If I am to be part of the body of Christ,
I realize the only suitable appendage,
is the palm of His hand.
Where the blood ran from a nail driven in. Where a scar is saved for eternity.
This place on His body,
is the only spot fitting for me,
for it is where he was nailed,
Where he bears the marks of my iniquity to this day. If I am to dwell here,
I can be in constant remembrance of what my sins cost, but also the love that was shed abroad,
for a wretch like me.
Oh what joy it is to be a scar,
if I am etched on a part of His holy frame.
