Funding Gaps and Government Shutdowns: CRS Experts

Abstract

[Excerpt] In the event of a funding gap, the potential impacts of a government shutdown will depend on a program's or agency's specific circumstances and how relevant law is interpreted. The following table provides names and contact information for CRS experts on policy concerns relating to funding gaps and the processes and effects that may be associated with a government shutdown.

Policy areas identified include

- cross-cutting shutdown issues;
- domestic social policy-related programs and agencies;
- foreign affairs, defense, and trade-related programs and agencies;
- general government-related programs and agencies; and
- resources, science, and technology-related programs and agencies.

Summary

In the event of a funding gap, the potential impacts of a government shutdown will depend on a program's or agency's specific circumstances and how relevant law is interpreted. The following table provides names and contact information for CRS experts on policy concerns relating to funding gaps and the processes and effects that may be associated with a government shutdown.

Policy areas identified include

- cross-cutting shutdown issues;
- domestic social policy-related programs and agencies;
- foreign affairs, defense, and trade-related programs and agencies;
- general government-related programs and agencies; and
- resources, science, and technology-related programs and agencies.

For questions concerning the impact of a shutdown on a specific agency or program that is not listed here, see the contact information for the listed coordinators, who will help to identify the relevant subject matter expert. See also the notes for Table 1 for additional CRS resources.

For information about the status of funding for particular agencies and programs, see the CRS "Appropriations Status Table" at <http://crs.gov/Pages/AppropriationsStatusTable.aspx>. Under the "Regular Appropriations" tab, the left-hand column lists CRS reports that cover each appropriations bill. The reports identify CRS subject matter experts for the agencies and programs that are funded by each bill. To locate a specific agency or program within an appropriations bill, see CRS Report R40858, Locate an Agency or Program Within Appropriations Bills, by Mary Frances Bley.

For information about funding gaps, see CRS Report RS20348, Federal Funding Gaps: A Brief Overview, by Jessica Tollestrup.
