Farmville, Virginia,

April 15, 1902.

Dear Gilpah,

After so long a time, I am sending the recommendation I promised. I hope you have not been needing it; my time has been so fully occupied that I have not had an opportunity to send it sooner.

The term is hurrying to a close, soon each one will be turning her thoughts towards commencement. I know you have enjoyed the rest of home.

I am going to Charlottesville to study in the school of methods. Can't you join me there?

Sincerely,

Mary Woodruff.
