AS YOU CAN SEE, a typical session at Asilomar is designed to meet the dancing appetite of every enthusiastic square and round dancer. While this sounds like a great deal of dancing there are sufficient planned intermissions to allow you to catch your breath, make new friends, and enjoy the beautiful surroundings of Asilomar. Asilomar square dance vacations are not expensive. The entire package, including very comfortable lodging, outstanding meals, all dance and lecture sessions and many extras, is only $75.00 a person. That's far less than you would pay at many resorts for room and board alone.

Children have their program at Asilomar, too, specially supervised and planned just for the young fry members of the square dancers' families. You'll have a ball at Asilomar! Write for a free illustrated brochure — only don't wait. Do it now while there's still room for you this summer.

"KEEP IT A SECRET"

... but not too secret, for it's Windsor's latest WALTZ and is destined to be shouted from the hilltops and danced in every hall throughout the land. Here is a flowing, pulsating new dance that mirrors the dance-composing skills of VINCE & MARGE BELGARBO, Skokie, Ill., with its charm and grace. The Memo Bernabei Band lends depth and feeling to this charming and almost-forgotten music.

"BAY PATH SWING"

Wake up and live when you dance this gay, bouncy two-step assembled by CHET & BARBARA SMITH, operators of the famous Bay Path Barn near Boylston, Mass. It's a happy dance for happy people and the George Poole Orchestra was real happy when they cut this number.

WINDSOR No. 4675 (45 r.p.m.)

MEMO:

Although released only last month, Windsor's "MOON RIVER" (waltz) and "PEGGY" (two-step) is already setting records in the record business. See your favorite dealer for a copy of Windsor's No. 4674 (45 r.p.m.) and find out for yourself why both of these dances are so well liked.

Dear Editor:

Last summer we poured a cement terrace and a porch at our cottage at the lake. We square danced to records in the wide open spaces. If it rained we danced on the porch.

No complaints from the neighbors about noise, either, because there are four couples of us living side by side, all belonging to the Ringo Swingo Square Dance Club.

Dear Editor:

Anent the article by Jo Hardy of Pomeroy, Ohio, in the January issue of Sets in Order, may I respectfully suggest to those who seem to deplore Latin American dances in the round dance field, that tangos, rhumbas, cha chas, etc., have a definite place in our activities . . . As to whether or not these dances employ the usual round dance basics, it can be noted that the basics, while different and strictly Latin in flavor, are simple and fun to do.

We all enjoy dances of foreign origin as polkas, European waltzes, etc., so why not include those originating in our Central and South American countries? As an exponent of these types of dances, we have demonstrated these in the Florida area and they were always greeted with great favor.

Oscar Schwartz
St. Petersburg, Fla.

Here goes the "hot potato" again. Several months ago (November 1960) we gave our views on Latin rhythms. It's still our feeling that this is a

"BABY BUMBLE BEE"

A TWO STEP by BOB and NITA PAGE that will really make you strut. Not too difficult and not too easy and music with a real modern sound makes this a "must" for every round dancer.

"GIRL OF MY DREAMS"

A WALTZ to a tune that has always been a favorite. Merl and Delia Olds did the choreography and feature a smooth flowing routine that makes waltzing a pleasure.

A SPECIAL MESSAGE
TO YOU
FROM FRANK HAMILTON

May 1, 1962

Dear Dancers and Instructors

This, our third Round Dance book, was undertaken in response to a widespread demand for a complete and comprehensive text dealing with all phases of this comparatively new recreational activity.

Some of the data included is based on the experience and thinking of the writer.

However, it is important to note that over 100 of the most successful "home front" Round Dance leaders from the United States and Canada have contributed their ideas and suggestions thru questionnaires and seminar conferences in order that the Manual reflect the best thinking from all Round Dance areas.

Since the theories and methods outlined have already proven to be highly effective, newer leaders may safely incorporate them into their program. Experienced teachers, always keenly interested in the ideas of other leaders, will exercise their judgment in evaluating the material. Club leaders and dancers should find much of interest and help in these pages. It is my hope that this Manual will play a useful part in the rapid and wholesome development of Roundancing.

Key: A Tempo: 128
Caller: Gloria Rios Range: High HD
Music: Standard 2/4 Low LD
Instruments: Drums, Guitar, Saxophone, Bass, Piano

Comment: Fast moving with conventional timing. Music is good. The voice range is a compromise in that it is about as high as most men callers could reach with comfort and is a little low for Gloria. Her calling is pleasant.

Each report gives an analysis of the record and the dance. The shaded area in the chart indicates the voice range used by most recording companies. By comparing the voice range letters in each analysis with those on the chart, you should be able to determine the record's suitability to your voice. Occasionally a report will be starred (*) in which case you will find the calls reproduced in the Workshop section of the same issue.

Some of the square dance records reported will have rating symbols at the end of the "Comment" section. These represent the opinion of the reviewing committee. Symbols used indicate as follows: ☆Average, ☆☆☆Above Average, ☆☆☆☆Exceptional, ☆☆☆☆☆Outstanding. No rating will be shown for Sets in Order records as the reviewer is a member of the S.I.O. staff. May 1962

INDEED MRS. FRANKLIN MUST HAVE HAD SOME misgivings on that cloudy winter day a couple of hundred years ago when her son, Ben, kite in hand, started out the door. Little could anyone visualize the importance of so momentous an event as the discovery of electricity. How great today is our dependency on the switches, wires, light bulbs, and motors that bring communication, and comfort into our homes through the magic of electrical power.

Take the case of square dancing as a for instance. Certainly the activity has been around for years, and tens and dozens of years perhaps, but the type of square dancing enjoyed today differs from the old style for one prime reason. Those doing the dancing can hear and understand the calls.

Where the old time caller once stood on the chair and bellowed out his commands so that one, two, and rarely three or four squares might dance and follow, we've watched today's dancers, more than fifteen thousand of them at one time, dance in unison to the calling of one individual. All this of course due to the electricity that runs our modern public address systems.

There have been occasions in which we felt old Ben Franklin must have chuckled as he pulled the switch for a few minutes as if to say, "You're taking this power too much for granted; see what you can do without it for a little while."

We remember the square dance hall next to the lumber mill in Oregon where each time the night crew would move a log through the mill

From all appearances next month's issue of Sets in Order will be another one of those collector's items for all square dancers. In addition to all of the regular features and a salute to the National Convention you'll find the first installment in an intensely interesting History of Round Dancing written by Kay and Forrest Richards. Then, in your July issue you'll have a special Handbook on square dance party ideas and club fun. Be sure to get your copy — renew your subscription TODAY! —Editor the power would drain, the lights would get dim, and the trusty old record player would rotate slower and slower. We'd quickly advance the speed control ahead as fast as it would go and still the dancers would be moving in some slow motion pattern that would remind us of a trick of the motion picture camera.

Suddenly, with a bright flash in the hall, the lights would glow in full brilliance and we'd know that one more log had completed its journey. From their funeral pace the records were now zooming around in an impossible tempo. Before we could slow the machine down to normal the dancers had raced into each other trying to follow the calls. Then, just as things were about to normal, in would shoot another log.

Our recent gathering of the clans at Asilomar this past February was heralded by the wildest Pacific Coast weather in years. One night the winds managed to fell enough trees to cause sixteen breaks in the local electrical hookup, and for the better part of a day we somehow managed to struggle through with auxiliary equipment. We found we were almost lost, but not quite, in our dependence upon electricity.

Indeed, one could add many chapters to this book. Perhaps you were with us in Lethbridge, Canada when the power failed, and with no auxiliary electricity on hand we had to improvise with play-party games for an extremely long forty-five minutes until power was restored.

All of this just leads up to one thing. If we want to say thank you to the folks that make square dancing available to all of us, perhaps we should go right to the top and say thank you to Ben Franklin. We should also include the folks who have designed the electronic gear that carries the electricity that makes the microphones and tubes function, so that we in turn can play the records, work the microphones, hear the callers, and enjoy all the benefits of square dancing.

Here's a helpful hint. You may have already discovered that if you smile when you make a goof everyone else will think that they made the mistake.

Our Helping Hands — and Feet

IN THE "have you ever wondered" department of Sets in Order this month the subject of square dances and record reports moves into the spotlight. Have you ever wondered where we get the almost four hundred square dances each year that appear in the workshop section? Here's a quick rundown:

In areas all over the world, wherever people square dance, individuals with a desire to contribute something to the movement create first in their heads and then on paper a dance composition which they feel they would like to share with others. This dance may be quite simple, based on established basics. It may contain a different gimmick or a special method of getting in or out of a figure. Whatever it may be, its proud composer — either a caller or an enthusiastic dancer — puts it into his best form, then sends it on to Sets in Order.

Every square dance reaching us (some months there are as many as a hundred) is forwarded on to our square dance editor, Bob Page, in Hayward, California (some 450 miles from Sets in Order offices here in Los Angeles).

Member's of Bob Page's Sets in Order Workshop work out dances before publication

Accumulating the material, Bob checks over every dance, groups it according to its style and from this accumulation prepares a program. Now the true workshopping begins.

To evaluate efficiently these different dances Bob and Nita Page have formed a special Sets in Order workshop. Comprised of fifty-six couples from over thirty-two different cities in the San Francisco Bay Area the group meets two Fridays each month for the sole purpose of testing the danceability of the various contributions.

The couples in the workshop average seven or eight years of dancing. Many have been in the activity for fourteen or fifteen years and they represent a true sounding board of square dance experience. It is through this workshop and with the aid of these dancers that the decisions are finally made on just which of the dances will be the ones printed each month.

For each dance accepted, perhaps five or more are tried. Those offerings that are accepted are ones that express some originality, contain comfortable movements, and are sensible creations which could be used equally as well in one area as another. As you can imagine, the square dance contents of each Sets in Order Workshop represent many hours put in by the Pages and their able crew.

Have you ever wondered just how we get our reviews of new releases presented in each issue's record report (On the Record)? As in the case of the dance workshop, the many new record releases coming out each month need careful evaluation before they can conscientiously be reviewed. As many of you have discovered, listening to a record is not nearly enough. What might sound acceptable in a new dance may often fall apart when dancers try to work out the timing.

In handling the square dance reviews, Merl Olds, a comparative old timer among callers, accumulates all the releases each month and on one Sunday night invites callers in the area to a special Sets in Order record review workshop.

All of the called releases which have accumulated to this point are programmed and in series of three calls to a tip those taking part in the workshop dance each of the with-call routines, trying as best they can not to rush or change their normal style of dancing in order to compensate for errors or changes in timing.

At the beginning of the evening each of the participants is provided a questionnaire on which he personally evaluates each record. During the breaks those on hand discuss with Merl the attributes and pitfalls of the various selections. The following day, with the workshop very present in his thinking, Merl once

Miscellaneous Ramblings

PERHAPS, LIKE US, you've been a fan of Jimmy Shand and his band and have enjoyed the Scottish music on his Capitol LP album "My Scotland." We'd like to suggest that you get a copy of his new Mercury album (MGI 203) called "Step We Gaily." At least four of the tracks are excellent for contras. It's a goodie.

Having a big dance? If you're bringing a lot of folks together for a colossal festival put your most talented committees to work on acoustics. An element as simple as sound may make the difference between success and failure of your festival. If you want to be on the safe side why not avail yourselves of the services of a square dancer sound expert? We don't mean just a sound engineer, but we mean someone who knows sound from the standpoint of a square dancer. It's one thing to be able to hear the sound, another to understand clearly the hundreds of commands that will be issued during one three-hour festival dance. We know of a couple of outstanding men in this field, if you ever need a hand. One is Jim Hilton, 4015 Coolidge Avenue, Oakland, California; the other is Howard Earl, 328 South Sycamore, Los Angeles, California. Undoubtedly there are others, but these fellows have lifted many a potential festival flop out of the fire with some rather phenomenal results.

Remember a couple of months ago (SIO March 1962) we wrote about Pat and Jill McQuaid leaving the homeland of England and coming to America (or at least Texas) to seek their fortune? Well, for a while it appeared that things were going like clockwork. Pat's square dance calling and teaching in San Antonio were on the upswing and Pat and Jill had quite an ambitious cross-country calling tour laid out for them. Now, for the time being it least, it appears that the plans will have to wait. For Pat's and Jill's attempt to become good one-hundred percent American citizens has taken a rather unexpected turn. This month civilian Pat McQuaid becomes Airman Pat McQuaid, United States Air Force, presently stationed in San Antonio, Texas. Well sir, that's the way it goes.

NO STRANGER TO SQUARE DANCING

AT ANY GIVEN SQUARE DANCE you might expect to see smiling people having a good time; to hear the infectious beat of the hoe-down, the voice of the caller and the shuffle of dancing feet. If you would look in at the YW-CA on the University of Hawaii Campus each week you would see and hear all of this — and much more. Look, there! A lady dancing in a sari and she wears an Indian caste symbol on her forehead. Another smiling girl wears the “terno” or mestiza dress of the Philippines. There are western and Hawaiian shirts, as well, and girls in the traditional calico.

This description is of a wonderfully successful square dance activity which began last December when Mr. Seymour Lutzky of the East-West Center in Honolulu telephoned the City Recreation Department to locate a square dance caller. He was put in touch with Hon Wa Wat, youthful veteran of calling in the Islands. Lutzky, an associate Professor of English and American studies at the new East-West Center, got his square dance start in Maryland and decided that his students would enjoy a fling at the most American of all dances, the square dance.

A bit about the East-West Center itself would seem to be in order. There are now 240 foreign students in the graduate school there. These are carefully chosen, must speak English and are given 2-year scholarships for studies in zoology, philosophy, etc. They may come from India, Nepal, Pakistan, the Philippines, Burma, Indonesia, Japan, Hong Kong, Formosa or Australia and, upon completion of their course, will return to their homes with their expanded knowledge and experience.

In his square dance class for these students, Hon Wa started with the "20 basics" in an 8-week experimental course, to see how it would go. The program met with enthusiasm from the very start and about 60 students attend the weekly dances. After the 8-week trial run Hon Wa launched into a more controlled, closed group for the second semester. He uses all patter calls and there is no language problem since all the students speak English well. Even if there were, Hon Wa could oblige by calling in Chinese, Hawaiian or Japanese!

Lutzky, his wife and daughter, come to dance with the group regularly and local members of Jeans and Janes and McCully Calabash Cousins come in to help out.

The students display none of the reserve so often associated with Eastern cultures. They enjoy the dancing in uninhibited style and applaud spontaneously after every tip.

There are sometimes more men than girls and one night the class was short just one girl. Two men got up automatically and filled in the spot, so that everyone could dance. A student from Nepal is especially interesting to observe dancing as he does the figures with such precision; it is likely there is military training in his background. All of the students are quick to learn and have an innate sense of fun which they bring to the dancing.

On the final evening of the original course, when all the dancing was over, the young people from Pakistan provided a fitting topper by singing "Clementine" and "The Little Shoemaker" in Pakistani. To say that the Lutzkys and caller Hon Wa were charmed is putting it mildly. They had developed some real square dancers in their friends from foreign lands.

OLD ZIP COON

By Terry Golden, Colorado Springs, Colo.

GENERALLY SPEAKING, Smart Alecism is not at much of a premium. The law of supply and demand tends to keep the price down, especially in high schools. But once in a while there comes onto the stage a Smart Alec of talents so exceptional that the world is willing to pay them homage — and almage. Some of them even make a living at it. Groucho Marx, for instance.

Another such was Sigmund Spaeth, a brilliant musician and a brilliant wit. I recommend to you two of his books, "Read 'Em and Weep, The Songs You Forgot to Remember," and its sequel, "Weep Some More My Lady," more songs in the same vein. Generally, the songs in these collections are not folk songs in the truest sense. Most of them are popular American

THEMES ADAPTABLE TO ANY MONTH

WHILE THIS PARTICULAR COLUMN generally talks about specific themes for specific months, it is often wise to look for that type of decoration which, by a few simple additions or changes, may be adapted to almost any time of year. This is especially appreciated when a decoration takes a bit longer to execute and if it can be put away carefully in a closet or garage and re-discovered a few months later in a brand new set of circumstances, hurray for the designer and hurray for the wise planning committee.

Here, then, is idea number one, with a tip of the hat to Connie Connaughton of Anaheim, California.

Many square dance seamstresses have collections of interesting colors of nylon net which will eventually find their way into petticoats for dancing. However, in the interim before they become petticoats, they shouldn't be neglected as possible sources of party table decorations.

For instance, swatches of colored net around the edge of a white tablecloth and caught up at intervals with artificial flowers, gold or silver leaves, etc., with net "falls" to the floor, make a most elegant looking table and leave the entire top free for placement of refreshments. Of course, if you wish, other ornamentation on the table top is very much in order.

This idea can be fitted to any season. In springtime shades of pink, green, violet and yellow with contrasting flowers or greenery catching up the net swathing at intervals, will be most attractive. In July you might choose red, white and blue swatches of net, fastened with tiny American flags. Or, if you have a solid colored tablecloth, try white net for a change of pace in decorating.

The nylon net, after it has served as a glamorous party table decoration, can go right back in the drawer, none the worse for its experience, and await its turn at becoming a petticoat.

Idea number two was designed by Lee Ball, and the Delmarines Square Dance Club have already put it to the test with abundant use.

A pair of square dancers, approximately 12" high, were drawn on paper and transferred to corrugated cardboard. While the cut-out paperdolls appear to be separate they are actually one piece of cardboard, identical on both sides. The natural cardboard color was left for the skin tones while white paint was used for the girl's dress and the man's shirt, black paint for the hair, trousers, belt, shoes, boots and as an outline and accent on the white paint. A dash of red paint does the gal's hairbow and peeking pantalette leg.

Pure genius was called upon when Lee, with a bit of bending and shaping, transformed an ordinary wire coat hanger into a stand for the dancing dolls. The holes in the corrugated cardboard make a natural tunnel for the wire stand to enter.

Lee made several of these figures when he had the time and the decorating committee has them to use whenever they wish. For example — February: Set the dancers on top of large red Valentine hearts; April: Arrange green Easter "grass" around the base of the dancers with a few dyed or jelly-bean eggs for color; May: Spread fresh garden flowers at the feet of the couple and you'll have them dancing off into the prettiest spring ever.

IT'S ASILOMAR

Where the livin's easy and the cookin's great

"What is Asilomar?" you ask.

"What's this line about the livin's easy and the cookin's great?"

"Say, can I join?"

Now, slow down, wait just a minute. Catch your breath and I'll fill you in.

Asilomar is a place, an invisible dot on your map of California located between Carmel and Monterey, a last step into the laps of the gods. Asilomar translated means a "refuge by the sea" and that it is — a refuge for square dancers — for when you pass through the gates into Asilomar you enter the haven for all Sets in Order square dance vacation institutes.

All right, I haven't forgotten, and if you'll just lift your elbow out of my rib I'll get on with the easy livin' and so forth.

Once you step into this earthly heaven you can forget the chores of making beds, fixing dinner, washing dishes, planning menus, in fact making any plans at all. It's all taken care of for you. And if you'll just ask any of the alumni of the past 25 Asilomar sessions . . . (Let's see, multiply 25 by 200 dancers and you get 4,000. That's quite a lot of people to ask. Of course that's fudging just a bit because an awful lot of these folks are year after year returnees — they just can't shake the habit. But I think I've wandered somewhat . . .) Oh yes, just ask any of the folks who've been there about the cookin' and you're likely to get a far away stare, a slight watering about the lips, a delicate pat of the middle, and then you'd better leave before they start answering, unless you've got a lot of time.

What's that you say? Oh yes, can you join? Sure, but don't get me wrong; this isn't exactly a club that you join; this is a vacation you participate in; this is a slice of square dance enjoyment at its purest; this is — well, as I said — a refuge by the sea. You can drop a rather ordinary note to Sets in Order asking for a rather ordinary brochure about it — but you'll have to come and sample it for yourself to see.*

Say, and for you 4,000 alumni who keep asking if you can get some of the recipes, we're sorry but they're a bit reluctant to part with their secrets, and anyway the quantities might throw you just a bit — 50 lbs. of flour, 4 gallons of water, 25 lbs. of sugar. However we did persuade Roma Philbrook, the Greek goddess who manages this cloud, to give out with her Date-Nut Bread recipe. Remember that delicious ambrosia everyone drools over?

So here it is. Treat it with love. We'll see you around the table in July.

*P.S. We also do a bit of square dancing there.

Roma Date-Nut Bread

1 lb. dates, cut fine	1 tsp. salt
2 tsp. soda	½ cup chopped nuts
¾ cup hot water	¼ cup butter
2 eggs, beaten	2 tsp. baking powder
1½ cups sugar	2¾ cups flour
1 tsp vanilla

Sprinkle soda over dates, pour hot water over all. Combine eggs, sugar, vanilla and salt. Add date mix to it. Add remaining ingredients. Line pans with waxed paper. Bake in hot oven 10-15 minutes; turn oven low and bake 30 minutes.

A TOUCH OF THOUGHTFULNESS

Wheel 'n
Squares

Everyone enjoys being appreciated both for himself and for his accomplishments. A note of recognition helps spark that inner glow of enthusiasm and kindles a genuine warmth of well being.

We often receive letters praising a job well done by a festival committee or club president. But appreciation can well go beyond the obvious and a bit of thinking on the subject may uncover some new ideas. Here, for instance, are some unique examples of Club appreciation.

The Bonnie Dooners Square Dance Club of Edmonton, Alberta, Canada, was understandably proud of one of its member-couples who attended every one of the club dances during the past year. They felt this support and loyalty to the club should be recognized and after quite a bit of thinking designed a badge to honor the pair.

A replica of the famous spouting geyser with its name above, Old Faithful, is the theme for the badge, and in addition to the person's name it also carried the year of his unbroken record of attendance.

Bonnie
Dooners

A nice way for a club to say, "Thank You."

Down in Pocatello, Ida., another square dance group was doing a lot of talking about the guests who came to dance with them. They enjoyed having dancers visit them both from other clubs in the local area and visitors from out of town who were passing through the city. They wanted to show their appreciation for these guests and in addition wanted them to remember their visit to the Wheel'n Squares.

The result was to gift each visiting square dancer with a guest badge. The badges are an exact duplication of the members' badges except, instead of an individual's name appearing across the center, the word "guest" has been imprinted.

Looking behind the scenes, we find that the Wheel'n Squares have a club sheriff, appointed by the members, who has the power to level fines of 10¢ on members for wearing new dresses, new shirts, new shoes, not wearing their badges, etc. This money is kept in a special fund to pay for the guest badges.

The Wheel'n Squares are likely to find their thoughtfulness being sung loud and far, for a happy and well-treated guest is a mighty able town crier.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO YOU

SQUARE DANCERS ARE the doggondest, friendliest folks and there just isn't a square dance club in existence that doesn't celebrate birthdays, anniversaries, arrivals of children or grandchildren and anything else that can be dreamed up.

Yet even with this jolly, family relationship there are some folks who automatically hesitate to sign their birthday on a club roster and who therefore may be overlooked unintentionally in the happy round of celebrations. This is just one of those quirks of human nature and there's no need probing for an explanation.

But, we can offer a solution! During some dance night tell all your members that you've got something special cooked up and would like each person to sign and fill out a questionnaire located on the entrance table (or refreshment table or stage, etc.). The sheet of paper may include as many various titled columns as you wish as long as two of the columns are labeled "Birth Day" and "Birth Month." Some suggestions might be "Favorite Number," "Last Digit of Phone Number,” and “Last Number in Weight.” Be sure that everyone participates.

When the page has been completed you'll have an accurate list of the day and month of each member's birthday, but you don't even need to stress this. Instead gloss over your accomplishment by dedicating one tip to all the folks whose birthdays are being celebrated that month (Remember, you've got the information on that sheet of paper!), or invite all those folks whose birthday is in the current month to be at the head of the refreshment line, or anything else you'd care to invent.

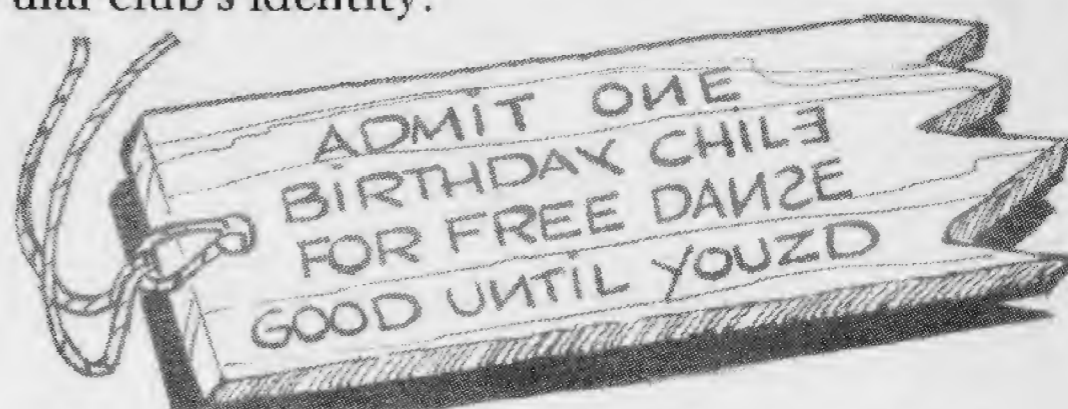

The important thing is that you'll have a record for your club of everyone's birthday and it will have been obtained in an unsuspected and painless manner. Thanks to Lorraine and Bill Gilbert for this happy birthday thought.

Another Birthday Idea

The Beverly Hillbillies Club has a unique and extremely thoughtful way of remembering the birthdays of their club members and this idea is certainly worth passing along to other groups for their consideration.

On the regular dance night occurring closest to a club member's birthday, the Club Board presents each birthday “chile” with a small wooden paddle which states that it is a free admission to a future club dance and is “good until youzd.” Of course the “ticket” of free admission could be made in any form suitable to a particular club's identity.

Naturally the birthday member must be present to receive his “admission” gift, and then after he receives it, he'll surely attend the next dance to redeem his prize. Am I wrong, or is there a method in this jolly madness?

SQUARE DANCE PARTY FUN

NURSERY RHYMES

Here's a party stunt in which your entire group may participate and which works equally well with large or small audiences. Best of all there's no pre-planning nor props to prepare. The only forethought necessary is to be sure your group is seated in a fairly central location, all facing the same direction. Because spoken signals must be given by leaders it would be difficult for folks seated around the perimeter of a hall or seated at refreshment tables spread far apart to hear and take part.

Divide the group in half. No need to do this physically but just designate your division perhaps by calling one side the Allemanders Team and the other, the Promenaders Team. Then select a leader for each. It doesn't matter if you choose two gals or two men or one of each. This is really an impartial stunt!

You may give the directions for the game to the teams and the leaders at the same time — no pre-instructing necessary. And here are the simple instructions:

This is a contest to see which team knows the most children's nursery rhymes. The Allemanders Team will start and together will chant the first two lines of a nursery rhyme decided upon by their leader. At the conclusion of these two lines the entire team will count out loud up to ten and on the next beat the Promenaders Team will chant the first two lines of a different rhyme chosen by their leader. Then they in turn will count up to ten and the contest goes back to the Allemanders Team.

No nursery rhyme may be used more than once and the teams will continue to compete against each other until one fails either to use a new poem or neglects to begin their rhyme on the first beat following the chant of “ten” by their opponents. (The chanting of the poems in a measured rhythm will help establish a beat for everyone to follow.)

You'll also need two scorekeepers to briefly jot down the rhymes used by the teams and to catch any repetitions.

That's all there is to it. Now, away we go with:

Mary, Mary, quite contrary
How does your garden grow?
1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10 and
Hi diddle diddle, the cat and the fiddle
The cow jumped over the moon.
1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10.

THE SQUARE DANCER SPEAKS UP

LET'S DO MORE MIXING

By Alan Burke, Neptune, Sask., Canada

HERE IS A SQUARE DANCE "commandment" which I believe members of all square dance clubs could well take a good look at:

Thou Shalt Not Let the Stranger in Thy Midst Sit on the Sidelines and Cool His Heels, Nor Fail to Speak to Him.

I am speaking for myself and for our club, which does a lot of traveling. We find that at a lot of dances and jamborees we attend if you don't dance in your own group all the time, your ladies do a lot of sitting out. Men can go and ask anyone for a dance but the ladies don't feel that they can run all over the floor and ask some strange man for a dance.

In my opinion the caller at a club should make sure he prompts his club members to see that nobody is sitting out a dance unless he wants to. At our club our caller is very alert to this so that members automatically observe the situation to see that all guests are dancing.

One of the main reasons for visiting another club or a jamboree is to dance with new people and so get acquainted with them a little. If you have to dance all the dances with your own group, you might as well stay at home.

So, let's make it a personal responsibility to mix up the personnel in squares a little.

SHARING RESPONSIBILITY PART OF CLUB FUN

By Mona Cremi — Los Angeles, Calif.

I READ WITH INTEREST the article, "On Hard-Working Club Officers" in the March Sets in Order. I agree with the author. There are too many clubs with working committees who hold office year after year, working endlessly, because some of the other members don't want to be bothered; they just want to dance. It would be a nice idea to admit the working officers free on the nights they have the duty.

The loss of a square dancer from a club is usually regrettable but, pressure of work, slapped on the shoulders of a few members year after year, can result in letters of resignation.

It is inevitable that some members refuse to help, I suppose. However, the majority of club members will nearly always go all out with a pleasant willingness, when asked. After all, it's a small price to pay. Where else in the world can we have so much fun as in the dancing field — for so little? We must all share and do our part to make the club successful.

There is probably no immediate solution to the problem of the club shirkers. Most of the members go on giving, sharing the happiness, doing the necessary club work. This is, I believe, the basic groundwork out of which we "do unto others." We know deep in our hearts that we are well-rewarded by the satisfaction of having given a fraction of our very best in sharing responsibility.

A parting thought to the shirkers: if we evade our responsibility to our clubs then we have only ourselves to reproach when we find our clubs closing their doors to us. No one of us is barred from experiencing the pride and joy that come with accomplishment of work shared. Try it; it's fun!

"BADGE-GRABBERS"

By Al Berry — Hope, B.C., Canada

I WOULD LIKE to draw your readers' attention to a small group of people who are, in my opinion, turning a useful fun element into a laughable farce. I refer to the "badge-grabbers," who will do anything from invading a stranger's privacy at any hour to refusing to belong to any club (yes, there is a badge for that, too!).

It seems to me that an idea that was originally introduced to encourage people in square dance friendliness (i.e., the Knotheads) has been copied, imitated and maligned to the point where someone's sanity is in question. Maybe it's mine — but I suggest it's time we called a slow-down on much of the ludicrousness that is being offered up in the name of fun.

Care to join my club? It's called the "Do-Nothings" — just send two dollars and do nothing until you hear from me!

I realize that some of this type of thing is offered in the best interest of square dancing but surely we don't have to kill a good idea by overwork. Soon they'd have a badge for squares that dress alike and callers that call in quartets.

SQUARE DANCING: A PATTERN FOR CHRISTIAN LIFE

By Rev. William Moremen — San Bernardino, Calif.

(From "Church Life" — publication of the First Congregational United Church of Christ, San Bernardino, California —reprinted by special permission.)

A GROUP OF PEOPLE in our church have been meeting together every week to square dance under the leadership of one of our members, Bob Ballou. These people are enjoying themselves tremendously; square dancing has been a good contribution to the fellowship of the church.

Some activities of life can become symbols for important meanings beyond themselves. Such an activity, I believe, is square dancing. Besides being simply enjoyable recreation, square dancing holds within it some symbolic wisdom relating to further meanings of life.

A "square" with eight people facing each other is a microcosm of community life. Seen from the standpoint of the Christian Faith a "square" can be thought of as a microcosm of the community of faith — the church. Within this little community, eight people meet each other, walk with each other, greet each other, go around each other, pass through, pass by, pass over, pass under, and join hands in a hundred intricate patterns.

Several things are learned in square dancing. First there is the truth of the Apostle Paul's idea: "If one member suffers all suffer together." We find that we are actually related to the person across the square — whether we want to be or not. Even if that person does not cross my path, what he does and how well he does it have repercussions on me and my enjoyment; on the other hand, how well I enter in affects him.

Another thing that is learned is that freedom and responsibility go together. The freest dancers are those who are the most responsive to the caller, to the other dancers, and to the structure of the dance. Likewise we find as Christians that freedom in the Christian Faith is freedom issuing in responsibility; responsibility to one's vocation, to others, and to the body of Christ which is the church.

Jesus summed up the law in these words: "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind and with all your strength — and you shall love your neighbor as yourself." Square dancing, in a very natural way, seems to bring to bear the requirements of this law. As any square dancer will tell you, while he's dancing, all his heart, soul, mind and strength is called for; also he is called to relate to his neighbor as a person as important as he. It is a logical step for a Christian to say that it is the love of God that he is expressing as he dances with heart, soul, mind and strength and it is really love for his neighbor that is required of him as he moves around the square.

Latest Developments on the 11th National Square Dance Convention Miami Beach, Fla. — June 14-16, 1962

Important Notice... Registration blanks and information for the 11th National Convention can be obtained by writing to Frank Cornwall, 359 N.E. 104th St., Miami Shores 38, Fla.

Cruise to Nassau... Exciting news from the Transportation Chairmen for the 11th National. They have just announced a cruise to Nassau in the Bahamas on the completely air-conditioned SS Bahama Star on June 18. Passengers will embark at 5 P.M. and will return June 21 at 9 A.M. The ship is the hotel and fares start at $54.00 plus tax per person. Children up to three years of age are free and up to twelve years half fare. The fare includes all meals and snacks, which are numerous.

Included will be two days and one night in Nassau, supervised entertainments and square dancing both going and coming, as well as at the Emerald Beach Hotel Convention Hall in Nassau. Capacity is limited so those who wish to top off the National with a cruise are invited to contact at once Carl Dutrow, 3120 W. Hallandale Beach Blvd., Hallandale, Fla.

Housing Information... On the location of hotels, the appropriate committee announces that 17th, 18th and 19th streets run into the Miami Beach Convention Hall and Auditorium, where the dancing will be held. The hotels are on Collins Avenue, two short blocks east of these facilities. By using the map on your registration form as a guide, hotels can be located as to distance from the halls.

The hotels listed on the registration forms have contracts with the 11th National Convention and rates are firm; there will be no increase at check-in time. These rates will also prevail several days before and after the Convention for those interested.

MAP is "Modified American Plan", breakfast and dinner. Average fee for MAP is $3.00 per day per person and is optional. The hotels offering MAP are so identified on the forms and it can be arranged for at check-in time.

Although there are no trailer parks in Miami Beach, there are several in Miami proper within a distance of 5 miles from the Convention Hall for the convenience of trailerites.

National Convention Round Dances... Paul and Delight Trent, who are Directors of Square Dance Rounds for the Miami Beach Convention, announce the results of an extensive poll taken to determine popular rounds to be scheduled on the square dance programs at the 11th National. In order that you may practice up ahead of time, here is the list:

Sleepy Time Gal	Yogi
Clarinet Capers	Pazzo-Pazzo
When Lights are Low	Kon Tiki
King of the Mountain	Dreams of Happiness
Bye Bye Blues	Rainier Waltz
My Baby Just Cares for Me	Lady Be Good
Happy Pair	Silk and Satin
Blue Hours	Our Love Song

Details of Children's Activities... Children between the ages of 6 and 16 will be offered the following planned trips during the 3 days of the 11th National:

Trip Transportation: Children will be picked up daily at 9 A.M., at a designated area of the Convention Hall, in air-conditioned buses and returned at approximately 4 P.M. Square dance hosts and trained recreation personnel will accompany each bus.

Thursday, June 14: Children will be transported to boat docks, leaving for a scenic tour of the Inland Waterway, viewing many places of interest. Later they will visit a Seminole Indian Village.

Friday, June 15: Busses will leave at 9 A.M. for a trip to the fabulous Seaquarium. After lunch the children will visit Crandon Park Zoo. Delightful amusement rides here (at about 10c per ride) include a helicopter, boat, merry-go-round, pony cart and fire engine.

Saturday, June 16: Children will tour the Parrot Jungle, a tropical paradise. The P.M. will be spent at an ocean front beach camp area.

Only children registered in advance for the Convention will be accepted. Cost? Any one day's trip, $2.50 per child including lunch; any two days' trip, $5.00 per child including lunch; all three days' trips; $7.50 per child including lunches. Proper forms for registering children must be filled out and mailed with a check before May 15, 1962, to Jack Woody, Regis. Committee, Box 2427, Miami Beach 40, Fla., so act now!

LET'S TAKE A LOOK AT SQUARE DANCING

By Joe and Betty Hall — Seattle, Wash.

MORE PEOPLE ARE learning to square dance today than were learning ten years ago; a much smaller percentage are staying with it. Dancers do not keep dancing as long as they did then. That is the problem we as teachers and callers must face. Bringing in more beginners isn't the whole answer — we have to make it more fun for the dancers, make them want to stick with it for years rather than fade out when the novelty is gone.

Where Are We Going Wrong?

Are there too many fundamentals to absorb?

I doubt it. Most dancers who are lost because square dancing is too "difficult" are lost because of poor teaching and calling. Many beginners never get to know the enjoyment of dancing to music. They go through a series of hand movements, with never a thought to stepping to the beat of the music, and after a while this stops being fun. They quit before they ever know the pleasure of really dancing. This wouldn't happen if they were taught to enjoy the rhythm of the dance as well as the mechanical movements.

Whose fault is this?

We can't escape it. It is the teacher and caller who sets the pattern. Only the dancer who enjoys the smooth rhythm of the music will keep dancing with us year after year, but it can't be enjoyed if the teacher and caller doesn't make it available.

Are we over-organized?

In many cases, we are. Our club members, particularly the officers, have too many duties. Many once-enthusiastic dancers become disillusioned after becoming an officer. Many quit. A past officer told me he quit because: "I paid for it, I worked for it, and I never got it." Always some club duties kept him from dancing.

Do our clubs have too many activities other than square dancing?

Often they do. The club becomes a casual social organization, with the dancing purely incidental. This is not a criticism of clubs, which are a vital and necessary part of square dancing. Only, let's keep them square dance clubs and encourage the members to get their pleasure from dancing.

Do we have too many gimmicks to promote our dances?

Yes. Pot-lucks. Hard times dances. Competitions. Bingo games. Anything to draw a crowd. People say: "The dance isn't much, but that club really feeds good." It may help the crowd for a time, but it doesn't draw the people who really love to dance, and those are the dancers who will stay with us. Gimmicks are fine if they add to the fun, but when we start to lean on them to draw our crowds, we are in real trouble. Competition between clubs and within clubs doesn't keep them dancing. When people enroll in our classes, their only interest is dancing. Somewhere along the line we have gone wrong when they become more interested in the gimmicks than in the dancing.

Do we try too hard to keep our students exclusively ours?

Yes, for the good of square dancing and for our own good as well. No dancer can learn to dance anywhere and everywhere unless, when his basic lessons are over, he gets out and dances to more than one caller. And only a dancer who can do that stays with the game through the years. Are we afraid that when our dancers hear someone else they won't come back to us? If so, we should improve our product. Are we ashamed of our dancers? If so, we should teach them better.

Do we cater too much to dancers who think they want a constant challenge?

Sometimes we do. Some challenge is good, but the rhythm of the music and the calling is the prime reason for dancing. Any level can be enjoyed by any dancer if the fundamentals used can be danced instead of wrestled through.

Do the squabbles within our association hurt us?

More than some of us think they do. The word gets out — the dancers aren't stupid. Most of them don't care one way or the other how we get along with each other, but they go to dances to have a good time. When the fussing and feuding overshadows the rest of it, they'll go bowling or stay at home and watch television.

The Answer?

Teach our students to dance smoothly and with a real appreciation of the music. Teach them to have a good time. Avoid smothering them with too many gimmicks unrelated to square dancing. Do that and they will dance a much longer time, swell our crowds, and help the game grow. And that is what we are really selling.

TIPS TO BEGINNING CALLERS—or—

MASTERING THE MYSTERIES OF THE MIKE

LEADERS IN THE FIELD of square dance calling —men and women who have years of hard-won experience behind them — have some pretty definite ideas on what it takes to be a caller, what attitudes and attributes. For those who are thinking of dipping into this aspect of the square dance activity, we present some points to ponder, gleaned from talking and listening to some of the aforementioned leaders.

It helps to — first of all — be a good dancer. You should understand generally accepted basics well before you attempt to call them. Then start slowly, with one night stands, perhaps. Build up your confidence by calling to small groups, just one or two squares — and practice, practice, practice your timing, phrasing, pitch, clarity, etc. Use tape recorders and listen to your own calls, seeking constant improvement in this manner. Do use people to practice with, however, and not just the tape recorder.

Keep in mind always to do the best job possible with the material you know. Sometimes new material is a substitute for doing other material well. Concentrate on using the familiar material well and do not hesitate to use good figures to their maximum. Put the smile into your voice as well as on your face. Project yourself into your calling and get with the group on the floor. Think of yourself as being one with those dancers out there and keep all the people dancing — not just the majority.

Listen to records with calls and preferably to “live” callers and analyze what they did that made the full floor of dancers so happy. Study books such as the Sets in Order 5-year Book and subsequent 1-year anthologies; and read some good books on calling, such as Bob Dawson's and Don Bell's, “Keys to Calling.” Start with the simpler dances and, even though it seems irksome, progress slowly, so that you have mastered perfectly each more advanced type of call. Use simple singing calls, memorize them — then it becomes knowledge. Employ the same words used and memorized in singing calls and try them to patter records. This may seem very hard at first, but keep trying. Your timing will benefit.

Quadrilles are good for the beginning caller, as well as the 2/4, 4/4 and 6/8 rhythms. They are good practice and will help you to use and feel phrasing. This adds variety to your program, too, and gets your dancers to dance to rhythm.

As for memorizing, realize right at the start that you have to make your memory work — and to stretch it if you are going to be a bona fide caller. No one method of memorizing works for everybody, so talk with callers you know and find out how they do it. Talk with some school teachers and get some hints on memory training. Above all, train yourself to see action as you say words. Your total familiarity with the basics will show you what they do and where they leave the dancers so that you can know positively what can be done next in the call.

The use of idiot sheets has come in for a lot of scorching, mainly because to be continually reading breaks the line of communication if you cannot watch the floor. Keep your memory and mind active by training it to accept calls. As you grow, the memorizing becomes easier. You are then thinking like a caller.

It would be safe to say there is no quick, sure method of learning to call. It is work and must be entered into with enough drive and enthusiasm to carry past the special work required at the beginning, if you're going to make a go of it. There is no substitute for experience here, either.

(With thanks to Bob Dawson, Max Forsyth, Jack Jackson and Earl Johnston for source material for the foregoing.)

STYLE SERIES:

TRIO

MIXED IN WITH WHEELS and Deals, Star Thrus, and the Dixie Chains of today's square dancing are many older figures that continue to give variety and pleasure.

Our first oldie has "been in the books" for a good number of years and bears the rather descriptive title of Split Your Corner. In an example the head couples move forward (1) turn their back on their partner (2), join inside hands with the new partner and move forward. They then split the outside pair (each individual moving between his corner and corner's partner) and in our illustration man number one will go behind his corner girl and head for home (3).

In recent months the call "heads separate, join the sides" has appeared in several dances (for example: Be Happy, SIO #F-115). To do this the active couple simply takes a step toward the center of the square (1) then each person turns his back on his partner to face the side couples (2). Unless the sides were to be split, however, they would not separate but would remain side by side ready to circle, right and left thru, or follow other commands with the active couples.

Another oldie that has come in for a bit of usage in current square dancing is a modification of the old Texan Whirl. Starting from an eight hand star (4) the ladies will roll out letting one man go by and rejoining the star. The illustrations follow one couple (x). On the command:

Ladies turn in a Texan Whirl
Join the star, move around the world

the ladies leave the star in a moderately wide left face turn (5). The men continue moving and at the same time bend their elbows to make their star smaller. The girls move around them (6) and then rejoin the star behind the next man (7). This can either be done for a total of four times, until starting partners are reunited, or can be done any number of times to accomplish a desired result. Though a star figure, this does not have to be a wide pattern movement. It does provide a great amount of variety in today's rather regimented selection of confined and restrictive movements.

Our Corpus Christi friends, Jean and Roger Knapp, remind us of an oldie we haven't seen done for quite a number of years. The call goes:

will move to the center and back, as they might in the call for Texas Star (ladies to the center and back to the bar). As the ladies move into the center (9) the men move to the left, either in a sashay or walking step, passing behind their corner. Then, as the girls back up into place (10) to rejoin hands, each man has his corner for a partner. This movement may be done once to obtain a needed effect or can be repeated four times to get original starting partners. To achieve a comfortable movement the men will not stop their progress to the left, and as the ladies move in toward the center the effect is that of swaying in and slightly to the right, while facing in toward the center the entire time. This movement accomplishes the

Ladies in the center and the gents sashay
Circle to the left in the same old way.

or

Ladies center and back and the men sashay
Now circle to the left in the usual way.

From a square of dancers circling to the left (8) on the command (shown above) ladies same purpose as a corner swing.

Some of these old movements, which at one time formed separate and complete dances, now provide us with some comfortable and flowing bits of variety which can do much to spice up the regular square dance program.

LADIES on the SQUARE

PARTY PLUMAGE

PRETTY DRESSES FOR very dress-up square dance affairs need not necessarily be fussy, heavily-decorated and over-garnished to catch the eye and gladden the heart. Connie Connaughton, a bright-idea square dancer from Anaheim, California, has come up with one of the most beautiful and yet least ornate party dresses of all time.

The skirt is the thing. It is made of five circles — yes, that's right — of permanently pleated shell pink nylon organdy, which was pleated professionally in a Los Angeles establishment by being oven-treated. The five circles pleat up into the waist very readily because of the thin material and the pleating treatment.

Nylon lace insertion threaded with washable nylon velvet ribbon in a deeper shade of pink than the skirt is the only trimming. The dress is finished off with a simple pink cotton top. Two circles of nylon taffeta form an underskirt which is attached.

The heavenly part of this gauzy creation is that, for all its delicacy, it is machine-washable! Connie just runs a basting thread thru all the pleats of the skirt, both at the insertion and at the bottom of the skirt, and throws it all in her washer. It comes out beautifully and is dry in minutes. The thread is kept in until the whole is dry.

A perfect petticoat to wear with such a simply elegant dress is one which Connie designed to be worn by the Skirts 'n' Flirts, a junior exhibition group for which Connie does the teaching and calling.

Using a 45-inch-wide nylon paper taffeta, Connie folds the material crossways according to the desired finished length of the petticoat. She allots 1½" for hem and waistband, less 8" for the bottom ruffle to be attached later. In other words, for a 27" completed petticoat, the finished taffeta section will be 19" long. After folding the material, Connie marks it out in gores. Starting from the selvedge edge, she measures 2½", 11", 1½", 11", 1½", 11", 1½" and leaves the balance at the top edge. Along the bottom edge she measures 7", 1½", 11", 1½", 11", 1½", 11" across the 45" of material. She then cuts the gores, two at a time, from the double material, according to these measurements.

The gores are sewn together and, since the material is not easy to handle, Connie recommends using a hemmer or a flat fell seam. The two half pieces are used for the back opening.

The hem bottom is rolled, the waistband is added to fit, with the skirt material tucked up into it, and two gripper snaps are attached.

For the nylon net ruffle which edges the bottom of the petticoat Connie uses every color in the rainbow. From each color she cuts 1 6-inch piece and to it adds 2 3-inch shirred pieces. She makes another ruffle and adds 2 4-inch pieces and 4 3-inch shirred pieces. The second ruffle is shirred and added to the original one; finally the whole business is added to the nylon taffeta section of the petticoat as one ruffle. Connie uses 14 colors of net. The total of inches of each color are 6 and 6 and 8 and 12, making 32. The ruffle comes out looking like a series of bright net puff-balls, as can be imagined, thinking of the 37¼ yards of net being used.

The petticoat adapts itself well for exhibition groups, with girls dressed in various colors, as each color could be repeated in the petticoat, aptly titled the Rainbow Petticoat.

Ginny Connaughton Jurek models the lovely party frock designed by her aunt, Kathy O'Brien and made by her mother, Connie. Under it she wears the Rainbow Petticoat and she has added a black velvet sash for effect.

Arizona Amblings

Add square dance barns. Bob Johnston has opened one in Phoenix, on North 7th St., and initiated it on New Year's Eve. It is used for classes, workshops and dances in both squares and rounds.

The 14th Annual Southern Arizona Square Dance Festival in Tucson on January 19-21 was under the direction of Chuck Kidwell this year and attracted many dancers.

On March 7 a reception was held in the Sleepy Hollow Trailer Ranch Fiesta Room honoring Ray and Cora Hack on their Golden Wedding Anniversary. More than 250 square dancers attended. The Hacks are true dance enthusiasts and each summer travel from 8,000 to 12,000 miles around the country attending conventions and festivals. — Sherm Ellis

The Square and Round Dance Festival of the Great Southwest was another important spring event, on April 13-14, in Tempe. Exhibitions, a Cowboy Breakfast, Fashion Show, and lots and lots of dancing made this an outstanding week-end. Valley of the Sun Assn. was the sponsor.

New Mexico Notes

Two bands will furnish the hoedown at the New Mexico State Assn. Festival on May 4-5 at Las Cruces, Schroeder's Playboys and Pancho Baird and his Gitfiddlers. If you have been studying the Sets in Order Date Book you will note that there is a change from the first announced date, which was in April. Dancing will happen at the Student Union Bldg., New Mexico State University Campus — Joe Brubaker

Newsworthy from Nevada

Square dancers are going to be kept busy, with two big events to choose from in Nevada in May. The first is the 15th Silver State Jubilee at Reno, in the High School Auditorium, where the Bob Smithwicks will handle rounds and Dick Houlton, Bob Van Antwerp and Skip Graham will call the squares. Mimi Smith, 428 Marsh Ave., is Registration Chairman.

Then, on May 24-26, the Western States Square Dance Convention will take place in Las Vegas. Besides dancing at the huge new Convention Center near the famous "Strip", many outside activities have been planned, such as a trip to Hoover Dam, another to a Dude Ranch complete with rodeo. — Nate Stout

Allemanding in Alaska

Things are looking up for square dancing in Valdez. Last spring brought into town some 40 families to work for the Division of Highways. Sour-Docees Club grew briskly from two to seven squares and dance every Saturday night. The beginners dance from 8-10 P.M. in the Elementary School Gym; from 10 to midnight the more advanced dancers have their innings at the Museum. Visitors to Valdez are invited to stop by. — Francis Krch

Michigan Meanderings

The Third Tulip Festival Square Dance will be held this year on May 19 at the New Holland High School Fieldhouse, Holland. Bruce Johnson will be in from Santa Barbara, Calif., to call. On May 19 Johnny LeClair will appear for the Twirl-A-Way Dancers at Alliance. Locale, the City Auditorium.

—Frank O'Rourke

The Omaha Square Dance Callers' Assn. announces the 2nd Annual Mid-Central States Square Dance Convention for May 25-26 at the Civic Center Auditorium. Festivities there will be preceded by a street dance on May 24. Colorado and Wyoming callers are being added this year to those from South Dakota, Kansas, Missouri, Iowa and Nebraska.

—Arlene Lapham

Louisiana Lore

The Municipal Auditorium in Shreveport has been chosen to house the Annual Holiday in Dixie Square Dance on May 5, hosted by the YW Twirlers, the Dixielanders and the Square D Clubs, with the city sponsoring. A Pre-Festival Dance will take place on May 4 at La Sands Motor Hotel in Bossier City. The Pete Petermans will look after round dancing; the square dance workshop will be in the charge of Mack McCoslin; Ray Smith and Cal Golden plus a list of guest callers will keep the mike busy.

—Ann Hendershot

Wisconsin Whispers

Ed Gilmore is scheduled to call at the 1st Annual Springtime Square Dance Jamboree on May 18 at La Crosse, in the Mary E. Sawyer Auditorium. Co-sponsors are the Happy Twirlers Club and the Greater La Crosse Chamber of Commerce.

Illinois Item

The Apple Knockers are putting on the 11th Annual Illinois Federation Festival in Peoria on May 5-6 at the Exposition Gardens. Harold Mainor will call the squares; the Guy Kinders will cue the rounds.

—Ray Northrup

Indiana Incident

The 12th Annual Festival of the South Bend Callers' Club will be held this year on May 26 at the Laurel Club, with P.M. and evening sessions. General chairman is Boyd Fink.

—Edith Sostack

And in Iowa —

Dancers in State Center are getting ready for the Iowa Rose Festival Square Dance to be held in their city on June 24. Last year's such affair was so successful a repeat was in order. The Rose Festival proper will take place on June 23.

—Barbara Biensen

California Capering

One of the most memorable of the annual "big" dances in California is the Golden State Round-Up at Oakland, which is being held this year on May 26-27. Imported callers will be Johnny Wycoff of Indianapolis; Vaughn Parrish of Boulder, Colo.; Johnny LeClair from Wyoming; Bob Fiske from Missouri; and Arnie Kronenberger from "down south" in Glendale, Calif. The round dancing will be in the able charge of the Manning Smiths from Texas.

Another affair to anticipate is the 7th "Catalina Holiday", a square-dance week-end at that off-shore island, put on by Associated Square Dancers under Al Nelson. Steamer, 'planes and private craft will convey dancers who will enjoy a Calypso theme dance in addition to regular activities. Write A-Square-D, Box 1294, Glendale, Calif., if your club is a member of the association, for application forms. Restricted to members only.

Texas Talk

Bob Parker, President of the San Antonio Square Dancer's Assn., announces the organization of a new square dance club at Randolph AFB. The club, co-sponsored by the Randolph Service Club under Mrs. Mildred Shev, dances each Thursday evening.

The Annual Fiesta Square Dance, presented in conjunction with San Antonio Fiesta Week, took place on April 27 at City Auditorium, co-sponsored by the City Parks and Recreational Department. Harper Smith was the featured caller.

—Deloris Breske

April 27, plus April 28, was also the date of the Houston Square Dance Council's 14th Annual Square Dance Festival at the Sam Houston Coliseum. Harper Smith, the man who gets around, was on the program there, too, as M. C., with Joe Robertson of Mobile, Ala. Other guest callers participating included Andy Andrus, Bob Augustin, Nathan Hale, Ken Golden, Stub Davis, Allie Morvent, and many callers from Houston proper. Music was furnished by the Texans.

—Lew Torrance

The Mid-Tex Spring Jamboree was held in Austin on March 17 in the City Coliseum. M. C.'s were Mac McDougal, Earl and Ouida Eberling, Buck Flanagan and Jay Griffin. In recognition of the event, Governor Price Daniel proclaimed the week of March 11 as Mid-Tex Square Dance Week in Texas. —Doris Sauls

This is a quadrille and to be effective one should use just a little more music than usual and the calls should be spoken during the last half of the preceding musical phrase. This allows the dancers to have the pleasure of dancing to music. The following cues are set up in eight beat lines. The dots represent the "silent" beats.

FIGURE (Note: The first line is actually the eight beat introduction the first time thru and is the last line of each succeeding chorus.)

- — — — One and three right and left thru
- — — — Head ladies chain
- — — — Two and four right and left thru
- — — — Side ladies chain
- — — — All Eight, circle to the left
- — — — Turn the corner lady by the left
- Wheel promenade, keep her — go all the way
(Repeat three more times, then)

ENDING
Bow to your partner — Bow to your corner
NOTE: Go full around on all promenades (360 degrees).

specialized field that requires talent and experience many of our leaders have not yet developed. However, you will note that last month we did print a round with a distinct Latin flavor (Samba Simpatica). In our opinion this round takes no special skills, and except for the Latin rhythm, is little different from many of the rounds that exist and provide pleasure today.—Editor

Dear Editor:

Keep up the excellent work in Sets in Order. My wife and I enjoy every article, especially the Style Series and the Record Report. The Record Report is a real help to us in this area as we have no record dealer and must order our records by mail. It has saved us a lot of time and, more important to our club, money.

N. E. "Bud" Crowe
Kenora, Ont., Canada

Dear Editor:

I find in some of the dances in the Workshop in Sets in Order that the writers do not adhere to the principle of using alternate hands. If a writer wants to use two star thrus in succession, should he break it with a do sa do or something else before doing the second star thru?

Frank Fielding
El Monte, Calif.

Any time that the rules of comfortable dancing are hampered by awkward movements it is well to either stay away from such movements or to adapt them in such a way that they will no longer be a problem. Two Star Thrus, one following the other; a Star Thru followed by an Eight Chain Thru; or any number of other similar movements might very well be improved by the addition of a neutralizing movement such as a Do Sa Do.—Ed.

Dear Editor:

. . . A very noticeable decline in square dancing has developed all around here over the last 5 years and I feel one major reason is that the subject of square dancing is not talked of, written about, or seen live or on TV — by the general public. Everything is now in clubs and club-sponsored events. Those already square dancing know the score — what, when, where the various dances take place, thru local post-cards, correspondence, telephone and our square dance magazines — but not the general public! And if any subject is not talked about, no one knows anything about it or thinks it has passed out of style.

Locally, the general public think we're out of step here to keep pushing square dancing — because they don't do it and don't see or know of any others doing it! One answer is at the top or national level. How about getting and keeping your and other square dance magazines at the desks of the major newspapers all over the country and the major magazines, too? Their editors might finally see the light and publish more about it. Your steady and new subscribers are fine but this coverage is quite limited, doesn't go far beyond these boundaries and is only in the hands of those already in the square dance movement.

Howie Davison
Newcastle, Maine

Sets in Order's subscription list contains the names of quite a few in the newspaper field as well as doctors, lawyers, and a good number of individuals whose names you'd quickly recognize from your daily news headlines. You'd be surprised how many folks are interested in your activity.—Ed.

Dear Editor:

May we possibly use the magazine to perform a public service to square dancers scattered over the nation? Last June a great many dancers from around the country visited Windsor, Ontario, and did some dancing in that city during the time of the National Convention . . .

The case in point is this. I was asked to represent Canada and the States as official host and caller at a Trail-In Dance at their beautiful Cleary Auditorium the night before the convention opened in Detroit. That night and the three nights that followed during the after-parties in Windsor, a great many application blanks were signed by myself and other callers, to obtain "International Badges." This badge is sponsored by the club I call for in Windsor.

Most of the badge orders have been filled. However, a substantial number have incomplete addresses on them and we don't know where to send them. There are many states represented. We thought this magazine might be the best way of reaching most of these people to let them know why they haven't received their badges . . .

All we need is the name and full mailing address. In most cases the name of the state was missing. This information can be mailed directly to me and I will see that the badges are mailed pronto . . .

Dear Editor:

The Manchester Square Dance Club would like to express our appreciation for the gift of 55 copies of your fine magazine. These copies were distributed to our current graduating class of new dancers.

Our caller, Earl Johnston, and club officers feel that Sets in Order is a splendid way to complete the new dancers' introduction to square dancing.

Herman Montie
Manchester, Conn.

Incidentally, if you know of a group of enthusiastic square dancers whom you feel might enjoy a sample copy of Sets in Order we usually have extra back copies that we're always glad to share. The only cost to the group would be a nominal charge for postage.—Editor

Dear Editor:

I would like to take this opportunity to express my thanks to your staff for a splendid magazine. I think it has a certain appeal for all dancers — the new, the experienced and the round dancer.

Spaeth's comments are what make the books so delightful. I'm afraid both are now out of print, but I understand that "Read 'Em And Weep" is available in a paper edition put out by Arco, for $1.25. My copy of "Weep Some More My Lady" was swiped by some zoot suiters in Taos. They broke in a window and grabbed two carefully packed and sealed cardboard boxes and silently stole away into the night with their prize. My only consolation is in knowing their anguished frustration upon discovering they had stolen only books.

"Read 'Em And Weep" is one of the few books in which I've found a published version of Old Zip Coon. Many books mention Old Zip, but simply in passing, and only to say that it is the ancestor of "Turkey In The Straw." That's usually as much attention as Old Zip gets. Apparently it was one of the earliest of the minstrel songs, appearing early in the 19th century. I gather Spaeth felt that the version he used in his book was the authentic original. The version I've used here must have stemmed from that same original, which Spaeth says was published by J. C. Hewitt & Co., New York. He says that the author never put but one "s" in "posum"; so I've remained authentic to that extent. Spaeth also says that the verses generally heard relate to a fiddler who couldn't, (or wouldn't), play anything but "Old Zip Coon," and that many verses of the descendent song, Turkey, are in the same vein. I don't seem to have run upon any such verses; so I'm trying to make up a few, just to be in step.

Mel Stricklett — Portland, Ore.

MEL STRICKLETT came into square dancing in 1947 and since 1948 has been helping others to enjoy it, for at that time he made his first ventures into the calling field. He and his wife, Beth, have made square dancing their paramount hobby ever since and have traveled around the country considerably, Mel calling dances and M.C.-ing festivals. On the home front, he calls for several clubs in the Portland area.

Mel organized the Northwest Callers' Association and has worked with that group for a number of years. The association has grown to 70 members, all of whom are graduates of Mel's callers' classes and they now work together for the betterment of their calling. Mel continues coaching beginner callers, even after they have left the classes, and spends many hours helping the fellows individually with their special problems. He is dedicated to a strong caller-development program in the area.

Six years ago Mel designed and built a motor hotel, the management of which he has now turned over to his son, Mel Jr., so that he and Beth can enjoy semi-retirement and hence — more square dancing. They have a teen-age

NOW... JUST A MINUTE
 DON'T SAY IT

Don't say you don't like "mixers"!

They're not for mixing, goodness knows; they're for fun — and pretty dancing.

Mixers are the dance leader's most useful gimmick — especially waltz mixers. Where else can the fellow who can't waltz get his waltzing done?

They are the light-hearted missing link between square dancing and couple dancing; and we love 'em! You'll find a lot of them in our catalog—usually on the backs of great rounds.

For instance:

FIVE FOOT TWO, THE LIGHT IN THE WINDOW, ON THE CAROUSEL, WALTZ BALLONET, CATTLE CALL, WALTZING MATILDA.

REMEMBER — all our records nowadays have a band of spoken prompts. And the most beautiful music — sensitive and knowing.

daughter, Karyn and three lively grandchildren.

Mel and Beth have attended numerous square dance clinics and institutes, including Asilomar. They worked for a year and a half with a western show on television, directing the square dance program. Mel headed the committee for the 1959 Centennial, when Portland played host to about 5000 square dancers.

The Strickletts both find square dancing very rewarding and value the many wonderful friendships they have made thruout their travels in the interests of their hobby. —Elmer Alford

Bob and Helen Smithwick — San Diego, Calif.

THERE IS AN AIR of competence to whatever the smiling Smithwicks do that inspires courage in the most timorous of their dance class members.

Helen started square and round dancing in 1952 while Bob, a Navy Commander, was on duty in Yokosuka, Japan. When Bob returned to San Diego in 1954 he joined a square dance class with the Pete Mighetos and took to it right away. With Helen's help he soon became pretty adept at round dancing, also.

In 1954 and 1955 Helen was secretary for the San Diego Square Dance Assn. and in 1955 Bob became president. He spent many hours working for the National Convention which San Diego hosted in 1956.

Bob took up calling in 1954 and in 1955 the Smithwicks were talked into starting their first round dance class. Bob also taught square dancing for two years. In 1957, after completing 30 years of honorable service. Bob retired from the Navy and since has been busier than ever.

The Smithwicks have two weekly round dance clubs, teach at another twice monthly, have one beginner class each year. They also work on Local Square magazine, Helen as Editor, Bob as Business Manager, Printer and All-Around Handyman. They trailer-travel from festival to convention to institute each year.

They bow to Marie Fielding for encouragement in their round dancing; to the Mighetos and Bud Blakeys for square dancing.

Bob and Helen are members of the S.C.R.D. Teachers' Assn., San Diego Callers' Assn., the Missouri R.D. Assn. Bob was president of the S.C. Teachers in 1959. As choreographers they have turned out such numbers as Moonlight Swim, San Diego Waltz, It's True, True Love and Twilight Theme.

It is the Smiths' feeling that round dancing should be kept strictly a pattern dance; that ballroom dancing as such has no place in the round dance picture but that some of its steps may well be adapted to rounds.

NEW "CALLER" ARRIVES

On February 28 a new "caller," named Greta Erin, arrived at the home of Jerry and Kathy Helt in Cincinnati, Ohio. Her calling papa, Jerry, is well-known to dancers from coast to coast, while Kathy, her mother, is the daughter of caller Connie Connaughton of Calif.

YES SIR — Old Timer 8177

Key: C Tempo: 134
Caller: Johnny Schultz Range: High HC
Music: 2/4 Western Low LC
Instruments: Accordion, Guitar, Bass-Guitar

Synopsis: (Break) Walk around corner — see saw partner — swing corner — promenade — four couples wheel around — promenade — heads wheel —  $\frac{3}{4}$  square thru — allemande — promenade — swing. (Figure) Heads forward and back — cross trail, round one — lines forward and back — box the gnat — curlique — lines turn left single file — promenade single file — gents turn back and swing — promenade — swing.

Comment: A fast moving routine to the old tune "Yes Sir, She's My Baby." The music is thin but adequate. Another new basic is used on this one. Dance patterns have conventional timing. Johnny's calling is clear. Rating ☆

NEAR YOU — Lore 1018

Key: D Tempo: 132
Caller: Louis Calhoun Range: High HC
Music: 2/4 Standard Western Low LD
Instruments: Violin, Piano, Guitar, Drums, Bass

Comment: Music is adequate and tune is familiar. The dance patterns are conventional. The dance is pleasant to do but any excitement will have to be generated by the caller. Calhoun's calling is clear. Rating ☆☆

SUKIE — Blue Star 1601

Key: C

Caller: Buford Evans

Music: 2/4 Western

Instruments: Violin, Accordion, Clarinet, Piano, Bass, Drums, Saxophone

Tempo: 128

Range: High HE
Low LC

Synopsis: Allemande — swing — four ladies promenade — corner swing — allemande — forward two — new corner catch all eight — back by the left — four ladies chain 3/4 — promenade — heads wheel around — star thru — right and left thru — star thru — right and left thru — cross trail — allemande — do sa do — corner swing — allemande — promenade — swing.

Comment: This is the same (or similar) instrumental used for the round "Chop Suey." The pattern is fast moving, uses conventional timing, and goes thru four times with no break. The one high note (E) may have to be faked by some callers. Buford's calling is danceable. Rating ☆☆

SOMEBODY'S TAKING YOUR PLACE — Blue Star 1016

Key: F

Caller: Louis Calhoun

Music: 2/4 Standard

Instruments: Guitar, Piano, Bass, Drums, Violin

Tempo: 132

Range: High HB
Low LA

Synopsis: (Break) Ladies chain — circle — whirl away — circle — allemande — promenade — heads wheel around — 3/4 square thru — allemande — promenade — swing. (Figure) Heads promenade half — right and left thru — star thru — square thru 3/4 — split sides, line up four — pass thru — ends turn in — star thru — cross trail — swing corner — promenade.

Comment: Music is well played. Dance is standard and smooth flowing. Voice range is comfortable and call is well metered. Dance is pleasant to do but caller will have to add the excitement if desired. Calhoun's calling is clear and danceable. Rating ☆☆

THUNDER ROAD — Windsor 4809

Key: D Minor

Caller: Bruce Johnson

Music: Standard 2/4

Instruments: Piano, Guitars, Bass, Drums

Tempo: 130

Range: High HC

Comment: An outstanding dance with a very good instrumental. This would be classed as a novelty number in that it has an unusual style of music. The good singer with a flare for showmanship will do a good job on this one. Bruce comes thru in fine style.

Rating ☆☆☆

TOO OLD — Mac Gregor 908

Key: D Tempo: 126
Caller: Jerry Helt Range: High HB
Music: 2/4 Western Low LD

Instruments: Accordion, Guitar, Bass

Comment: This is a re-do using the same instrumental (with improved fidelity) and the same dance released by this label a number of years back. It is a novelty dance and should be interesting to the newer dancers. Jerry does a good calling job. Rating ☆☆☆

MY SISTER KATE — Old Timer 8176 ***

Key: F sharp Tempo: 124
Caller: Bill Peters Range: High HB
Music: 2/4 Western Low LB

Instruments: Piano, Violin, Bass-Guitar

Synopsis: Complete call printed in Workshop.

Comment: This is strictly a novelty number. The music is barely adequate but the well timed dance and novelty lyrics make it fun to do. The basic rhythm of the tune helps to carry the music. The dance is far more interesting if the record speed is increased. Bill's calling is clear and danceable. Rating ☆☆☆

I CAN'T QUIT — Blue Star 1599

Key: D Tempo: 129
Caller: Marshall Flippo Range: High HB
Music: 2/4 Standard Western Low LD

Instruments: Guitar, Piano, Violin, Drums, Bass-Guitar

Comment: The dance patterns are well timed and smooth flowing. The music has easy flowing rhythm. The tune is unfamiliar, has odd phrasing and will have to be learned. Marshall's calling is clear and melodious.

one — cross trail — corners allemande — right and left grand — promenade — swing. (Figure) Heads half square thru — with sides, Susie que — circle half — dive thru — pass thru — swing — promenade — swing.

Comment: Tempo is a little slow but dances well. For those who prefer, a slight increase of record speed will make it more lively. The music is well played. Jonesy's calling is clear and danceable. Rating ☆☆

IF YOU KNEW SUSIE — Blue Star 1600

Key: F Tempo: 130
Caller: Buford Evans Range: High HB
Music: 2/4 Standard Low LA
Instruments: Guitar, Piano, Drums, Bass, Violin, Saxophone, Accordion

Synopsis: (Figure) Heads pass thru — switchback — star thru — pass thru — star thru — pass thru — switchback — star thru — allemande — do sa do — corner swing — allemande — promenade. (Break) Circle — do paso — four ladies chain — whirl away — swing — allemande — pass one — swing — promenade.

Comment: This one uses another new basic (switchback.) This can be avoided by changing the pass thru to a right and left thru and dance flows about the same. The figure is quite close timed and requires fast movement. The music is well played and could be used also to the same "Susie" dance popular a few years back. Buford's calling is danceable. Rating ☆

SWEET GEORGIA QUADRILLE —

Sets in Order F121 * Tempo: 134
Caller: Bob Osgood
Music: 2/4 Standard

Instruments: Piano, Vibes, Drums, Bass, Guitar
Synopsis: Complete call printed in Workshop.
Comment: This uses simple Right and Left Thrus and Ladies Chains and requires no learning, yet is classified as a quadrille in that the caller cues his commands ahead of the phrase and dancers dance to the music (which is superb). This same routine has been done for several years to a "pop" record no longer available. Bob cues it just right. Rating: S.I.O.

WHOSE HEART ARE YOU BREAKING NOW — Lore 1020

Key: G Tempo: 130
Caller: Tommy White Range: High HC

Comment: The music is adequate but the tune is uninspiring. The dance patterns are conventional but close timed. Tommy's calling is clear. Rating ☆

Low LC

Instruments: Piano, Clarinet, Drums, Guitar, Bass, OrganSynopsis: Complete call printed in Workshop.Comment: Music is well played and dance is fast moving and close timed. It is fun to do but tune tends to be monotonous unless caller varies his delivery. Beulah's voice is low pitched and pleasant. Rating ☆☆MIXERS*FRANKIE AND JOHNNY — Blue Star 1602*Music: Guitar, Piano, Drums, BassChoreographers: Buford and Sylvia EvansComment: Music is quite different, using multiple guitars and a walking bass to give a quite pleasant sound. The mixer routine is only twelve measures long and is quite easy.JOLLY POLKA — (flip side to above)Music: Piano, Guitar, Drums, BassChoreographers: Scott and Marge ColburnComment: A very easy two-step mixer. The music has a slight polka feel. The cue sheet is not too clear but the routine can be easily improvised or changed to suit group. The pattern is sixteen measures long.ROUNDS*GAIETY — Grenn 14038*Music: Guitar, Violins, Piano, Drums, Bass, TrumpetChoreographers: Bea and Blake AdamsComment: Music is quite danceable and the waltz routine has no difficult steps.ALICE BLUE GOWN — (flip side to above)Music: Guitar, Trumpet, Violin, Piano, Drums, BassChoreographers: Manning and Nita SmithComment: Music is well played. Frank Hamilton's

ROUNDANCE

MANUAL for

Callers • Teachers • Dancers • Club Committees

(READY ABOUT JUNE 7th)

What is it that you would like to know about round dancing? Chances are you will find it here in the pages of this most comprehensive manual. Not a collection of dances — this manual will prove to be an absolute must for anyone and everyone interested in the art and techniques of this amazing pastime. Frank Hamilton, author of the book American Round Dancing and a leader in the field of contemporary round dancing, has compiled a wealth of leadership material never before available. Just a glance at some of the chapter headings will tell you a great deal about the book: Leadership; Round Dancing for Square Dance Events; The Specialized Round Dance Group; Selection of Rounds; Programming; The Master of Ceremonies; Round Dance Associations; Business Side of Round Dance Teaching; Terminology, Write-ups — Choreography — Music; Body Mechanics, Techniques — Styling; The Art of Leading — and Following; Teaching Methods, Lesson Planning; A Table of R/D Abbreviations and Symbols; Round Dance Terms, Steps — and Figures Defined; Some good Easy Mixers; A list of "Classic" Rounds; and a Code of Ethics for Round Dance Teachers. Just think — all of this in one volume!

For details please see the special flap between pages 8 and 9 of this issue.

Comment: A reasonably easy routine featuring a slow two-step rhythm with a heavy up beat. The music is well played and quite danceable.

TAKIN' MY SUGAR TO TEA — (flip side to above)

Music: Guitar, Accordion, Piano, Drums, Bass, Vibes

Comment: Music is well played and has a slight polka feel. The dance routine is a fast traveling two-step that is quite easy but fun to do.

THE ONE YOU LOVE — Grenn 14037

Music: Trumpet, Saxophone, Piano, Bass, Drums

Choreographers: Ruth and Pete English

Comment: Well played music. The waltz routine is a 32 measure pattern with the first eight repeating. Described as a hesitation waltz, it features the "Step, Touch, Hold". The middle part uses a reverse twirl to a twinkle.

WILL-O-WEE — (flip side to above)

Music: Trumpet, Saxophone, Guitar, Piano, Drums, Bass

Choreographers: Dan and Alis Pearson

Comment: A basic "rock 'n' roll" beat but well played and quite danceable. The 32 measure two-step routine has only four measures of repeat but steps are not difficult to do.

MOON RIVER — Windsor 4674

Music: Trumpet, Clarinet, Organ, Saxophone, Drums, Piano, Bass

Choreographers: Dean and Lorraine Ellis

Comment: Music is full and quite danceable. The waltz routine is 38 measures in length with the first eight repeating. Experienced dancers will enjoy this.

PEGGY — (flip side to above)

Music: Saxophone, Guitar, Trumpet, Violin, Clarinet, Bass, Piano, Drums

Choreographers: Charles and Bettye Proctor

Comment: Tune is "Peg O' My Heart". Dance is an easy, four times thru, two-step routine. The pattern has sixteen measures of 4/4 time.

MORE AREA SQUARE DANCE PUBLICATIONS

EXPERIMENTAL LAB

A basic is a necessary movement with a short, clear call that cannot otherwise be given descriptively in the time needed. The call should not be confused with the sound of other calls. The movement itself should not be one that could be called just as well with existing basics. The movement should be smooth-flowing (not erratic or awkward) and should lend itself to rapid teaching. Last, to be considered a basic, a movement must prove its ability to withstand the test of time through continued usage.

VARIETY, THEY SAY, is the spice of life, and here, certainly, is an idea which will add variety to the workshop program. As in the case of a number of today's experimental movements this one requires a rather strict adherence to certain rules which need to be followed in order to achieve a smooth completion of the pattern. Not only does each individual need to do his part but he must immediately move out of the way so that the following couples may use the same general area to achieve the pattern.

DIXIE STAR THRU

By Clarence Watson, Blue Springs, Mo.

From an arkie style single file arrangement, when two men one behind the other approach two oncoming ladies one behind the other, the first two in making contact do a Star Thru and immediately move forward so that the following two may meet, do a Star Thru and fall in directly behind them.

Using any one of a number of different methods to get into position, men 1 and 3 in single file face ladies 1 and 3, also in single file (1). Moving forward, the first two meeting do a Star Thru (2) and move forward toward couple 2 as the next two active couples continue forward, slightly maneuvering out of the way of the other couple (3), and do a Star Thru (4) to end behind the other working couple and sandwiched in between them and couple number four (5).

In another example, the Dixie Star Thru would work from an arkie promenade (6) with two men together followed by two women all promenading single file. On the command the men would turn back (7) and would start their Dixie Star Thru. The first man and woman to meet do a regular Star Thru (8) and then move forward into the center of the square.

The next meeting couple would start their Star Thru (9) and completing it (10) would end in double pass thru position (11).

While in double pass thru position (11) the Dixie Star Thru can be done on the double track. However, in this case the trailing couples will need to maneuver away from the center of activity in order to find space to work in. On the command the center couples will Star Thru as the trailing couples move out (12). These trailing individuals meet for a Star Thru (13) and all once again end in double pass thru position (14).

Another variation on this movement, but not quite fitting the description as given on this page, would be to have two couples arranged unevenly for a Dixie Chain so that one single file couple with the man in front and the lady behind would meet an oncoming couple with the lady in front and her man behind. The first to meet would do a Star Thru and move forward, while the follow-up couple would do the Star Thru and end back to back with the other working couple. The varieties seem to be endless. You can have a ball with these in the basement workshop.
