AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT, made this 20th day of July, 2009, by and between the North Castle Public Library (hereinafter referred to as the "Library") and the North Castle Public Library Unit (Unit III), Civil Service Employees Association, Inc., Local 1000, AFSCME AFL-CIO (hereinafter referred to as the "Union").

ARTICLE 1 RECOGNITION CLAUSE

NOW, therefore, it is agreed as follows:

1.1 Recognition of CSEA

The Library recognizes the North Castle Library Unit (Unit III) Civil Service Employees Association Local 1000, AFSCME, AFL-CIO as the exclusive representative for collective negotiations with respect to salaries, hours and other terms and conditions of employment for all permanent full-time and part-time employees excluding the Library Director.

1.2 Excluded from Bargaining Unit

Said recognition excludes from the Bargaining Unit Department Heads, Deputy Department Heads, Temporary and Seasonal employees, Part-time Employees working less than seventeen hours per week and all other employees.

1.3 Harmonious Relations Statement

The parties desire to avert disputes and to insure continuous harmonious relations.

1.4 No Strike Clause

The Union as the representative of the employees of the North Castle Public Library in the Bargaining Unit, together with each of its individual employee members, has asserted that the Union and its members will not, at any time, engage in a strike against the North Castle Public Library.

1.5 Notice of Agreement

The parties have negotiated collectively in good faith in an effort to arrive at an agreement to cover the compensation and conditions of employment of all of the employees in the Bargaining Unit and have, as a result of such negotiations and in consideration of the requests of the Union and proposals made by the Library, arrived at certain understandings with respect to conditions of employment and compensation of employees in the Bargaining Unit.

1.6 Employee Lists

The employer shall supply to the North Castle Library Unit a list of all employees in the Bargaining Unit showing the employee's full name, home address, social security number, job title, work location, insurance deduction and first date of employment. Such information shall be provided to the unit on a semiannual basis.

ARTICLE 2 UNION DUES

2.1 Deduction of Dues

Upon presentation of dues deductions and/or insurance premium deduction authorization cards, signed by individual employees in the Bargaining Unit, the Library will make such deductions from the wages of said employees and will remit such deductions, with a list of employees from whose wages deductions have been made, to the Union, at the address designated by the Union: Civil Service Employees Association, Inc., 143 Washington Avenue, Albany, New York 12210.

ARTICLE 3 AGENCY SHOP

3.1 Deduction of Agency Shop Fees

All employees included in the bargaining unit who are not members of the Union, shall be required to pay to the Union an Agency Shop Fee, as provided by the Civil Service Law, which is an amount equivalent to the amount of dues payable by a member of the Union. The Library will make deductions from the wages of said employee. Said employee has the right to recover any part of any Agency Shop Fee deduction which represents the employee's pro rata share of expenditures by the Union in aid of activities or causes only incidentally related to terms and conditions of employment. The Union shall, in September of each year, notify all employees from whose wages an Agency Shop Fee has been deducted the procedure under which they may object and apply for a refund to the extent their dues were appropriated for political or ideological purposes.

ARTICLE 4 COMPENSATION

4.1 Bargaining Unit Positions

All positions in the Bargaining Unit shall be as per the attached chart.

4.2 Pay Schedules

Salary Schedules for the period January 1, 2009 through December 31, 2010 have been established for each classification per the attached charts, which reflects increases of two percent on January 1, 2009 and two percent on January 1, 2010; the parties will reopen negotiations on or about June 15, 2010 for sole purpose of negotiating pay increases for the period January 1, 2011 through December 31, 2011.

Subject to the following:

A. The right of the Library to propose revisions in future negotiations in the formula, content, and format of the salary schedules.

B. Salaries for employees in the Bargaining Unit who are not employed on a full-time (thirty-five hours per week) basis shall be prorated, based upon the number of hours they are regularly scheduled to work in a week.

C. Except as provided in paragraph F, employees will advance one step each year in their designated classification, after twenty-six bi-weekly payroll periods at the prior step, until the employee reaches the top step in his/her designated group after which no more increments are received. In the event of the promotion of a unit employee to another position in the bargaining unit, salary movement shall be as follows: Calculate increment as the old salary grade; employee moves on to step for new grade which gives the employee no less than that increment. No employee shall receive more than one increment in a year.

D. In exceptional cases where the employee has demonstrated to the Library Director and the Board consistent excellence or dedication in discharging the duties of his/her positions, he/she may be advanced beyond the next salary step for such outstanding performance.

E. An employee hired as a trainee for a particular position (where such position has been advertised as "trainee"), may be paid at a rate up to one thousand dollars less than the Step 1 rate for that position. Such employee will move to Step 1 on the following January 1, or six months from the date employment starts, whichever is later, except as provided herein.

F. An employee, other than a trainee, whose employment begins after June 30 of a given year will move to the next step one year from the following January 1, unless otherwise provided herein.

ARTICLE 5 LONGEVITY

5.1 Amount

In addition to annual salary, employees shall be entitled to annual longevity payments based on years of consecutive service as indicated in the following schedule:

	1-1-2009	1-1-2010	1-1-2011
Upon the completion of 10 years of consecutive service	$1075	$1175	$1250
Upon the completion of 15 years of consecutive service	$1175	$1275	$1350
Upon the completion of 20 years of consecutive service	$1300	$1400	$1475
Upon the completion of 25 years of consecutive service	$1400	$1500	$1575

5.2 Eligibility

Employees who shall have completed ten years of service by December 31 shall be eligible for longevity.

5.3 Payment Date

Longevity pay shall be paid with the last pay check of the year.

5.4 Unpaid Leave

For the purposes of computing longevity, all continuous service with the Library shall be counted. Should an employee take unpaid leave of absence, such leave time shall be deducted from the total years employment for the purpose of determining longevity.

5.5 Part-Time Employees

Employees working less than full time will receive longevity on a pro rata basis.

5.6 Part-Time to Full-Time Employment

An employee working less than full time, who subsequently becomes full time, will be credited with all years of part-time service. For this purpose, the total number of part-time hours worked during the period of employment is divided by 1,820, the total full-time hours per year.

5.7 Deferred Compensation Plan Option

The Library shall maintain the option for employees to put their longevity pay into their Deferred Compensation Plan so long as this is possible, subject to feasibility as determined by the Town Director of Finance.

ARTICLE 6 WORKDAY AND WORKWEEK

6.1 Full-Time Workweek

The full-time week shall be thirty-five hours, excluding lunch time and any other meal period.

6.2 Work Schedules

Work hours for each employee shall be scheduled by the Library Director during the Library's basic work week (Monday through Sunday). With approval, the employee may extend the lunch break by fifteen minutes, with the understanding that the afternoon or morning coffee break is thereby forfeited.

6.3 Sunday Assignments

In the event of assignments to work on Sundays, the Library shall first make such assignments to those hired after December 31, 1988. In the event there are insufficient employees in any required category to work on Sunday within the complement of post-1988 hires, the Library shall seek volunteers among the pre-1989 hires.

6.4 Inclement Weather

In the event of concern about closing of the Library for snow or weather conditions, the shop steward is authorized to discuss the matter with the Library Director or her designee.

ARTICLE 7 CLASSIFICATION

7.1 Full-Time and Part-Time Status

For purposes of this Agreement, employees are classified into the following categories:

- A. Full-Time (working thirty-five hours per week).
- B. Part-Time (working seventeen hours or more per week).
- C. Part-Time (working less than seventeen hours per week).

7.2 Working Extra Hours (in lieu of paid leave)

Vacations, sick leave and personal leave are granted for specific use only. Paid leave so granted may not be made up by working extra hours without pay or substituting one category of leave for another, such as working on a holiday or a vacation day to restore a sick leave day or personal leave day.

7.3 Probationary Period

All employees hired on a permanent basis shall serve the required probation, in accordance with the Westchester Civil Service Rules: Rule 11 – Probationary Appointment. The probationary term shall be for a period of not less than twelve weeks nor more than fifty-two weeks. (Weeks are defined as “calendar weeks”).

ARTICLE 8 HOLIDAYS

8.1 Paid Holidays

All full-time employees in the Bargaining Unit shall receive the following paid holidays:

- New Year's Day
- Martin Luther King Day
- Lincoln's Birthday
- Presidents' Day
- Floating Holiday
- Memorial Day
- Independence Day
- Labor Day
- Columbus Day
- Election Day
- Veterans' Day
- Thanksgiving Day
- ½ Day Christmas Eve
- Christmas Day
- ½ Day New Years' Eve

8.2 Days Observed

The Library shall determine the actual days that the stated contract holidays will be celebrated and notify the Union and all employees of those dates. A list shall be posted by January 15 of each year. The Union shall have an opportunity to make comments and respond by January 31 of each year.

8.3 Part-Time Employees

Part-time employees shall be allowed holidays or compensatory time off for holidays equal to one-fifth of their contractual work week.

ARTICLE 9 COMPENSATORY TIME

9.1 Flex-Time and Comp-Time

The weekly hours of employees scheduled to work on Saturday or Sunday shall be spread over the week ending on that Saturday or Sunday. For example, a full-time employee scheduled to work on Saturday or Sunday shall be required to take off another day during the two weeks preceding or following that Saturday or Sunday. Similarly, a part-time employee scheduled to work on Saturday or Sunday shall be required to take off an equivalent number of hours on a regular work day during the two weeks preceding or following that Saturday or Sunday. Such time off shall be subject to the approval of the Library Director, and no overtime obligation shall be incurred.

In extraordinary circumstances, where a serious staff scheduling problem is involved, the Library Director may require an employee to work more than the contractual hours during a given week. In that event, the employee shall receive compensatory time for such extra time worked, which, with the approval of the Library Director, may be taken at any time, but not in conjunction with vacation or personal leave.

With the approval of the Library Director, an employee may switch Saturday or Sunday work time and the related compensatory time off with another employee, provided the switch is accomplished no later than by two weeks later, subject to the approval of the Library Director and provided that no overtime obligation shall be incurred.

9.2 Comp-Time for Working a Holiday

Time worked on a scheduled holiday is eligible for compensatory time off and accordingly an equivalent amount of time may be taken off within two months of the week in which the holiday is worked.

9.3 Scheduled to Work Evenings

Whenever an employee is scheduled to work on an evening when the Library is regularly open to the public, the total hours worked by such employee on that day shall not exceed the number of hours such employee normally works on a regular workday.

9.4 Comp-Time for Working Evenings

Extra hours worked in the evening during the regular work week or on weekends involving functions sponsored by the Library are eligible for compensatory time off and accordingly an equivalent amount of time shall be taken off no later than the end of the week following the week in which the extra time is worked.

9.5 No Comp-Time for Board Meetings

Time attending Library Board and Town Board meetings is not eligible for compensatory time off.

9.6 WLS and PLDA Meetings

Time attending monthly meetings of WLS and PLDA and related travel time during regular working hours is considered work time. Attendance at meetings of WLS and PLDA other than their monthly meetings and attendance at meetings of other professional or civic organizations held during regular working hours is not considered work time unless specifically authorized by the Library Director.

9.7 Attending School during Work Hours

Time attending school during normal working hours is considered work time if authorized by the Library Board.

9.8 Attending School during Non-Work Hours

Time attending school or meetings of professional, civic or supportive organizations in the evenings or on Saturdays and Sundays is not eligible for compensatory time off, except in extraordinary situations as authorized by the Director.

9.9 Converting Comp-Time to Paid Leave

Extra time worked which qualifies for compensatory time off may not be transferred to unused vacation time, unused sick leave, or unused paid personal leave.

9.10 Use of Comp-Time

The Library Board reserves the right to permit compensatory time off only in terms of the same number of hours as were actually worked at the times qualifying for such compensatory time off.

9.11 Premium Pay for Delayed Opening (custodian only)

If the opening of the Library is delayed two or more hours due to inclement weather, then the full-time custodian shall be paid at the rate of time and one-half for the first three hours of his work day.

9.12 Cash Option for Overtime (custodian only)

When the full-time custodian is required by the Library Director to work more than forty hours in one week, he may elect to receive monetary overtime compensation at one and one-half his regular rate of pay, rather than compensatory time at one and one-half.

ARTICLE 10 VACATIONS

10.1 Date Credited

Vacations for the year shall be computed as of January 1, except that employees hired or terminated after January 1 shall have vacation credits computed on the basis of full months of actual employment during the year in which they are hired or terminated.

10.2 Accumulation

Vacations shall not be carried over beyond the calendar year in which vacations are normally scheduled to be taken without special permission from the Library Director, but in no event may the Director allow a carryover in excess of five days for full-time employees and comparable prorated time for part-time employees.

If an employee, at the time of reconciliation of schedules in the month of December, discovers that he or she has remaining vacation time that the employee cannot use before the end of the calendar year, then the employee may carry over to the next year a maximum of two vacation days to be used in the first quarter of the year on dates to be agreed upon with the Library Director.

10.3 Holiday During Vacation

If a holiday falls within a vacation period, the employee shall be entitled to another day of vacation.

10.4 Scheduling

Vacations shall not be scheduled during the first six months of employment. A fourth week of vacation shall not be scheduled to run consecutively with the prior three weeks unless the employee has received prior approval for such a schedule.

10.5 Allowance

Vacations shall be granted as follows:

A. Professional Employees:

1. Vacation leave for full-time employees shall be granted on the basis of length of service with the Library as follows:

- (i) Less than two years of service: 2 weeks;
- (ii) Two years or more, but not more than four years of service: 3 weeks;
- (iii) More than four years of service: 4 weeks.

2. Vacation leave for part-time employees shall be computed on the same basis as in "A" above, except that such leave shall be prorated on the basis of each employee's contractual scale of weekly hours of part-time work.

B. Clerical and Custodial Employees

1. Vacation leave for full-time employees shall be granted on the basis of length of service with the Library, as follows:

- (i) Less than two years of service: 2 weeks;
- (ii) Two years or more, but not more than eight years of service: 3 weeks;
- (iii) More than eight years of service: 4 weeks.

2. Vacation leave for part-time employees shall be computed on the same basis as in "A" above, except that such leave shall be prorated on the basis of each employee's contractual scale of weekly hours of part-time work.

C. For purposes of computing length of service, an employee whose employment begins prior to July 1 of a given year will be deemed to have two full years of service one year from the following January 1.

10.6 Scheduling of Third and Fourth Week

Employees eligible for three or more weeks vacation in the year must take at least one week of that vacation prior to September 1, or shall lose that week of vacation. In the event that the employee does not take such one week of vacation prior to September 1 because the Library has denied the employee his/her chosen vacation time, the employee shall be paid for the vacation time at the end of the year, at the employee's salary rate in effect at the time s/he planned to take such vacation.

10.7 Change in Vacation Plans

An employee who desires to change his or her scheduled vacation time must obtain written approval to do so not less than two weeks prior to the date the vacation is scheduled to begin.

ARTICLE 11 PERSONAL LEAVE

11.1 Allowance

Personal leave with pay may be granted for good cause, including, but not limited to, religious holidays, or to funerals, family illness (for spouse, parent, or child), graduations and weddings involving members of the employee's immediate family.

A. Paid personal leave for full-time employees shall not exceed three days during each calendar year of service, except during the first calendar year of employment. After the first six months of continuous employment, personal leave shall be granted on a prorated basis of full months of work for the balance of the calendar year in which the first six months of employment were completed.

B. Paid personal leave for part-time employees working 18 hours or more per week shall be computed on the same basis as in "A" above, except that such leave shall be prorated on the basis of each employee's contractual scale of weekly hours of part-time work.

C. Paid Personal leave for part-time employees working 17 hours or less per week shall be computed on the same basis as in "B" above, except eligibility commences only after one year of continuous employment.

11.2 Scheduling

Personal leave days must be applied for to the Library Director at least twenty-four hours in advance, except in emergency situations. Employees who provide a week or more of notice of their need for a personal leave day shall not be required to provide a reason for the personal day. Employees who provide less than a week of notice of their need for a personal leave day shall continue to be required to provide a reason, with the exception of one day annually for which no reason shall be required. If notice is not given, except with respect to emergencies, such personal day becomes an unpaid day off.

11.3 Accumulation

Unused personal leave days earned in the prior calendar year shall be added to the employee's accrued sick leave.

11.4 Scheduling (one day per month)

No more than one personal leave day may be taken during a given month, except in the case of bereavement.

11.5 Use During Inclement Weather

Personal leave may not be taken for absence due to snow when the Library is open.

ARTICLE 12 SICK LEAVE

12.1 Allowance

Each employee in the bargaining unit shall be entitled to sick leave with pay during such period as he/she is actually sick, and thereby unable to perform his/her accustomed duties as follows:

A. After six months of continuous employment, sick leave shall be granted to full-time employees at the rate of twelve days per calendar year, except for the first calendar year of employment and the calendar year in which employment is terminated when such sick leave shall be prorated on the basis of full months of actual employment.

Unused sick leave, up to twelve days per year, shall be accumulated for use in later periods of extended illness, or redeemed, if not so used, on retirement or death, as provided in Article 34 below.

B. Sick leave for part-time employees shall be allowed on the same basis as "A" above, but such leave shall be prorated on the basis of the contractual scale of weekly hours of part-time work and effective only on days of assigned work.

Unused sick leave shall be accumulated in hours in the proportion of the part-time employee's contractual scale of weekly hours of work to a full-time employee's scale of thirty-five hours per week, with a maximum accumulation of seventy hours per year.

C. An employee's annual allotment of sick leave (up to twelve days per year) may be used to care for a spouse, child, or parent, or for doctors' visits. Effective January 1, 2009, the age of the term "child" shall be defined as "twenty-two years of age and under".

D. Accumulated leave may be used for a reasonable number of short term illnesses if the employee used some or all of his/her annual (first twelve) sick leave days for one or more extended illnesses. An "extended illness" is an absence of three or more consecutive work days.

12.2 Medical Verification

An employee may be required to provide a certificate from a licensed physician, before sick leave is granted, or, in the event such certificate is waived initially, at any time such leave is continued. Such certificate shall state that the employee is sick and unable to perform the accustomed duties for the period of sick leave requested. Similarly, after three days of continuous absence for illness, an employee may be required on return to work to provide a certificate from a physician indicating that he/she is fit to resume work duties.

12.3 Sick Leave on a Saturday

An employee who calls in sick on a scheduled day of Saturday work shall not receive a sick leave day for that day nor the corresponding compensatory day following that Saturday. If the employee has already taken the corresponding compensatory day, it shall be deducted from vacation or counted toward a future Saturday worked. If there is twenty-four hours' notice and production of a doctor's note for the employee's own personal illness, and the employee has already taken the corresponding compensatory day, it shall be deducted from sick leave or counted toward a future Saturday worked, at the employee's discretion.

12.4 Sharing of Sick Leave

In the event of a catastrophic illness or injury of a member of the bargaining unit who has exhausted his or her sick leave, then, on request of the Union, the parties shall meet to discuss whether there shall be an arrangement for donation and sharing of sick leave and what those arrangements would be.

12.5 Annual Breast and Prostate Cancer Screening

ARTICLE 18 GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

18.1 Objective

It is the declared objective of the Library and the Union to encourage the prompt and informal resolution of employee complaints as they may arise and to provide recourse to orderly procedures for the satisfactory adjustments of complaints.

18.2 Definitions

(a) "Employee" shall mean any person directly employed by the Library included in the Bargaining Unit, or any number of such employees similarly affected by an alleged grievance.

(b) "Grievance" shall mean a complaint by an employee or by the Union, through its officers, that there has been a violation, misinterpretation, or the inequitable application of any of the provisions of this Agreement, except that the term "grievance" shall not apply to any matter to which the Library is without authority to act.

(c) "Days" shall mean all days other than Sundays and legal holidays. Sundays and legal holidays shall be excluded in computing the number of days within which action must be taken or notice given.

18.3 Representation in Grievance Proceedings

The Union shall be entitled to designate a representative to represent and assist any employee represented by the Union in any grievance proceeding pursuant to the existing Personnel Rules and Regulations of the Library, or pursuant to this Agreement.

18.4 Basic Principles

Employees shall have the right to present grievances in accordance with these procedures, free from coercion, interference, restraint, discrimination, or reprisal. The Union, through its officers, shall have the right to present grievances in accordance with procedures with respect to those provisions of this Agreement as confer rights and privileges to the Union. An employee shall have the right to be represented at any stage of the procedures hereinafter set forth by a person or persons of his own choice, provided, however, that such person is not an officer in an employee organization other than the Union, and provided further that a Union representative shall be permitted to audit any grievances beyond the informal stage. Each party to a grievance shall have access at reasonable times to all written statements and records pertaining thereto and shall have the right to obtain copies thereof. All hearings shall be confidential, unless requested otherwise by the aggrieved party. The Library Director shall have the responsibility to consider promptly each grievance presented to him/her and to make a determination within the authority delegated to him/her within the time specified in these procedures.

18.5 Step 1

All grievances shall be presented for adjustment, in the first instances, to the Library Director. This first step of the grievance procedure shall be in writing and it shall be taken, if at all, within ten days from the time when the employee becomes aggrieved and a decision thereon shall be rendered within ten days thereafter. Grievances shall be presented in writing, which writing shall set forth the date of submission, the name of the aggrieved employee, the date the grievance arose, the nature of the grievance, and the provision of this Agreement alleged to have been violated.

18.6 Step 2

(a) Within ten days after the submission of a grievance at the informal stage, or within ten days after a determination has been made at the informal stage, whichever is earlier, the aggrieved employee, or his/her representative, may make a written request to the President of the Library Board of Trustees, or his/her designee, for review and determination. The President of the Library Board of Trustees, or his/her designee, shall render his/her decision writing within ten days after submission of a grievance, setting forth the basis for the action taken, except as may otherwise be provided in sub-paragraph (b) of this paragraph 6.

(b) Upon request of any party to a grievance, the President of the Library Board of Trustees, or his/her designee, may notify all concerned in the subject matter of the grievance of the time and place when a formal hearing by the Library Board shall be held where such persons may appear and present oral and written statements supplementing their position in the case. Such hearings shall be held within ten days after receipt of the grievance statements from the aggrieved employee. Within ten days thereafter, the Library Board, or its designee, shall render a decision in writing setting forth the basis for the action taken.

18.7 Step 3

If the grievance is not satisfactorily resolved by the Library Board of Trustees, or its designee, it may be submitted to advisory arbitration in accordance with the voluntary labor arbitration rules of the American Arbitration Association then in effect, provided, however, that the Arbitrator shall limit his decision strictly to the interpretations of the express provisions of this Agreement or to render any award or determination which by its term affects any such alteration or modification. The arbitrator shall not make any award which limits or interferes with the exercise of the judgment and discretion of the Library Board of Trustees or any of its representatives under law or this Agreement. The Library and the Union shall bear equally the costs of such arbitration proceedings, exclusive of attorney's fees, which fees shall be borne separately by each party. Demand for arbitration shall be made, if at all, within thirty days after the submission of the grievances to the President of the Library Board of Trustees, or his/her designee, or within fifteen days after the decision of the Library Board, or its designee, with respect thereto, whichever period is the shorter.

The Library shall administer its obligations under this contract in a manner which will be fair and impartial to all employees and shall not discriminate against any employee by reason of sex, age, nationality, race or creed.

19.3 Non-Discrimination Clause (Union)

The CSEA shall administer its obligations under this contract in a fair and impartial manner to the Library.

19.4 Distribution of Collective Bargaining Agreement

The Library agrees to furnish each new employee, and all present employees, a copy of this Agreement.

19.5 Subterfuge Clause

Neither the Library nor the CSEA, through its officers, members, representatives, agents or committees shall engage in any subterfuge of any kind for the purpose of defeating or evading the terms of this Agreement.

19.6 Non-Discrimination for Union Activity

There shall be no discrimination, interference, restraint or coercion by the Library or any of its officers or agents against any employee because of any lawful activity on behalf of the CSEA, or because of membership in the CSEA. Its members, its officers, its agents shall not coerce employees into membership in the CSEA in any manner.

19.7 Employee Responsibilities

Adhering to the principle that duties and obligations come with rights and privileges, CSEA agrees to do its utmost to see that its members perform their respective duties in the Library loyally, efficiently and continuously under the terms of this Agreement. The CSEA and its members will use their best endeavors to protect the interest of the Library, to conserve its property and to give service of the highest quality.

ARTICLE 20 UNION ADMINISTRATIVE RIGHTS

The Library recognizes the following rights of Unit III of the North Castle Unit of the Civil Service Employees Association, Inc.:

20.2 Access to Premises

The right of the President of the CSEA or his designated agent or the designated field representative, to visit the facilities of the Library for the purpose of adjusting grievances and administering terms of the Agreement, provided the Library receives reasonable notice of the proposed visit to its facilities and such visit does not disrupt the orderly flow of Library business.

The right of the CSEA delegate designated or elected for the purpose of adjusting grievances and maintaining administration rights of the Agreement to have reasonable amounts of free time from regular duties to fulfill his/her obligations to Union matters that relate directly to the Library; on the average, not more than one hour per week.

20.4 Union Steward

The North Castle Public Library Unit III of the CSEA agrees to notify the Library of its member designate for the purpose herein provided.

ARTICLE 21 MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

21.1 Management Rights Clause

The Union recognizes that the management of the Library, the control of its property, and the maintenance of order and efficiency, are the sole responsibilities of the Library, as Employer. The Union further recognizes that these rights include, but are not limited to, the right of the Library to direct its workforce, to make all decisions as to the operation of the Library system and its workforce, the increase and/or decrease in the workforce, discipline, and all other rights normally inherent in the right of management, except as otherwise may be limited by the express terms of this Agreement. All the rights, power and authority the Library had prior to the signing of this Agreement are retained by the Library and remain exclusively and without limitation within the rights of the Library. The failure to assert any of these rights shall not be deemed to be a waiver thereof.

ARTICLE 22 WORKERS' COMPENSATION

22.1 Workers' Compensation Insurance

An employee in the Bargaining Unit absent as a result of injury sustained while employed and incurred by reason of such employment within the meaning of the New York Workers' Compensation Law and regulations applicable thereto shall not be charged with sick leave, but may, pending adjudication of his/her case, receive up to six calendar months of administrative leave (exclusive of accumulated sick leave credit) at full pay, beginning with the date of injury, provided, however, that such pay shall be reduced by any Workers' Compensation award for salary, and further provided that the first five work days of absence shall be charged against sick leave, unless and until the Workers' Compensation Board determines that the illness or injury that caused the absence was compensable.

Upon notice to the Library by the carrier or the New York State Compensation Board that a compensation award has been made to an employee, the total number of days awarded shall be compared with the number of days leave used. If the number of days used is less than the number of days awarded, the Library has no claim for reimbursement from the employee. If the number of days used exceeds the number of days awarded, except for hearing days which shall be charged to sick leave, then the Library is to redeem the overage from the employee. The employee may, at his option, use accrued sick time or vacation time to repay the Library for non-awarded compensation days.

Determinations under the Workers' Compensation Law of the State of New York as to whether or not disability is service connected and as to the extent of such disability shall be conclusive as between the employee and the Library. Vacation and sick leave credits shall not be earned during the period of any such administrative leave. At the termination of such administrative leave, the employee may, in the event of his continued disability, elect to utilize his remaining sick leave. Should the disability continue beyond the six month period plus the period of accumulated sick leave, such injured employee may, at the discretion of the Library, be placed on leave without pay for a further period not to exceed eleven months.
