to 0. I'll bet they didn't have the homecoming that we did. They just couldn't have had. It would have been nice for them if they had won, but all's fair in love and war. Consequently the boys have bagged another football game.

7 to 0 is not a very big score but for back in my head I think it was Nick's psychology at work again. Cheney is here tomorrow and they have heard of the score 7 to 0. Over-confidence is liable to play havoc with them. If our boys go out there and play football, and what I mean football, the Cheneyites are going to know they have been in a football game.

La Grande Normal School is scheduled to be here Armistic Day. We want to hang the Indian sign over them.

I was discussing the basketball possibilities this morning with one of the fellows and what I mean there is going to be some real competition for a berth on the squad. If there are any hoopsters that are thinking of making a bid for the team, they had better grab their garb and start practicing every afternoon in the Gym. The time is four o'clock. The arrangements for an extensive trip into Oregon and California are being made. Any fellow will find it worth his while to turnout with a trip like this in mind.

The townspeople are certainly behind us this year in almost everything we undertake to do. I understand that they offered to put lights on the Rodeo Field so that the football games could be played in the evening and consequently draw a larger crowd. It was not accepted on account of the cool nights.

BEAT CHENEY

BEAT CHENEY!!! Is the howl of the Wildcats hunger! Tonight we are going to have the greatest pep rally in the history of the school. Bonfire, Yells, Singing, Inspiration speeches and general fight talks. This is the sort of spirit that wins difficult ball games. It takes two teams to win. One on the field and one in the stands. If we all cooperate and get behind the thing and push as true wildcats should, we will BEAT CHENEY. A school of this size is just like a big family. We know everyone and his business. Let's get out to the PEP RALLY tonight and show OUR gang we are behind them 100%. This Rah-Rah talk is for those who do not attend the A. S. B. meetings and football games. The general trend of this week has been on the pep rally, and tomorrow we take Cheney. Those who cannot enter the spirit of the thing should make a permanent investment of some genuine Wildcat. HELL FIRE! Boy, Oh Boy! Just get hold of some and see what a whale of a difference just a few puns will make.

The dressing rooms and equipment room has been altered considerably this fall. The equipment room has been enlarged so it is now much more convenient. More storage is made possible by the addition. Stairs have been built from the shower room down into the dressing room. The ceiling and walls have been white-washed making it an up-to-date plant. The gymnasium should be locked at night. It would be quite easy for someone to steal the plumbing or even go so far as to break into the storage room. I guess it is human nature to wait until the cat is out of the bag before taking any action. This should have immediate attention for fear of some drastic deed.

CHENEY COACHES

WILDCATS TAKE VIKING HOME-COMING GAME

Normal Squad Wins Close Contest By Score Of 7-0

In their eighth annual homecoming game Saturday, October 31, the Bellingham Vikings lost to the Ellensburg Wildcats 7-0. This was the second conference game which the Vikings have lost, having been beaten by Cheney the Saturday before, 40-0.

The game was called at 2:15 p. m. by Referee W. A. Fisher and Ellensburg kicked off to Bellingham. The Bellingham team gained a few yards, but were forced to kick. Ellensburg could not seem to click as a team and returned the kick. The remaining part of the first half was a succession of punts. The Bellingham team threatened once when Cieslak, Ellensburg end, fumbled a pass on Ellensburg's 20-yard line. Bellingham made it first down on the 8-yard line and brought the ball to the 1-yard line where they were held for downs. The half ended with the score 0-0.

The second half started with Bellingham kicking to Ellensburg. Ellensburg, on line plays, worked the ball down to the 2-yard line and Valdason scored on a line buck. Sutphin kicked the goal for the extra point, making the score 7-0.

Ellensburg kicked to Bellingham and they returned to the 30-yard line. On off-tackle smashes, end runs, and penalties Bellingham made three first downs in succession, but Ellensburg's line tightened and they were forced to kick. The ball went out of bounds on the 1-yard line. Sutton kicked 60 yards to Bellingham's 40-yard line. Bellingham completed a pass good for 20 yards but then held for downs. Ellensburg received the ball on the 2-yard line. Sutton kicked but it was partially blocked because of a bad pass from center and it went out on the 20-yard line. Bellingham failed to take advantage of their chance and were held for downs. Ellensburg started a drive for another touchdown, but were stopped on the 3-yard line when Lindquist threw the ball away and Bellingham recovered. The Ellensburg team was on the 1-yard line when the game ended.

The mainstays of the Bellingham team were Iverson and Flowers in the backfield and Berg, Falkner, and Abbott in the line.

Valdason, McKay, and Fuller starred in the backfield for Ellensburg while Decker and Sutphin were the mainstays in the line.

Both teams played ragged football and many penalties were made on the Ellensburg team.

The lineups were as follows:
BELLINGHAM ELLENSBURG
Abott.....RE.....Decker
Turner.....RT.....Crosby
Comfort.....RG.....Sutphin
Berg.....C.....Lindquist
Falkner.....LG.....Irby
Sutton.....LT.....Cope
Cox.....LE.....Ceislak
Donovan.....Q.....Valdason
Flowers.....RH.....McKay
Shelton.....LH.....Fuller
Iverson.....F.....Linden

Six new members were formally added to the Crimson W club after the close of their initiation dance in the gymnasium. The dance proved a very enjoyable affair with good music, excellent floor, and colorful decorations with a... they are now Crimson W's.

Thru The Campus Window

Looks as tho "RED" SCOTT and IRENE BABCOCK have a 99 year lease on the white bench not far from the entrance to the dining room. We understand that ELLA PALINSKY enjoys chicken dinners at the N. Y. Cafe. We hope you enjoyed your trip to Sunnyside last Sunday, ELLA, HAROLD DEN-SLOW had a long face the other day—ERNEST COPE was seen walking arm in arm with RUTH HORSCHEL. Get the old stiletto, HAROLD. Somebody should tell REINO RANDALL not to slide down the banisters in the men's residence. "MICKY" LEONARDO seems to have a monopoly on the attention of VIOLET DEMPSTER. Good luck to you two. DON PAULSEN chooses the darkest side of the street when he strolls with MARY JANE SHOUDY. "CHUCK" CLARK, versatile drummer, finds interest in Kamola. We do not know the girl's name as yet. We do know that she is a freshman and EDWARDS. He shows good taste tho. Some one should tell BILL that they went to a show. Even the mighty INGHAM has fallen to the charms of a certain SHIRLEY STAYER that the library is a study hall. Of course, if BETTY MAC-MAHON doesn't object. Did you all notice JACKSON, PLOTNER, IVIE, HOTSKO, NOBLITT, STEHMAN, ZOCK, and REBHAN efficiently patrolling the Campus Hallowe'en night? JACKSON and IVIE reverted to type—looked like two misplaced loggers. Our eminent FELIX KING and AL GERRITZ have added the title of "charity worker" to their long repertoire of accomplishments. MILDRED WISE and BEATRICE PREBLE favor the occupants of a certain red roadster. DICK BYRD has been seen in the rumble seat of said roadster. The night air is invigorating, isn't it. Several girls had a midnight party in Sue Lombard Hallowe'en night, and two young men were seen catching sandwiches and cake which were tossed out of the window of the room. . . Down with the window. Thank you.

W. A. A. TO HOLD KID PARTY TOMORROW

On Friday, November 13, the Women's Athletic Association is giving a kid party for the girls in the gymnasium of the administration building.

Every girl is invited and is expected to attend attired in childish costume, masculine or feminine. Altho the date might effect the attendance it is hoped that there is no girl superstitious enough to miss an enjoyable evening of dancing and amusing entertainment, and later refreshments, just because it will be Friday the thirteenth.

The party will give the girls a chance to shed their dignified, sophisticated or timid air as the case might be, actually be themselves and really become acquainted.

The time is from 7 to 9 o'clock. The chairmen of the committee working on the party are:

General chairman: Marian Carpenter; entertainment, Julia Marsh; poster and invitation, Olene Johnson; refreshments, Lillian Hovde.

BOXING CLASS SHOWS MARKED IMPROVEMENT

Keith Brown Proves His Ability As Boxing Coach

Every day at four o'clock, thirteen husky W. S. N. S. youths gather in the boxing department of the old Ad building and go through their fistic routine. They limber up their muscles with exercise for the legs and arms. Then they jump the rope which gives them plenty of action in their legs. They punch the punching bags to time their blows and maintain an accurate wallop. Then they single off by themselves and go through the motions of shadow boxing from which they get their form and style of attack. Before they take the shower they pair off and go through four two-minute rounds of actual boxing. These bouts make it possible for the scrappers to get worlds of experience.

Gilbert Giles, tall 165 pounder, had had very little experience with the mitts, but is learning the game rapidly. He shows more improvement in the last week than any other aspirant.

Andy Anderson, 195 pound Ephrata heavy, is a good boxer. This big fellow has a hard stinging blow which deals misery for his opponents. Ray Deycous 160 pounds is fast, and displays an aggressive style of fighting.

Leonardo, the lightest man on the squad, who weighs only 125 pounds, is a very consistent worker.

Eric De Soer, 175 pounds, is another boy that packs a wallop. He is a tough fighter, and can take a few on the chin as well as he can deliver them.

Honeycutt, local 155 pounder, shows a seriousness in his workouts and a marked improvement over last year's performances.

Frank Panches, 125 pounds, is fast, a very accurate scrapper. His left jab breaks thru the opponent's guard consistently.

Tony Padavich, 135 pounds, works diligently and shows promise of being a fair fighter.

Bob Colwell, who has just joined the squad, has not had time to show his ability as yet.

Jack Cole, 140 pounds, has had exience in the ring. He is very clever.

Ernie Bailey, 140 pounds, and Maurice Hoard, 155 pounds, are new members. They have had very little experience, but they show a willingness to learn.

Kelly McLain, the red-headed fellow, appears to be a fair boxer. He has been forced to keep out of the ring for the last few days because of a broken nose which he accidentally received in practise last week.

The class is receiving its instructions and training from Keith Brown, a 155 pounder. He has boxed as a professional in several smokers. He has been under the guidance of Anderson, at one time the champion heavy-weight boxer of Alaska. Brown is fast and clever, hits hard, and is built like a real fighter. He is a clean scrapper and a good sport. No other fellow in school is a better leader for the boxing class than Brown.

THINK THIS OVER

Language is an instrument that has made man's progress thru the ages possible. Talk, on the other hand is a use of language that at all times must be used discreetly. Talk, when used in the right way is an indispensable factor to all people, if faith and confidence in anything is to be retained. Many people talk much, but say little. On our Campus, as on all campuses, there are those persons who make up ten percent of the enrollment, yet, make ninety percent of the noise. There is no portion of school activity that dodges their destructive criticism or is offered a cure for the defects. These persons (dare we call them students?) are constantly prognosticating the results of something that is to happen in the future and an atmosphere of optimism never dominates their prophecy. Speaking in the vernacular of the Campus, they are crepe-hangers. Occasionally they are right and speak the truth. Lord Francis Bacon once said, "As for talkers and futile persons, they are commonly vain and credulous withal. For he that talketh what he knoweth, will also talk what he knoweth not."

Our football team plays Cheney this week. Cheney has a powerful team this year and they be hard to beat. Our team is also powerful, but they will need all the support and stimulation that our students can give them. If we decide that our team is to be beat this time, they will be beat. The power of suggestion is great, and what our team will do next Friday will greatly depend upon the faith that it feels that we have in them. It is true that we have the utmost confidence in them. Those students who do not think we shall win are voicing their opinions as if they were expressing the sentiments of the Campus, while we who have the opposing view are content to stand by and let the talkers hold the floor. How is our team to know how we feel unless we step up and pat the players on the back occasionally? Turn out and give them a hand while they are practising each evening. We are proud of them as individuals as well as a team. They are doing their part. Why shouldn't we? There is a pep rally Thursday evening, let's put it over with a BANG.
 —L. J.

WE CAN APPRECIATE

This week the student body is to be privileged to hear a 'cellist of international fame—an opportunity which will be regarded as golden by music lovers. One truly regrettable disadvantage of a small town as a location of any school, is that people of really great ability can rarely be induced to extend their tours to any field which is not likely, by reason of its size, to prove profitable. Therefore the advent of Mr. Levienne is to be regarded as a very real privilege.

Since such a large part of our development is derived from impressions absorbed and contacts made outside the lecture room, it is definitely to our advantage to attend all lectures and concerts presented. It is regrettable that more opportunities of this sort do not present themselves. Certainly every member of the student body feels that as a group we are as well equipped intellectually and culturally to appreciate good music, good art, or good literature, as any co-educational group in the country. Yet some schools are much more fortunate in being able to secure the services of visiting artists than we are. Townspeople as individuals and as organizations have shown a readiness to stand behind us in the matter of ticket sales, so that the question of financing need not trouble us. All of us should very much resent the implication that really good performances are over our heads. Also, in the past the student body has shown itself fitted to appreciate things of this sort, as evidenced by record attendance at every good concert.

The benefits to be derived from frequent concerts by visiting artists are obvious; the prestige of the school is vastly increased, and the background of every individual student is greatly enriched. Whenever it is possible to arrange concerts for the student body, we hope the powers that be will tread heavily upon the shining path of duty.

On the Train of Thought By R. N. HARDING

If you have had many unusual experiences, hold thy tongue lest you be judged a braggart. Be interested only in the events and experiences known to those with whom you converse. Relate the unusual only with unusual individuals.

A woman is naturally weak because of heritage. A man is weak because of lack of character.

Man's intellectual powers are as infinite as all eternity itself.

The secret of greatness is not in the knowledge you have acquired; nor your superior ability to accomplish things; but is the knowledge and unselfish assistance that you give to the needy.

Results are always cheaper than promises.

The First Official Joke of the Year
 Floyd Erickson: Do you mind if we tell jokes about the Scotch, Doctor?
 Doctor McC: Weel, noo, but ye always tell them at our expense.

Above we have a picture, snapped by Mr. Hogue, of the football player's face, just after he carried the ball, who made epoch history yesterday, by scoring a touchdown by sliding over the goal line on his face, using arms, legs, eyelashes and eyebrows to help him.

"We aim to please," said one of Al Capone's henchmen, as he squinted down the barrel at a prospective victim.

No, said the Ford dealer, we happen to be out of fenders and mud guards at the present time. Our next shipment won't be in for two weeks, but you might get a mud guard and left fender at the drug store down the street.

Said Mr. Sparks to his class: "I tell you, class, that no one should drink. HICK! Drinking is the curse of mankind; not only does it get one drunk, but HICK!—it also weakens one also it weakens one also it weakens one also, HICK!"

By our mental hypothesis we take it that even college professors are human after all.

"So you know my brother, eh? Well, where did you get to know him?"
 "Oh, he and I slept in the same class together."

Miss Coffin (just back from the Orient): How did you like those two Chinese back scratchers I sent you?

Mr. Whitney: Back scratchers! For Pete's sake! I've been eating salad with them!

"Darling," said the prospective suitor-to-be, "will you marry me?"
 "That all depends," said the very modern young girl "how much money yuh got, huh?"

Ladies and gents! We have with us this afternoon Warren Morgan, who is serving time here at school, his third year in fact. It is rumored that he lives in the mens dorm but ha he spends mos of his hours awake, in Sue Lombard

"Business is sure picking up," said the undertaker as he went to the scene of the disaster.

Mr. Quigley says that the earth goes around the sun and the major planets each revolve around the sun, too. Some of the major planets have moons of their own which revolve around too. They say that the moon revolves around also. I think, for one, that the moon stays still, and it is the influence of the MOON on the man that makes him think that the moon is sailing around in circles. Come to think about it, the MOON makes the man do a little revolving too.

Say, come to think about it, where the — is Malcolm Erickson this year? That is right, he isn't around here. A great little guy, Erick.

 After taking a correspondence course this summer in how to guide people in daily questions that confront them, I have been instructed to answer your pressing questions in the best manner in which I can do so. Letters addressed to me will, I assure you, be very private, in fact, I will answer them here in this column which no one reads anyway. In any case, do not be afraid to ask me, for the Great Mustapha Fatima Era Chesterfield will advise you right. Ah! The first letter!!!

Dear Mustapha Fatima: Lips that touch a saxophone shall never touch mine. He plays the sax; what shall I do —Maybert Brain.

Dear Miss Brain: Hem Ahem! That is . . . I play a piano.

Dear Mustapha Fatima Era Chesterfield: My woman simply will not go with me any more. My Gawd, and I've tried everything that I know to even make her speak to me. What shall I do?—I've tried everything, I tell you!

Dear Bill Woods: Have you tried Lsterne?

The Great Mustapha Fatima Era Chesterfield will now stop for this week before he gets salaamed by some one.

 Soused: "Shay, I an't worrin' 'bout tha', itsh wha' m' wife'll shay."

"So you're going to get married, huh?"
 "Yes, I believe in oppression of the weaker sex."
