

Supplementary material to:

Suggestive linkage detected for blood pressure related traits on 2q and 22q in the population on the Samoan islands

Karolina Åberg, Feng Dai, Satupaitea Viali, John Tuitele, Guangyun Sun, Subba
Rao Indugula, Ranjan Deka, Daniel E. Weeks, Stephen T. McGarvey *

*Correspondence to:

Dr. Stephen T. McGarvey, PhD, MPH
Professor of Community Health and Anthropology
Director, International Health Institute
Brown University
Box G- S2
169 Angell Street, Room 200
Providence, RI 02912
phone: 401-863-1354
fax: 401-863-1243
email: Stephen_McGarvey@brown.edu

Supplementary Figure S1. Genome-wide LOD score detected for five blood pressure related traits in American Samoa (left column), Samoa (middle column) and in the combined study sample (right column). The LOD score for the bivariate trait SBP-DBP was converted to 1 degree of freedom, which makes it comparable to a univariate LOD score.

