Dear Tom:

Thank you for your letter of March 14 concerning the evaluation you are doing for Cone Mills. I appreciate your offer of services as they relate to the Gardner-Webb property. However, I really do not feel that I am prepared yet to give you enough assurances concerning this property to justify your involvement with it. I have really, at this point, only become conscious of a problem without any real sense of what should be done about it. I could not in good conscience ask you to ~~commit~~ any time to this program until I understand more fully the various ramifications of the situation.

It was a pleasure meeting you at North Lake Club. I will look forward to seeing you often in the future.

Kind personal regards,

Cordially,

Craven E. Williams
President
