JUNIOR CLASS PLAY A GRAND SUCCESS

A Three-Act Comedy With Many Local "Hits" Well Rendered.

The Junior class play, entitled "Aaron Nicklepacker, Freshman," was rendered in Bomberger Hall on Saturday evening. Under the direction of J. Edward Lane it was entirely successful. At 8 o'clock the performance began and for two hours the continuous peals of laughter showed the appreciation of the whole audience.

In the first act, among the congenial group of students gathered on the campus on the opening day of the college year, were Beau Carter, one of the "big" men, played by Mr. Glendenning, Cad, by Mr. Riegel, and Pepper Jervis, who had come to school to learn repose, by Mr. Boyer. Soon Happy Jimmie Jamison, by Mr. Miller, appeared and told of his engagement and coming marriage, but according to his nature was soon busily engaged making love to a homesick Freshman, Cherry Carruthers, played by Miss Kneeder. Lois Hunter, by Miss Schlichter, befriended Miss Carruthers. Abey, a second-hand clothing dealer, in the person of Mr. Mitterling, was apparently a friend of all students, with his motto: "Always do your friends good." Epenetus P. Nicklepacker, by Mr. Minich, arrived with his son Aaron, by Mr. Deiningner, who was to become a student, having been graduated from the Schwenksville High School. The upper classmen immediately proceeded to haze the new student. During the proceedings Aaron met Elyzabeth Mandelia Feeny, a waitress and formerly a sweetheart of his in Schwenksville, who by a clever subterfuge saved Aaron from a ducking and caused the hazers to duck Beau Carter instead. Miss Boorem excellently portrayed this character.

Two boardinghouse mistresses, the pessimistic Mrs. Pickens, by Miss Hanson, and Mrs. Chubb, by Miss Rahn, whose husband, by Mr. Harrity, was very indolent, appeared in the second act. It was at Mrs. Chubb's that Aaron roomed, and here he was snubbed by the aristocratic clientele until they heard that he was the grandson of ex-Governor Nicklepacker, a multi-millionaire. He immediately became popular receiving

CONFERENCE NOTES.

On Saturday afternoon last, immediately after the baseball game on Patterson Field, an athletic conference was held in the reception rooms in Freeland Hall. The conference was attended largely by alumni who had participated in athletics during their college course. The purpose of the meeting was to formulate some plan whereby the alumni of the college might be interested to a greater extent in the athletic activities of the school.

Mr. Douthett, '12, spoke on the subject: "Does Athletics Interfere with Scholarship?" He showed that the average grades of those participating in athletic events were about the same as those not engaged in any such activity.

A paper was next read by Mr. Paist, in which the purely physical side of athletics was emphasized. Some form of exercise should be encouraged which might continue to profit the individual through his whole life. The athletics of a school should be sufficiently diversified to permit every one to engage in some form.

Dr. Faringer, in a short talk, advanced the idea of forming a better organization among the alumni. The present organization seems inadequate to meet the needs and does not promote the proper fraternal spirit.

Comments were also made by Dr. Spangler, E. N. Rhodes, Ralph Miller, Rev. Lentz, Mr. Hendricks, Mr. Frank Hobson and Mr. Ebert.

The result of the conference was the appointment of a committee of seven, of which Dr. Spangler is chairman, to make plans for a more effective alumni organization, and to create greater interest in the athletics of the school.

A splendid dinner was served in the college dining hall.

A Correction.

There has been a slight mistake made in the numbering of by volume and issue of the WEEKLY this term. The issue of February second was numbered Vol. 13, No. 16, and the subsequent issues have been numbered consecutively. This should have been Vol. 12, No. 17. So to avoid further confusion we are numbering the present issue Vol. 12, No. 26, and will not change to Vol. 13 until September. This correction is made to facilitate binding.

DR. WAILES ADDRESSES STUDENTS.

Dr. Wailes addressed a joint meeting of the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A., Wednesday evening, which was well attended by the students. He based his talk upon the 10th and 12th verses of the 4th chapter of Exodus. He said in part:

"Our sense of unfitness ought not to prevent us from attempting anything to which God calls us. None of us can tell what latent capacity may be unfolded, if we but give ourselves to Him. The Scripture verses not only impart to us encouragement, but give a command as well. God requires us to do that which is in our power—no more and certainly no less. If we answer to the call of God, that is, give our lives to Him, He will increase our capacity for service.

"God's promise is just as true to-day as it was in the days of yore. The person who gives will always receive. In the kingdom of God, the arithmetic is strangely unlike that of earth, for He adds by subtraction and multiplies by division. The great secret of life is: God and I can do much."

On Easter Sunday the former president of Ursinus, Dr. A. Edwin Keigwin, will lead his large congregation into the splendid new building which the West End church in New York, under his magnetic leadership, has been erecting during the past two years. Special services, extending through six weeks, have been planned. The work of the church has been reorganized on an entirely new basis. Dr. Keigwin's many friends in Ursinus College extend hearty congratulations on this achievement.

VARSITY WINS

FIRST GAME

Strong Villa Nova Team Out-Played and Defeated 8-2.

Ursinus opened her baseball season on Patterson Field on Saturday by defeating the strong Villa Nova College team in an interesting and well played game by the score of 8 to 2. Our boys appeared in their new uniforms. We can feel justly proud of our team for its appearance as well as its playing ability.

At 2.15 Umpire Griffith called the game and the baseball season was once more started. Villa Nova began with a rush that bade evil to Ursinus. Conner, first man up, walked, stole second, and scored on Mitterling's overthrow of O'Leary's bunt; O'Leary took third on a passed ball and scored on Gilson's fly to Stugart. Lynch fled to Adams and thus closed the scoring of the visitors. For the remainder of the game the plate was never in danger.

Ursinus looked dangerous in their half of the first; singles by Diemer, Mitterling and Bedenk filled the bases, but the necessary hit was not forthcoming and the side was retired without a score.

In the second, Adams walked, took second on Hogan's error and scored on Kennedy's hit to right; Diemer walked, Mitterling drew a pass and forced Stugart home. Kennedy was out at the plate on a fielder's choice, but Diemer and Mitterling scored on a bad throw by Lear.

Ursinus added another in the third on Johnson's walk, Kennedy's two-base hit and Diemer's single; Kennedy was out at the plate on a relay from Lynch and closed the inning.

Ursinus scored one in the sixth on two-baggers by Bedenk, Boyer and Reiff. In the seventh Kennedy walked, stole second and third and scored on a passed ball.

Despite the fact that the day was rather chilly for good baseball, both teams played in mid-season form but four errors being made in the entire game, and several brilliant catches and stops were executed.

Johnson was master of the situation at all times and by his terrific speed and fast breaking shoots had the visitors at his mercy. He

EDITORIAL

To the editor falls the arduous task of writing his first official editorial. He will not apologize for his inexperience nor will he promise publications that will meet the approval of all, but he will endeavor to edit a paper that will give to the students as well as to our many outside readers a true account of college activities.

There is one purpose which the editor has in mind and for which he will devote his energy and that is the awakening of a spirit of loyalty to our Alma Mater. It has been truthfully said that Ursinus has been harmed more by her students than by any other agency. This ought not to be.

There are many of us who are continually grumbling about conditions as they exist here, although we do not have enough spirit to carefully think over the situation and help to work out a remedy. Let us get away from the habit of tearing down everything that does not meet with our approval and start to do those things ourselves which we think all ought to do.

The editor will be pleased to receive and publish any suggestions from the students or alumni which will be for the awakening of a spirit of love and loyalty to dear Ursinus. The columns of this paper will not be used for local controversies that do not interest our outside hearers and can only result in more harm than good, but all that pertains to building up a spirit of unity among us is welcome. No attention will be paid to anonymous contributions.

RESOLUTIONS.

WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God in His infinite wisdom, to call to his eternal rest the father of our esteemed classmate, Miss Sadie M. Hunsicker; be it

Resolved, That we, the class of Nineteen Hundred and Sixteen, extend to our classmate and the members of the bereaved family our deep and heartfelt sympathy, in this hour of sadness; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the members of the bereaved family; that they be published in THE URSINUS WEEKLY; and that they be entered upon the minutes of the class.

LEROY F. DIERR,
MARION S. KERN.

WHEREAS, It has pleased our Heavenly Father in His all-wise Providence to remove from the home of our fellow Schaffite, Miss Sadie Hunsicker, her beloved father; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Schaff Literary Society of Ursinus College tender to our esteemed member and her family our sincere sympathy in the great loss which they have suffered, commending them to the care and comfort of the Heavenly Father; and, be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to our bereaved member, be published in THE URSINUS WEEKLY, and be entered upon the minutes of the society.

The meeting on Tuesday evening was led by Miss Florence Scheuren. The service was devoted principally to song. One of the pleasing features was a selection by a girls' quartet. During the meeting the president read the names of the girls who had been chosen by the Cabinet to serve on committees of the ensuing year.

Concert in Philadelphia.

The last concert before the Easter recess was given by the Glee Club in the chapel of Bethany Temple, 54th and Spruce streets, Philadelphia, on Tuesday evening. The various numbers of the program were well received by the audience, encores being asked for every number.

Prof. Jolls, Director of the Glee Club, has under his supervision the choir of this church, composed of about seventy-five voices.

Before leaving for Norristown the boys were the guests of Prof. Jolls at a near-by ice cream parlor.

 On Tuesday morning the Rev. Daniel Burghalter of Tiffin, Ohio addressed the student body at the chapel service. His talk was inspiring, and we are always glad to welcome men of this type in our midst.

His talk was emphasized by gestures that betokened earnestness and sincerity. His appeal was for distinctive Christian service, which he claimed, is the biggest field of intellectual training that can be found.

He made a plea for the retaining of the buoyancy of youth. The power that keeps us young is the Spirit of God. It makes us dreamers and workers as well.

Instead of the word "legaler" use "legalist." Not only does it sound better, but it the correct word to use.

yielded but three singles, one of them a scratch, in the six innings in which he threw, and fanned eleven men. Bedenk showed himself to be a capable substitute on the mound and held the visitors hitless and scoreless for the remainder of the game.

With the exception of the first inning Ursinus displayed excellent team work. Kennedy, Diemer, and Adams starred in the field for Ursinus and Kennedy, Diemer, Bedenk, Boyer, and Reiff excelled at the bat. Mitterling caught a splendid game, using good judgment and instilling life and snap into the team. The fielding of O'Leary and Hogan, and the batting of Gilson were the features for Villa Nova.

A very interesting debate was the program for April 3rd, on the question: Resolved that the provision in the Panama Canal act, exempting the coast-wise shipping of the United States from toll, should be repealed.

The affirmative side was well defended by Miss Klein, Mr. Singley and Mr. Small. The negative was upheld by Miss Hauson, Mr. Light and Mr. Gobrecht. The rebuttal speeches were made by Messrs. Small and Light. The judges decided in favor of the negative side as did also the society.

Misses Kneeder and Boorem favored us with an instrumental duet, Miss Hyde with a vocal solo and Mr. Johnson with a cornet solo.

The society was pleased to welcome into active membership, Miss Emily Miller of Spring City, Pa.

special favors from Evelyn Newcomb, the college belle, played by Miss Spang. He soon forgot his old sweetheart. He was invited to become a candidate for class president by Casey Jones, his friend, by Mr. Singley, and by the Beau Carter clique who wanted him for his money. His election was unanimous.

The last act showed the despair of Lizzie Maud as she finds Aaron is lost to her. He refuses to follow Casey Jones, and is rejected by Beau Carter because he is discovered to be only a poor boy. He now realizes his real position in the college world and turns to his only friend, Lizzie Maud, who is waiting for him.

The various college songs accompanied by Mr. Fegely were enthusiastically received. Mr. Hartrauff aided materially in the appropriate stage decorations.

Zwinglyan.

A very interesting, miscellaneous program was rendered in Zwinglyan Hall on Friday evening. The numbers were as follows:

Talk about knocking the little white pill all over the 10 acre lot

—it's nothing compared with the big drive you college fellows made when we first brought out Fatima Cigarettes. It took only a minute for you to appreciate their excellence. And now, today, Fatimas are the biggest selling cigarettes in America!

We purposely put them in a plain package, so we could purposely put all the quality in the tobacco.
