BOOBAR, CALVIN J.

FILE NO. B-126

Mr. C. J. Boobar was one of the prominent men of Fair Haven. He was born in Milo, Maine, in 1811, and when old enough, he engaged in the lumber business. He was married in 1836, and in 1858 he came to Minnesota, from the town of Lee, Maine, accompanied by his wife and a large family. He was elected one of the first justices of the peace in the town of Fair Haven. He took a deep interest in the affairs of the town, school and literary society. In 1872, he quietly passed over the silent river, leaving a wife and large family of children besides hosts of friends to mourn his loss. His wife is now (1895) in good health with faculties as bright as many younger women. She is 79 years old.
