It was not until I entered my PhD program that it occurred to me how fast time travels, yet I am already at this point, finishing my PhD studies. When I look back there are so many people for whom I am grateful; I could not have finished this thesis without your help. Now is a good chance to express my gratitude to some of you.

First of all, I would like to express my deepest gratitude for my supervisors, Prof. Ping Sheng and Prof. Jianting Ye, for your patient guidance throughout my PhD studies. Prof. Sheng, thank you so much for giving me the chance to study in your group. I still remember our first call six years ago; I was very nervous but you were so kind that everything turned out to be very smooth for me. During all our discussions, I was always amazed by your deep understanding of fundamental physics and your enthusiasm for scientific research. You always gave me valuable advice when I ran into trouble. No matter how naïve my questions may have sounded to you, you always explained them patiently to me. I enjoyed those dinners with you during which you shared with us many interesting anecdotes about the greatest scientists in history. I am also very appreciative of your support – sometimes the experimental results were not positive, but you always supported me in trying different ideas. In 2014, you encouraged me to take the opportunity to study at the University of Groningen, which turned out to be a great experience for me. Thank you so much for everything, and I wish the best to you!

Prof. Ye, thank you for offering me this great opportunity to join your group; my wonderful experience at the University of Groningen will be the treasure of my whole life. To be honest, I was a little bit worried when I first arrived here two years ago, because I was entering a field with which I was not familiar, and I did not know what was laying ahead of me. However, it turned out this worry was not necessary, as your patient guidance has made things much easier for me. I am truly astonished by your extraordinary intuition and understanding of physics as well as the broadness of your knowledge – it seems to me that you know almost everything. I appreciate that many times you explained things to me in detail, which inspired me a lot. Building a new laboratory is not easy, but you have an amazing capability to handle many things at the same time while keeping high standards for everything. I admire your passion about scientific research. We have built many small functional setups by ourselves – some of which are already working, some not yet – and I hope I can finish all of them. Sometimes I feel depressed that things did not progress as fast as we expected, as it is very difficult to reach the same level or even half as much as you do. Thank you for your understanding and support; I cannot learn enough from you. I wish the best to you and your family and hope your two lovely daughters grow up with health and happiness.

I am very grateful to my reading committee, Prof. Beatriz Noheda Pinuaga, Prof. Hans Hilgenkamp, Prof. Dario Daghero and Prof. Rolf Lortz. Thank you for spending your precious time to read this thesis. During the writing, sometimes I did not think from the readers' perspective, so some contents were not well organized and explained in a good manner. Thank you for pointing this out and some changes have been made according to your suggestions. I benefit greatly from all your valuable comments. I also sincerely thank the defense committee members, Prof. Beatriz Noheda Pinuaga, Prof. Bart van Wees, Prof. Maxim Mostovoy, Prof. Hans Hilgenkamp and Prof. Uli Zeitler. Thank you very much for your willingness to be the defense committee members; especially Prof. Hans Hilgenkamp and Prof. Uli Zeitler will travel a long distance.

Sannie, I am truly grateful for your help with many things, from registration to student scholarships, visa applications, defense arrangements and more. You organized things so well that everything was in good order for me.

I want to thank Dr. Wang Zhe, Dr. Shi Wu, Dr. Zheng Yuan and Dr. Zhang Haijing. All of you have taught me many experimental skills and helped me a lot in HKUST. Prof. Jiang Fuyi, thank you for teaching me how to grow high-quality AFI crystals; I was so impressed by your talents in chemistry. Dr. Wang Dingdi, Dr. Zhang Ting, Dr. Sun Mingyuan, Dr. Pan Jie and Dr. Zhang Bing, thank you for all the useful discussions and suggestions. I learned a lot from you. Special thanks go to Ulf, Walter, Patrick, Roy, Golden, Cai Yuan, Carrie and Jenny for the technical support.

Prof. Xixiang Zhang, you are really an expert in the field of magnetic materials. Thank you for hosting me in KAUST, and I really enjoyed the visit. Prof. Lai Zhiping, thank you for the collaboration and the great crystals you provided. Dr. Zhang Bei, Dr. Zhang Qiang, Dr. Li Peng, Dr. Zhao Lan and Dr. Yang Bai, thank you for helping me in KAUST; I had a great time there.

I also want to thank my friends in HKUST: Ma Guancong, He Ying, Sun Ke, Wang Xiansi, Chen Xiaolong, Guan Dongshi, Zhang Yilin, Zheng Jianying, Liu Chang, Ding Yuhui, Shen Junying. You made my life rich and colorful in HKUST, and I had a great time with you. Thank all my friends from the football team: Ma Jian, Zou Xinbo, Fan Zhiyong, Li Diandian, Zhuang Fuxing, Lu Xing, Jason, Hua Tao, Peng Siyuan, Lei Shiwei, Lei Yong, Liu Kai, Zhu Ke, Wu Zhaojun, Lv Junde, Kalaze, Xiao Songwen, Jia Luheng, Liang Haobo, Wang Meng, etc. I enjoyed football time on Saturday evenings.

Jan, thank you for all the technical work you have done for us. I was not very familiar with the mechanical drawings in the beginning, so thank you for the patient discussions and making perfect parts for all the projects. Ursula and Henriët, you are really nice persons, thank you for your help with resident permission, housing, contracts and many other things – you have made things easy for me.

I would like to express my deep gratitude for all the colleagues in DPCM group, Jianming, Jie, Lei, Sasha, Ali, Wytse. When I first arrived here, you helped me get familiar with the lab and the experiment setups, and also helped me live and survive in Groningen. Special thanks are given to Jianming and Lei for being my paranymphs. Francesco, it is my pleasure to have worked with you, thank you for the discussions and dinners, wish you good luck in your PhD study. Erik, you are an excellent scientist and you learned things really fast. I also benefit greatly from the discussions with you. Thank you for the manuscript you prepared. Hope it will get published in a nice scientific journal.

I would like to give my special thanks to Arjon. Thank you very much for translating the summary to Dutch, it is not an easy task even for Dutch people because some special terminologies are difficult to translate. I can imagine how tough it would be to translate it into Chinese. Nevertheless, you did a very nice job and I really appreciate it. Wish you good luck in your future study!
