Henry Nelson was born in St. Paul on May 4, 1882. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Nelson who were both born in Norway. When Henry was three months old, his parents moved to Sauk Centre. He attended the public school here.

On November 6, 1903 Henry Nelson married Barbara Hellman in St. Cloud, Minnesota.

Barbara (Hellman) and Henry Nelson had two children: Irvin and Fern. Irvin owns the Skelly Oil Station and Fern, a graduate of the Sauk Centre High School, is employed by the North American Company.

Henry Nelson engaged in truck farming and teamster work. At the time of his death, he was employed as acting street commissioner.

The Nelson family lived in Hoboken, a section of Sauk Centre.

Henry Nelson died on October 16, 1935. He is buried in St. Paul's Cemetery.
