WOMEN'S STUDIES CENTER

DIRECTOR'S SUMMARY OF ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Year 2001-2002

The year 2001-2002 marked the second year of the Women's Studies Center's expanded mission directive. The three major goals of the Center included: (a) enhancing the academic excellence of its undergraduate program, (b) advancing the reputation of the Center in the region, and (c) promoting academic growth and academic excellence in Women's Studies. The goals and highlights of the accomplishments in each area are presented below.

A complete report of the activities of the Women's Studies Center for the period June 2001 to May 2002 is contained in the following pages, including: (1) a summary of the undergraduate programs, including enrollments for the undergraduate B.A. and Certificate programs and other undergraduate student activities and accomplishments, (2) advancement activities of the WSC, and (3) the achievements of the Women's Studies faculty.

GOAL 1: To enhance the academic excellence of the undergraduate program.

Accomplishments:

- Course offerings increased from 60 courses (2000-01) to 77 courses (2001-02)
- Student enrollment increased from 1,745 (2000-01) to 2,495 (2001-02)
- Students majoring in Women's Studies increased from 40 to 58
- Students earning a Certificate earners increased from 35 to 62
- Graduated 9 students with a B.A. in Women's Studies
- Graduated 14 students with a Women's Studies Certificate
- Hosted four talks on Career Development Issues for Women's Studies students
- Sponsored the Undergraduate Women's Studies Conference (50 attended)
- Sponsored the student production of the play, The Vagina Monologues (500 attended)

GOAL 2: To enhance the reputation of the Women's Studies Center in the region.

- Launched the Women of Distinction Series to attract community support. Renowned scholars were featured at four events held at Books and Books and The Wolfsonian-FIU, with over 400 people attending.
- Launched the Friends of Women's Studies fundraising campaign ($3,200 raised).
- Solicited donors for the Elaine Gordon Scholarship in Women's Studies ($15,475 raised from 2000-02).

GOAL 3: To promote the academic growth and academic excellence in Women's Studies.

- Hired a Visiting Assistant Professor of Women's Studies and Education (Morcillo) and a Visiting Instructor/Postdoctoral Fellow of Women's Studies (Crawley) for 2001-02
- Hired a tenure-track Associate Professor of Women's Studies and History (Morcillo) for Fall 2002
- Renovated and furnished DM 213 as laboratory space; acquired DM 215 and 216A for faculty/staff.
- Faculty accomplishments included the following publications and performances: 2 books; 11 book chapters published or in press; 17 journal articles published or in press; 2 published stories; 9 performances; 26 conference presentations; 4 grants received; 16 invited talks; and representation on 10 editorial boards.

The Women's Studies Center has shown significant growth during 2001-2002 in terms of the development of the undergraduate program and advancement activities, while continuing a strong tradition of faculty research on women and gender. Our success reflects the sustained commitment of the faculty, students, staff, and friends of Women's Studies.

Respectfully submitted,

Suzanna Rose, Ph.D.

Performance: The Vagina Monologues

Performance Dates: April 5-6, Fri, Sat, 7pm; April 7, Sun, 4pm

Our V-day began in the Women's Studies Center when one motivating professor sparked the idea. She gave us copies of The Vagina Monologues; she had a stockpile. Two of us had never even heard of them. We sat there, reading. We read them aloud. The thought came up that we should do them here.

We were all disgusted about the treatment of women and girls and the violence inflicted upon them. We wanted to do something, anything, to make a change. We needed a community that could support and encourage activism. None of us had any theater experience, but we were sure could pull it off and we did. A spark of idea became a wildfire of action and activism.

The three performances of the V-Monologues sold out early. More than 150 people came to see the play each night. We raised $3,400 to donate to 3 groups that help fight violence against women, including the FIU Victim Advocacy Center, MUJER (Mujeres Unidas en Justicia, Education y Reforma, Inc., a group that works with the Hispanic farmwork community), and RAWA (Revolutionary Association of the Women of Afghanistan, a political/social organization of Afghan women/feminists.).

A victory toast for the performers and organizers of The Vagina Monologues.

II. ADVANCEMENT & OUTREACH ACTIVITIES

Women of Distinction Series

The Women of Distinction Series was launched in 2001-2002 to bring noted women scholars to the attention of the South Florida community and to cultivate community and donor support for the Center. The events were held at Books & Books in Coral Gables and at The Wolfsonian – FIU in Miami Beach. A very enthusiastic crowd of 80 to 120 participants attended each of the events. The Women's Studies Center was very pleased with this collaborative effort and gratified by the extremely positive community response.

II. ADVANCEMENT & OUTREACH ACTIVITIES CONTINUED

Friends of Women's Studies

The Friends of Women's Studies Campaign was launched in Fall 2001 to provide funding for students to obtain valuable educational experiences outside the classroom and to support other Women's Studies events. Women's Studies received more than $3,000 in donations from 25 Friends that enabled students to attend national women's studies conferences and provided funding for outreach. The Friends' donations were greatly appreciated.

Elaine Gordon Scholarship Endowment

The Elaine Gordon Scholarship Endowment was established in 1999 to honor the life and work of Elaine Gordon (1931-2000). Ms. Gordon was a pioneering feminist elected to the Florida House in 1972 who was a leading advocate on issues involving health care, mental health, children and women's reproductive rights. In 1982, she was one of the first six women inducted into the Florida Women's Hall of Fame in Tallahassee. After retiring from the legislature in 1994, Ms. Gordon worked for FIU as an Assistant Vice President until 1999.

More than $37,000 has been donated to the endowment by 125 donors. Their generous contribution makes it possible for one Women's Studies student to receive a scholarship each year.

III. WOMEN'S STUDIES FACULTY ACHIEVEMENTS

New Faculty in Women's Studies 2001-2002

Two new visiting faculty joined the Women's Studies Center for 2001-2002. Aurora Morcillo, Ph.D., was Visiting Assistant Professor of Women's Studies and Education. Sara Crawley, M.A. was our Postdoctoral Fellow/Visiting Instructor for the year.

*Aurora Morcillo, Ph.D.
Visiting Assistant Professor*

Dr. Aurora Morcillo arrived at FIU from the University of New Mexico, where she was Visiting Assistant Professor of History and Education. She received her Ph.D. in History at the University of New Mexico in 1995. Her M.A. and B.A. degrees in History were from the University of Granada, Spain, where Aurora was a founding member of the women's studies program.

Dr. Morcillo's research interests focus on modern Spain and gender history. Her book on this topic was: True Catholic Womanhood: Gender Ideology in Franco Spain (Dekalb: Northern Illinois University Press, 2000).

Dr. Morcillo is currently working on her second book "The Seduction of Francoist Spain. The Female Body at the Center of Sexual Politics." She taught the Introduction to Women's Studies and History of Women in Modern Spain and quickly became very popular with students.

Dr. Morcillo accepted a position as Associate Professor of Women's Studies and History at FIU beginning in 2002-03.

Ms. Sara Crawley was a doctoral candidate in Sociology at the University of Florida when she came to FIU this year. She received her M.A. in Sociology and Undergraduate Certificate in Women's Studies in 2000 from Florida Atlantic University and her B.S. in Business Administration (Finance) with High Honors from the University of Florida in 1997.

The central thread running through Ms. Crawley's research is a concern for how (assumed) biological sex creates social barriers for women and men and the ways in which both negotiate, use and change gendered expectations to overcome those barriers.

Sara's courses on the Introduction to Women's Studies, Feminist Theory, and Women, Men and Sport were received enthusiastically by students at FIU.

Dr. Crawley completed her Ph.D. in June 2002 and accepted a position as Assistant Professor at the University of New Orleans.

Women's Studies Faculty Book Club

The FIU Women Faculty Book Club was founded in 1991 by two Women's Studies faculty, Professors Marilyn Hoder-Salmon (English) and Judith Stiehm (Political Science). The book club, which meets off-campus monthly during the academic year, is comprised of FIU women faculty and administrative staff with an interest in women authors and feminist issues. Women's Studies Center published a bookmark in 2002 in honor of the 10th anniversary of the FIU Women Book Club featuring 100 Excellent Books by Women. The listing as well as current readings are available at www.books.fiu.edu.
