Dear Ida:

Your letter of mar. 29 Just now I don't see the here. I need of any more information needed except, when you can find out for Mrs. Talbot, the address in Rome where you & the party will be expecting mail, & what to put on the envelope - ~~MRS~~ c/o Mrs.
John Talbot, or what yes.
Alec & you & I will have a wonderful mountain interlude.
Quiet Easter. My first house quests since Xmas - Prof. over

Perry Miller of Harvard & his wife. You know his just-published life of Jonathan Edwards. This past year he has been Exchange Professor at Leyden University in Holland.
Learned, but gay. + I'd think not over 45.

The book will be all done & copied in another couple of weeks now, but I don't suppose I'll write much to you before I see you in July.

Ever
Red.
